DRAFT CAPITAL CONTROL PLANS FOR ROOSEVELT

Business and Labor Leaders Consulted.

Some Wage Increases

Wage increases affecting many thousands of workers in several lines of industry were announced yesterday. Some textile mills, tire factories, leather products plants, brokers' offices and others raised wages, for the most part 10%. The Cord company announced it had boosted pay of employes of all affiliated companies 5%, with no increase in working hours. Details on page 25.

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Working in collaboration with the heads of organized business and with some elements of organized labor, the Roosevelt administration pushed forward today toward the establishment of the new economic order to which the President's radio speech last night pointed the way.

Controlled capitalism is the objective, it became clear as more details of the President's project of a planned economy for industry under government supervision became available. To some it sounded like a fulfillment of the predictions of the radical minded, that capitalism is doomed and that something in the nature of a socialistic order is just around the corner.

Two Views of Situation.

Among onlookers of the economic drama two differing views prevail. One is that capitalists, a prey to fears of revolution, hastened to make concessions and to enlist the aid of the government in staving off bolshevism. The other is that big business merely frightened the administration into sponsoring a scheme involving the long sought extinction of the anti-trust laws and price agreements for which consumers will foot the bills.

Controlled capitalism has definitely taken its place alongside of controlled inflation as twin features of the Roosevelt program for conquering the depression.

The drafting of the bill for placing industry under government supervision went forward with three committees of experts working on various features of the plan. It was thought that the measure could be completed and laid before the President within 48 hours.

Trades to Be Organized.

Under the scheme envisaged by the bill, all the plants in a given industry would be organized into a trade association which would represent the industry in dealings with the government. The trade association would establish a minimum wage for the industry and would determine hours of labor through collective bargaining with organized labor.

Likewise the trade association would establish a price level for the industry. Wages, hours of labor and price levels so established would be subject to review by the government, which would have power to compel changes in any item in the public interest. The anti-trust laws would not apply to the operations of industry under this setup.

The ultimate result, according to the authors of the plan, would be higher wages, shorter hours of labor, work for more men and higher prices of the commodities produced. The era that produced the Sherman anti-trust act would be definitely ended and a new era of government controlled wages and prices inaugurated.

Harriman Joins Conferences.

In the conferences on the framing of the legislation Henry I. Harriman, wealthy textile mill man and president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, is rubbing elbows with Donald R. Richberg of Chicago, representing elements of organized labor that favor the plan.

"A planned economy for industry offers the quickest remedy for the depression," said Mr. Harriman. "I have been advocating it for nearly a year. The Chamber of Commerce went on record for it last week. For industry and for the country it is a choice between this scheme of organization and chaos. If the present cutthroat competition with vast unemployment and starvation wages for those employed goes on we shall all be ruined.

"Under this plan there will be a minimum wage and hours of labor fixed so as to divide the work among

73 AND 72 ASK DIVORCE; QUIBBLE ABOUT ALIMONY

The question of alimony should not be one of grave importance to an elderly couple, Superior Judge Joseph Sabath told John Fred Cramer, 72, and Rebecca, his 73 year old spouse yesterday. They are suing each other for divorce, charging desertion.

Attorney John E. Kelly Jr. asked temporary alimony of $100 a month for Mrs. Cramer. This was opposed by George Hansen, counsel for Mr. Cramer.

"Neither of you is likely to live to be more than a hundred, you know," the judge remarked to the couple, "and the alimony matter should not make such a great difference."

"Guess you're right about that, your honor," Mr. Cramer replied. "Each of us has a foot in the grave already. Even so, I want a divorce because I want my property rights settled once and for all."

When it was brought out that the Cramers have not lived together for fifteen years, Judge Sabath indicated he would grant a divorce at the final hearing Friday. He set temporary alimony at $60 a month and counsel's fees at $200.

POLISH AVIATOR HOPS ATLANTIC; LANDS IN BRAZIL

PERNAMBUCO, Brazil, May 8.—(AP)—After a speedy and unannounced flight from Africa, Capt. Stanislaus Karzynske, Polish aviator, who sought to establish a new distance flight record, tonight landed at Maceio, the capital of Alagoas province.

In his big white monoplane the flyer reached Brazilian soil before dispatches arrived announcing his departure from Saint-Louis, Senegal, at 10:10 p. m. Sunday. He was sighted near Natal, Brazil, at 3:30 p. m. today after crossing the South Atlantic in 17 hours and 50 minutes. He landed at Macelo at 4:30 p. m.

He had flown 2,140 miles. The distance flight record was set Feb. 8 by the British aviators, Squadron Leader O. R. Gayford and Flight Lieutenant Gilbert E. Nicholetts, who flew 5,343 miles from England to Africa.

Capt. Karzynske in 1931 flew from Warsaw to Belgrade and then made a circuit of Africa. He was the third flyer to complete a solo flight over the South Atlantic, the British aviator, Capt. James Mollison and the late Bert Hinkler having previously accomplished the feat.

3 Men on Soviet Ship Lost in Arctic Saved

TROMSO, Norway, May 8.—(AP)—Three survivors of the soviet salvage ship Rouslan who, after the steamer sank with the loss of 20 men, drifted five days over the arctic wastes in an open boat, told an agonizing story on arriving here today.

Capt. Klujeff of the Rouslan committed suicide to escape death by cold and privation, the survivors reported, and Chief Engineer Vorosnoff froze to death.

The three men—First Officer Datseloff and Sailors Popoff and Bekasoff—were rescued by the Norwegian sealing ship Ringesael last Friday. They were found in a drifting lifeboat, apparently dead. They were given treatment 12 hours before they regained consciousness.

Advised to End Lives.

When they were able to talk, the survivors said there had been five men in the lifeboat, but that Vorosnoff died after terrible suffering in temperature four degrees below zero. Capt. Klujeff, the other member of the lifeboat party, advised that all take their lives rather than endure death by slow freezing.

The three refused to take the captain's advice, but Klujeff shot himself with a rifle and fell into the sea.

The three survivors are suffering with frozen legs which may make amputation necessary.

Flashes Farewell Message.

LONGYEAR CITY, Spitzbergen, May 8.—(AP)—The story of a shipwreck in which a gale hammered Russian steamer carried 20 sailors to the bottom of the Arctic was told today.

"A last farewell to everybody. We are sinking," said a message flashed five days ago by the salvage vessel Rousian, a craft of 300 tons, before she plunged to the bottom off South cape, Spitzbergen, several hundred miles north of the arctic circle.

Details of the disaster were lacking until a party of Norwegians returned from a visit to the soviet colony at Barentsburg, in the Spitzbergen archipelago. The wireless farewell was picked up at Barentsburg.

The Rousian was towing the soviet icebreaker Maluguin from Spitzbergen, where it had been stranded in pack ice. A tremendous gale on April 24 separated the ships; the Maluguin was blown onto the ice and the Rouslan sprang a leak.

Bolivian Government Wins Parliamentary Elections

LA PAZ, Bolivia, May 8.—(AP)—Government forces were victorious in yesterday's parliamentary elections, retaining a majority in both the senate and chamber of deputies.

HAW! THE BOBBIES SEIZE A BLINKIN' HARMOREDHAUTO

An armored brougham in a parking lot at Lake and La Salle streets yesterday attracted the attention of Lieut. John Treacy and his bomb squad. The lieutenant and his men deployed themselves around the lot to await the return of the owners, who they were sure were gangsters.

After an hour's wait, three men got into the car. Lieut. Treacy didn't recognize them as hoodlums, but he took them to the detective bureau anyway.

"Why, I'm Henry E. La Breque of 66 Cromwell road, Earls Court, London, England," protested one of the men in a British accent.

It developed that Mr. La Breque had purchased the armored car to take to England and put in a sideshow. The men with him were Patrick Moore of Bloomington, Ill., who had sold him the car, and Joseph R. Lyons, 7545 Emerald avenue, a customs broker, who was to help him ship the car to London. Moore said he had purchased the car on the south side, his understanding being that Al Capone once owned it.

The men were released. The armored car will be sent to England for the edification of the gang-minded curious.

WHOEVER STOLE HIS DRUMS, LOUIS GETS THEM BACK

Louis Albright, 26 years old, 5054 South Francisco avenue, used to be a trap drummer. About a month ago some one stole his drums, his bells, his horns and rattles. Last night he wandered into the Tavern café, 938 East 41st street. The manager, Sheldon Booth, offered to sell him a lot of fine drumming equipment. Is was Albright's!

Booth was arrested. He said he got the drums from Ezra Frobish, 4005 Ellis avenue, who said he got them from Mrs. Nettie Personius, 3872 Lake Park avenue. She declared a partner of her husband, who is now in jail in Minnesota, gave them to her. Albright got his drums back.

Roosevelt Decrees Salute of 19 Guns for Governors

Washington, D. C., May 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today put state governors on a parity with members of the cabinet so far as salutes are concerned. The chief executive modified army and navy regulations to give the governors a 19 gun salute instead of 17. The 19 guns previously were fired only for members of the cabinet. Letters notifying the governors of their higher gun rating, were sent today from the White House.

AGENTS OF U. S. WATCH CRIME; CAPTURE TWO

Undercover Men Aid Abduction.

Freeport, Ill., May 8.—[Special.]—William Trevillian, 56 years old, wealthy vice president of the W. T. Rawleigh company, was kidnaped from in front of his office this evening and rescued three hours later by Chicago federal agents, who seized two of his abductors.

The action of the government men not only foiled a $40,000 ransom plot but nipped as bizarre a conspiracy as ever has been recorded in this region.

The kidnapers, who have confessed, are Laverne Moore, 21 years old, of Freeport, employed in the mailing room of the Rawleigh company, and William Stubbe, 27, of Rock Grove. The ex-undercover men who tripped them are Jack and "Red" Schultz, brothers, of La Salle, Ill.

Late tonight Assistant District Attorney Daniel Anderson of Chicago was getting the story of the ill-fated plot from Moore and Stubbe. That of the Schultz brothers had been obtained earlier.

Looking for Easy Money?

Chronologically the story goes back two weeks when the Schultz boys, who formerly had worked as undercover men for Sheriff E. J. Welter of La Salle county, visited Freeport in search of employment. They met young Moore in a restaurant and mentioned the purpose of their visit.

"If you're looking for some easy money I've got an idea," Moore is purported to have suggested. The brothers urged him to go on and Moore, it is charged, explained that his scheme was to kidnap Mr. Rawleigh, head of the company. Mr. Trevillian's name was not suggested at that time.

The Schultz brothers entered into the spirit of the plot. Officials tonight said they were not certain that the brothers were not sincere in their interest. In any event, Sheriff Welter learned of the conspiracy and questioned his former employés.

The two admitted quickly their part and agreed to coöperate with the authorities by going ahead with the plans with Moore and Stubbe. That was 10 days ago. Sheriff Welter notified Deputy Marshal Ben Berve and he reported to Chicago. Chicago intelligence men were sent here.

Death Delays Kidnaping.

Last Thursday the Schultz boys met Moore and Stubbe and it was planned to carry out the kidnaping Saturday or Sunday. However, the father of the brothers died and it was necessary to postpone the event. With the postponement the conspirators eliminated Mr. Rawleigh as their intended victim and selected Mr. Trevillian. Today was set for the job.

As soon as the Schultzes left the conference they reported the new plans to the agents, and Mr. Trevillian was warned that he was to be kidnaped. He agreed to submit. Thus when he left his office shortly before 6 o'clock this evening he was aware he probably would be seized. He was—by the Schultz brothers. They bundled him into their car. Nearby were several agents.

Mr. Trevillian was driven just out of town, where Moore and Stubbe were waiting. Under guard of the four, all of whom were armed, he was driven to an abandoned farm in a desolate region near Sugar river, about 20 miles northeast of here. He was bound, gagged, and thrown into a basement.

Carry Note to Mrs. Trevillian.

Then Moore and "Red" Schultz started back for Freeport, the former carrying in his pocket a rudely scrawled note addressed to Mrs. Trevillian. This letter stated in substance that if she didn't pay $40,000 ransom something would happen to her husband.

Then, at a prearranged time, three squads of secret service men and deputy marshals, including Deputy William Thompson of Chicago, set out for the farmhouse prison of Mr. Trevillian. They surrounded the house and a moment later broke in with guns in readiness. Stubbe and Jack Schultz, who had been left behind to guard their captive, were taken by surprise, the former literally, the latter synthetically.

It only required a few moments to find the uncomfortable Mr. Trevillian, who was shivering in a cold, dark basement, barely able to move because of the thongs.

Mr. Trevillian returned home. Moore and Stubbe were locked up. Jack and "Red" Schultz were released.

Tax Strikers Rally Again with New Name

Judges Act.

Cook county judges move to force receivers appointed by them to pay at least 75 per cent of taxes due on properties managed by them. Details on page 2.

Certain officers of the old Association of Real Estate Taxpayers, which has already collected $600,000 and expended $511,000 in fruitless attempts to tie up the machinery of tax collection in Cook county, faced 1,000 of the old members in a meeting at the Morrison hotel last night and started a drive to get $10,000 more with which to try again.

These officers are forbidden by an injunction, issued Feb. 14 by Judge William J. Lindsay, to hold meetings under the name of the old group.

Old Leader Heads New Group.

The name of the new tax striking organization is "the Real Estate Defense committee," and the leader of the movement is John M. Pratt, the $20,000 a year director of the old one. Also prominent with him on the platform last night was James E. Bistor, president of the old association.

After Pratt, a tall, stalwart orator, had made a speech attacking the Skarda law permitting receiverships of property on which taxes are not paid, and defying another new law imposing a fine of $1,000 on persons fomenting tax strikes, pledge cards were distributed in the crowd.

"If we get enough money," shouted Pratt amid cheers from the assembled crowd, "we'll have a massmeeting of 25,000 in the Stadium and a parade to it, too. Frightened by the marches of school teachers and drunk with power, the bankers and politicians went to Springfield and obtained these new laws that are an insult to the people of Chicago."

Insurgents Absent.

Although the injunction still holds, admission to the hall was by card only and it was said only members of the old association were permitted to enter. None of the insurgent members of the directorate of the Association of Real Estate Taxpayers, who had tried to oust Pratt and Bistor, was present. Seated with the two old managing directors were their supporters on the board, George Reinecke, William Waller and Lowell Q. Needler, and the association treasurer, James D. Stover.

A show of hands was called for on the proposed march to the Stadium and the massmeeting of 25,000. There were no dissenting votes.

"The activities of the Association of Real Estate Taxpayers have already paid you $35 for $1 in just one year's taxes," Pratt declared. "If you contribute now we can cut those taxes in half. This is no penny job. I want no pledge less than $5. Who will be the first 1,000 to sign—and thus become members of the Supporting Committee of One Thousand?"

Each of those present was given an extra handful of the pledge cards.

Funds Tied Up by Court.

Judge Lindsay's injunction tied up the funds of the old association and prevented Pratt, Bistor and their associate supporters from handling the organization's affairs. The injunction was obtained by the opposing faction in the board of directors.

In its heyday the old association tried to have the whole assessments of recent years declared illegal on the grounds that real estate was unfairly taxed while personalty escaped. This contention was thrown out by the State Supreme court.

STRIKE TIES UP 108 COAL YARDS; PLOT CHARGED

Merchants Accuse Teamster Union.

With 108 of the city's 200 coal yards shut down in a strike of the outlaw coal teamsters' union, Mayor Kelly and State's Attorney Courtney joined hands last night in a war to the finish on labor racketeers. They met for an hour with leaders of organized labor in the mayor's office at the city hall and then adjourned for a private conference at the mayor's home on the south side.

Following the first conference, Joseph B. Fleming, counsel for the Chicago Coal Merchants association, told the mayor that his clients had reason to believe the strike was called to club them into joining the Trucking and Transport agency, commonly known as the T-N-T. This is the agency by which Murray Humphries, public enemy No. 1, is alleged to extort $500,000 a year from the city's trucking industry.

Confer with Three Labor Chiefs.

Mayor Kelly and State's Attorney Courtney were loath to discuss the subject of their conference at the city hall. The mayor said it was arranged at request of three labor leaders who attended: Victor A. Olander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor; John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and Edward N. Nockels, secretary of the Chicago federation.

"We canvassed the labor situation generally," said Mr. Kelly. "There seemed to be a strong sentiment among the labor leaders that the Trucking and Transport agency is dominated by racketeers. I have said, and I believe Mr. Courtney agrees, that the situation requires action, not ballyhoo. We will have other conferences, but hope to show results in action, not in words."

Strike Called by Barker Relative.

Daniel Cain, brother-in-law of the slain George [Red] Barker, former public enemy, called the teamsters' strike as president of the union. Mr. Fleming declared the strike was called only at yards whose proprietors had refused to deal with the T-N-T. Throughout the day, he said, Cain's agents moved from yard to yard, offering T-N-T wage contracts and ordering a walkout wherever these contracts were refused.

One of Cain's business agents, Al Reese, announced last night that 150 yards had been visited and that all but 30 dealers had signed up.

It was learned that no strike was called on the city's biggest coal distributor, the Consumers company, whose 46 yards operated all day. Andrew C. O'Laughlin, president of Consumers, admitted his company had ceased paying dues to the coal merchant's association four months ago. Norman R. Elmstrom, president of the association, said the Consumers company had since been expelled from membership.

Prefer Strike to "T-N-T."

Notwithstanding the business agent's claim of a wholesale surrender by the association, a survey of all yards at 11 o'clock last night showed practically every member accepting a strike in preference to the T-N-T contract, according to Mr. Elmstrom. The association's president said there had been a few defections, notably that of the Moulding-Brownell company, big downtown distributor of coal and building supplies.

Mr. Elmstrom said he was informed that the Moulding-Brownell company had signed with Cain's agents yesterday. He declared that the Consumers company had "gone along" with the T-N-T since last January. All of Consumer's trucks, he added, are now decorated with the T-N-T emblem. J. J. O'Laughlin, vice president of Consumers, admitted "going along with the T-N-T," but denied that his company had signed any contract.

O'Laughlin's Version of Strike.

"You investigate the extent of the strike and you'll find only a few yards affected," said Mr. O'Laughlin. "It's true that we quit paying dues to the coal merchants' association. We got out because there are a few fellows over there who can't be suited in anything. We have been going along with the Trucking and Transport agency, but we haven't signed anything."

Discussing the practices of the T-N-T, Attorney Fleming said the agency had held a contract to negotiate all wage scales for the teamsters' union since December, 1931. The merchants' association consented to deal with the T-N-T for 1932 wage contracts, he said, but declined to regotiate for 1933 when it discovered that the T-N-T proposed to cut wages, double its own dues and impose a boycott on every customer delinquent more than two months on his coal bill.

"The association had been dealing directly with the union for 25 years until the T-N-T came into the picture in 1931," said Mr. Fleming. "The union heads, John Sheridan Jr., Milton Booth Jr., and Cain, told us they had given the T-N-T the power to negotiate their wage agreements. We couldn't understand the function of the T-N-T at the time, but we went along. We have since gained a clearer idea of the T-N-T's operations."

In the negotiations of December, 1931, Mr. Fleming explained, the scale for 1932 was set at $8 for a ten hour day for truck drivers and $5 a day for helpers. Against each employer signing, he said, the T-N-T assessed a $10 yearly registration fee and a $1 monthly fee per truck.

The T-N-T hid its racketeering hand for a whole year until negotiations for the 1933 contract came up last December, Mr. Fleming said. This time, he declared, Cain, Booth, and Sheridan gave notice that the T-N-T power of negotiation was to extend for three years instead of one.

Merchants Are Through.

"The principle of negotiations was discarded," Mr. Fleming said. "The T-N-T simply laid down a previously prepared contract and told us to sign or take the consequences. We told the T-N-T we were through with them and would negotiate thereafter only with the union heads. We said we had always arbitrated any differences before and would continue in the regular way."

The proffered contract had its jokers, Mr. Fleming said. The T-N-T offered to cut the drivers' scale from $8 to $7.50, he said, and waived the $10 registration fee. But on the far greater item of the monthly assessment per truck, the T-N-T insisted on a boost from $1 to $2, he said.

"The boycott provision was evidently offered as a bait to the merchants," Mr. Fleming declared. "It provided that if a customer fell behind more than sixty days on his coal bill with a signer of the contract, no other signer would sell nor any union man deliver the delinquent customer any coal. The merchants' association took the view that that portion of the contract was illegal."

Dissension Arises in Union.

Following rejection of the contract, dissension arose in the teamsters' union, Mr. Fleming recalled. George Roy Baker, who claimed to have been elected president in 1931, was restrained from taking office by an injunction issued by Judge William J. Lindsay. Later the injunction was dissolved by the Appellate court and Baker served notice that the union membership dues must be paid to his faction.

The coal trade employs the check-off system, whereby the company paymaster deducts each employé's dues from his pay check and gives it to the union.

"We refused to take sides in the internal fight," Mr. Fleming said. "We simply quit checking off the dues, but continued, however, to pay the $8 scale of 1932. We are informed that the Consumers company, whether it signed a T-N-T contract or otherwise, got the benefit of the $7.50 scale. We assume they are paying the double assessment on their trucks.

"T-N-T" a Capone Racket.

It has been stated at the state's attorney's office that the T-N-T was originally the brain child of Barker and his mentor in the labor rackets, Al Capone. Since Barker's death and Capone's imprisonment, according to the state's attorney's racket bureau, the T-N-T has been the property of Murray Humphries, working in collusion with William [Klondike] O'Donnell and William [Three Fingered Jack] White. O'Donnell and White, it is charged are former Capone lieutenants now backing the Sheridan-Booth crowd in the coal teamsters' union.

At no time in the negotiations between the coal merchants' association and the T-N-T did Humphries or his comrades, O'Donnell and White, appear openly. The ostensible secretary, Mr. Fleming said, was one Charles J. Wilson and the president was an official of F. Bieschke & Sons Co., a coal concern against which the Illinois emergency relief commission recently filed charges for selling inferior coal to the charities.

TWO FLEE INSANE HOSPITAL.

RECEIVERS MUST PAY $15,000,000 IN BACK TAXES

Action Taken by Circuit Court Judges.

Payment within ten days of millions of dollars in delinquent taxes on thousands of properties in receivership in Cook county was ordered yesterday by judges of the Circuit court by an unanimous vote.

The order notified all receivers of the court to pay all delinquent taxes on the properties they govern before May 18. If the money on hand is not sufficient to pay the total taxes due, then the receivers must pay to the county treasurer 75 per cent of the funds on hand and 75 per cent of the net operating income before the end of each month until all the accrued taxes, penalties, interests, and costs are fully paid.

Although the exact figures were not available, it was estimated that there are 7,000 receiverships pending in the Circuit court and that taxes totaling more than $15,000,000 are long overdue on these properties for the years 1928, 1929, and 1930. Immediate payment of several millions of dollars and eventual payment of the entire $15,000,000 was forecast by the judges.

Appellate Decision Helps.

The Appellate court yesterday handed down a decision confirming what tax experts have long contended: that taxes form a prior lien upon properties in receivership and that taxes must be paid in entirety before any other expenses are paid. One or two judges in the Circuit and Superior courts announced more than a year ago that the law required receivers to pay taxes and that they would dismiss receivers who did not obey this law.

County Treasurer McDonough expressed satisfaction when informed of the Circuit court order yesterday. An investigation revealed, however, that the county treasurer's campaign to collect overdue taxes under the Skarda tax receivership law has been productive of comparatively small results despite the daily announcements of suits to be filed and collections made.

Only Four Suits Filed.

This campaign was about two weeks old yesterday. Yet, only four suits had been actually filed at the close of court yesterday under the new law which permits the county treasurer to ask for a receiver to collect income from tax delinquent properties.

It was recalled that County Treasurer McDonough at the outset of the campaign had promised to file suits against thousands of income producing properties which have failed to pay the taxes due for 1928, 1929 and 1930. He stated that a special force would be put to work on the records in order to select the big tax dodgers.

The procedure of the county treasurer has been to issue a list of tax delinquent properties and to announce that he intended to file suits against them under the new receivership law. Some fifty properties have thus been given publicity in this way, but only the four suits have been filed.

Make Small Payments.

After newspaper publicity on these tax delinquent properties, representatives have conferred with the county treasurer and made small down payments on back taxes. A $10,000 payment on a $100,000 tax bill has been enough to hold up the threatened court action.

Of the ten names of property owners published in the first list given out May 1, three promised to pay $186,000. This was hailed jubilantly by the county treasurer, although the total taxes due on the ten properties were $1,595,555. No receivership suits have yet been filed against any of the ten named in the first list.

Similarly, each day after the publication of new lists, certain property owners have voluntarily made down payments and promised to make others. Yesterday, a total of $181,250 in delinquent taxes was paid. The Seneca hotel, 200 East Chestnut street, paid $15,000; the Windermere hotel, 1642 East 56th street, paid $64,250; the Clark-Diversey building paid $46,000; the Pearson hotel, 190 East Pearson street, paid $36,000, and the Lawyers building, 100 North La Salle street, paid $10,000. These payments aggregate only a fraction of the total delinquent taxes on those properties.

New Law Attacked.

The fourth suit filed yesterday under the Skarda act was against a three story apartment building at 631 North Michigan avenue. Back taxes on the building for 1928, 1929, and 1930 total $27,430.

Service was obtained yesterday in a suit under the new law upon Sol H. Goldberg, lessee of the Loop-End building, 177 North State street. Goldberg has refused to pay any portion of the back taxes due upon the building. A hearing will be held tomorrow at which Goldberg will dispute the constitutionality of the new law.

Meanwhile, another list of tax delinquent properties was issued by the county treasurer with the announcement that they were marked for receivership action. The properties and the taxes due upon them follow:

701 North Michigan avenue, $167,616.
512 North Michigan avenue, $97,286.
Lake Shore Drive hotel, 181 Lake Shore drive, $78,740.
211 East Chestnut street, $49,597.
108 North Dearborn street, $38,665.
600 North Michigan avenue, $34,002.
716 North Michigan avenue, $33,769.
164 North Michigan avenue, $30,269.
158 East Ohio street, $23,194.

33.88 Per Cent Paid for 1931.

Tax collection figures made public yesterday showed that only 33.88 per cent of the 1931 taxes had been paid up to and including last Friday. The amount paid was $89,368,054 and the total taxes extended were $263,756,610. The percentages of taxes paid for preceding years are as follows: 1928, 85.18 per cent; 1929, 73.55 per cent; 1930, 60.66 per cent.

One reason for the low collections this year is that real estate taxes may be paid in two installments, the second installment being due by Sept. 1. Many have taken advantage of this plan.

Almost 100,000 complaints on 1931 real estate valuations have been filed with the board of appeals, according to an estimate last night after the last of the complaints had been filed. This was a record total never before approached in the history of Cook county. All revisions and corrections being ordered by the board of appeals will be reflected only in the second installment of 1931 real estate taxes due to be paid by Sept. 1.

SCHOOL ECONOMY FIGURES NEARLY READY FOR BOARD

Figures on most of the school savings proposed under the 16 point economy program of Orville J. Taylor, president of the board of education, were completed yesterday, but were not announced. Mr. Taylor said they would not be given out before Mayor Kelly appoints five new board members tomorrow.

A complete study was furnished to Mr. Taylor by Howard P. Savage, business manager of the system, but the educational department under the direction of Supt. William J. Bogan was not ready with its figures. Proposed reductions in educational expenditures include the lopping off of several assistant superintendents, district superintendents, supervisors and special teachers.

"There is nothing in the whole program," asserted Mr. Taylor, "that contemplates a plan along any definite line. It is an attempt to obtain all available economies that the board can make without detriment to the system as a whole. No action has been taken yet."

Protests against school budget cuts were heard last night in the school board meeting room. Among the speakers were Mrs. Holland Flagler, president of the Illinois Parent-Teacher association, and Mrs. John J. Orrors, Mrs. Thomas B. Stephenson, and Mrs. Herbert H. Siddal, other parent-teacher leaders.

BOARD AIDS MOVE FOR SCHOOL PAY DAY THIS WEEK

Transfers $750,000; Need $576,000 More.

Confidence was expressed at a special meeting of the board of education yesterday that $576,000 of additional cash needed to meet the board's $3,400,000 pay roll for last September would be realized from the sale of 1932 school tax warrants in time to make possible the pay day this week.

The special meeting was called to make available for pay roll purposes $750,000 received last week from the state distributive fund.

$2,824,000 Cash on Hand.

Henry P. Chandler, head of the "liberty loan" drive to pay teachers, announced that a total of $2,006,000 in cash, received in payment for warrants, is now available for the September pay roll for the 14,000 teachers and 4,000 other school board employés. This money, added to the $750,000 state fund and $68,000 in cash on hand, leaves the board $576,000 short of the money necessary to meet the pay roll.

The Chandler committee yesterday afternoon had sold a total of $2,438,000 in school board warrants. A total of $117,000 worth of the warrants are not to be delivered and paid for until Saturday. Another $315,000 is for building and playground warrants, which are not available for general pay roll purposes.

Oppose Splitting Pay Roll.

The board, after some debate, decided that it would not be practical to split the September pay roll in two parts in order to give teachers some of the cash available immediately.

It was pointed out that the work of making out new checks probably would take longer than would the sale of the additional warrants necessary to meet the pay roll.

Trutee James A. Hemingway said officials of the National Education association had issued an ultimatum that they would not hold the association convention in Chicago, July 1-7, unless substantial payments are made to teachers by that time.

"I think the teachers will have money by that time," Trustee Joseph P. Savage said. "Mayor Kelly is working with the bankers now on a plan to sell $17,000,000 worth of warrants. That sum, with the warrants sold by the Chandler committee, will clean up at least five months' pay."

Land Sale to Bring $133,000.

It was disclosed at the meeting that an additional $133,000 in cash may be available for pay roll purposes in the next few days through the sale of two square blocks of school land at 91st and Throop streets. The Ridge Park district has offered that sum for the land. The sale has been authorized by the board, confirmed by the city council, and the deeds are in the hands of the city real estate department.

SUSPENDS COP WHO 'FORGOT' IN WINKLER'S TRIAL

Policeman George Conrad Kurzwelly, lockup keeper who testified for the defense in the trial of Gus Winkler, north side gangster, was suspended yesterday by Commissioner of Police Allman. Charges are being drafted against Kurzwelly and soon will be filed with the civil service commission.

Kurzwelly had given the state's attorney's office a signed statement that he had seen the policemen who arrested Winkler remove a gun from Winkler's person. On the witness stand he testified that he could not remember seeing Sergt. William Drury find the gun. Despite his change in testimony a jury found the gangster guilty and he was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction and fined $300.

Edison Co. Fights Rate Slash; Calls Movement 'Confiscation'

The Commonwealth Edison company yesterday furnished a complete statement of its financial condition to the Illinois commerce commission. The action was in answer to a citation to show cause why its rates should not be reduced.

Chairman Benjamin F. Lindheimer of the commerce commission opened the "informal" hearing on electricity rates with the statement that the commission's aim is to bring about a reduction. Attorney Harry J. Dunbaugh for the utility company replied that while the company is ready to strive to satisfy the commission, and that the company hopes ultimately to be able to reduce its rates to all customers, the present rates are at such a level that the courts would be certain to hold that any reduction would amount to confiscation.

"No Sidestepping"—Lindheimer.

"The statement has been made that, through these conferences, the companies, by offering nominal concessions, intend to escape the full and complete investigation which attends an actual rate hearing," Chairman Lindheimer told the utility representatives. "I want to eliminate any such idea right now.

"As the commission sees it, our attention should be directed to three things: Valuation, expense of operation, and revenue. As to valuation, we realize that neither the commission nor the company now has an actual appraisal, but we nevertheless believe that fair minds should come close to agreeing upon a valuation which would serve as a basis for fixing a present rate.

"The commission believes that, inasmuch as a majority of your property was acquired during the period of high prices and during the last three years there has been a substantial decline in value, your properties are necessarily worth less today than their book value.

"You are charging too much for depreciation and we think your large accumulations in the depreciation reserve fund are a very strong evidence of that.

"The commission wants it understood that the prime object of this conference is to obtain relief for the mass of citizens as distinguished from any class. This relief can be contained only by a reduction in rates to all your residential customers."

A statement prepared by the electric company was handed the commission. It said electricity rates in Chicago are now 43 per cent below 1913 levels, while the general living costs are still 32 per cent above those levels.

In 1932 the rate earned on book value was 5.6 per cent, but based on a value determined by an appraisal the return would be 4 per cent, it was claimed. The company's statement on operating revenue for 1932 and for the first three months of this year follows:

Operating revenue	$74,401,095	$18,506,107
Operating expenses and other deductions	57,020,630	14,343,296
Operating income	17,380,464	4,162,810
Net rent reduction	149,919	28,652
Net operating income	17,230,545	4,134,158
Income from non-operating properties	1,385,653	196,541
Gross corporate income	18,616,198	4,330,700
Deductions, including interest and fixed charges	8,770,007	2,178,560
Net income	9,846,190	2,152,139

The revenue for the first three months of 1932 was 27.8 per cent of that for the whole year, the statement shows. Compared with the first quarter of 1933 there is a loss of 10.4 per cent.

There was a pay roll decrease of $4,450,000 for 1932 as compared with 1931, or 22.2 per cent, and for the fifteen months ending April 1, 1933, the reduction was 23.7 per cent. On Aug. 1, 1932, there was a general decrease of 10 per cent in wages of all employés receiving more than $100 a month and a greater reduction for higher paid employés and officials. In November, 1929, the number of employés was 11,890; the average for 1932 was 8,477, and on April 1, 1933, the number was 8,066, a reduction of 32 per cent from the peak.

Surplus	6.3	5.1	*0.7
Dividends	13.1	14.8	13.7
Retirement expense	8.4	7.4	10.2
Interest and amortization of debt discount	7.8	9.9	11.6
Taxes and municipal compensation	10.7	10.3	12.9
Materials and miscellaneous	10.5	8.0	8.5
Purchased energy	10.4	14.5	16.8
Fuel	11.4	9.0	7.4
Labor	21.4	21.2	19.6

*Deficit.

The company called attention to President Roosevelt's request that employers refrain from further reductions in wages, and added that any further deflation in the affairs of the company during the inflationary period would cause very serious embarrassment. The hearing is to be resumed today.

U. S. CRIME CASES CONGEST DOCKET; GREEN ASKS HELP

United States Attorney Dwight H. Green yesterday appealed to Presiding Judge Samuel Alschuler of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals to assign a downstate district judge to Chicago because of the congested condition of the calendar. Almost 500 criminal cases, some 200 of them charging violations of the prohibition laws, are pending.

Judge James H. Wilkerson is hearing the criminal call, though important litigation, such as the telephone rate case, the Illinois Life Insurance case, and several phases of the Insull receiverships, have taken much of his time. Judge George A. Carpenter is hearing only the criminal cases that must be wound up before his resignation becomes effective June 30. Judge John P. Barnes is hearing bankruptcy cases and Judge Charles E. Woodward is sitting at Freeport. Judge Walter C. Lindley of Danville, assigned to Chicago, is occupied with a sanitary district patent suit.

There are two vacancies on the district bench, one due to the failure of the senate to confirm George E. Q. Johnson's recess appointment, and the other due to Judge Carpenter's resignation.

JAMES DEMANDS COURTESY WHEN HE IS HELD UP

The adding of insult to injury provided the stimulus yesterday which enabled James Maniatos to conquer a holdup man. After Maniatos had been held up in his restaurant at 1801 Indiana avenue the robber called him "a big cheese." Maniatos leaped on the man, wrenched the gun from him and summoned the South State street police. The robber was identified as George Williams, 34 years old, 417 North Clark street. His bruises were treated at the county hospital before he was locked up.

UTILITIES BOARD TO LIMIT CHARGE ON CRADLE PHONE

No Pay After 3 Years Is the Plan.

Members of the Illinois commerce commission were reported yesterday to have agreed on a ruling prohibiting the telephone company from continuing the surcharge of 25 cents for the use of cradle telephones after the subscriber has paid the charge for three years. The form of the order, however, caused some disagreement, it was said, and it may not be entered in the record for another day or two.

Under the proposed order the company would be allowed $9 for the hand phones, of which there are 207,000 sets in operation at present. It was estimated that 115,000 subscribers have used them for at least three years, and for these payments would stop. The average time of the charge for the other 92,000 users would be a year and a half.

Chairman Benjamin F. Lindheimer was said to be in favor of going further than the three year limit. Disputes still to be settled among the commissioners were said to involve cases where the subscriber moved—whether he should be given credit on a new cradle set for any payments made at a former address.

In New York and New Jersey the companies were compelled to cut the surcharge from 25 to 15 cents a month. In other states other arrangements were made, one state permitting the surcharge only two years, according to commerce commission officials. Cradle phones have been in use five years in Illinois and it was more than a year ago that the commission, of its own motion, considered reducing or abolishing the surcharge. The commissioners hope to draft an order that will not be appealed, it was explained.

Gets 1 to 10 at Joliet as Swindler of Banker, 90

Daniel J. Keene, 36 years old, of Chicago was sentenced to 1 to 10 years in Joliet penitentiary yesterday by Circuit Judge John K. Newhall at Geneva on a charge of participating in a $20,000 swindle. The sentence was appealed. Keane and two other men not yet tried were charged with defrauding George M. Peck, 90 year old Elgin civil war veteran and bank president.

LINDBERGH CASE RANSOM FRAUD AGAIN IN COURT

Mrs. M'Lean Tells Means' Demands.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Gaston B. Means, who still calls himself the "super-sleuth" for all that he is serving a 15 year term in the Atlanta penitentiary, convicted of defrauding Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean of $104,000 in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping case of a year ago, went on trial here today in the District of Columbia Supreme court for another angle of the same case.

This time he has a co-defendant, Norman T. Whitaker, one time famous chess player, who was known to Mrs. McLean in the baby rescue negotiations as the "Fox." These two men are charged with conspiracy to attempt to defraud Mrs. McLean of an additional $35,000 which, according to Mrs. McLean, Means told her they would take from her in exchange for $49,000 of the $50,000 "hot money" which was supposed to have been paid by Dr. John F. [Jafsie] Condon to the kidnapers of the infant son of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh.

Ready to Fawn Gems.

Mrs. McLean, so goes the story, presented today by United States Attorney Leo A. Rover, did not have the ready money. She already had borrowed $100,000 from the bank and given that, with an extra $4,000 for expenses, to Means in the faith that he'd return to her the little baby who even then lay dead in a ditch.

But she had some jeweled bracelets and a diamond necklace [estimated at $90,000] and gave them to a friend to pawn for the desired $35,000. The friend, Miss Elizabeth Poe, a Washington newspaper woman, didn't peddle the jewels to a pawnshop. Instead, so Attorney Rover declared, she took them to Mrs. McLean's lawyers. It was the first they knew of the negotiations. Instead of seeing that Means got the $35,000, the attorney saw that Means went to trial, and later to the penitentiary, on the $104,000 charge.

Today they brought him back, with a prison haircut, with a prison pallor, but with the same bravado that carried him through the former trial.

The courtroom was filled with spectators. Not so much to see defendant Means, or even Mrs. McLean, owner of the Hope diamond, but to catch a glimpse of Col. Lindbergh, who is scheduled to testify.

Col. Lindbergh, delayed by fog in Ohio, flew to Washington and went to a hotel after reaching the airport at 5:40. He probably will testify tomorrow.

Hears Means Make Offer.

Today, however, his mother's first cousin, Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, told the jury of seven women and five men that he had sat in Mrs. McLean's marble palace on Massachusetts avenue on the evening of March 5, 1932, and had heard Means tell him and Mrs. McLean that he was "positive" he could recover the child, kidnaped five days earlier; that he wanted Lindbergh's approval of the plan, and hoped Land would contact his cousin.

"I told them," Admiral Land, chief of naval construction, told the jury today, "that I'd be glad to do anything I could to get back that little baby. So about 4 o'clock the next morning I started out in a blizzard and drove to Hopewell, N. J. I told Col. Lindbergh my mission, but was careful not to mention Means' name, for he had warned me not to. The colonel agreed and gave me means of identifying the baby."

"And what was that indentification?" asked William Tomlinson, defense attorney, and everybody in the courtroom hunched forward the better to listen.

"I have never disclosed it," snapped Admiral Land. "My chore was to identify the baby, not to tell others about it."

"Did you ever identify the baby?" the prosecutor asked.

"No," he said softly. A little ripple of dismay ran around the room.

Just before court adjourned for the day Mrs. McLean took the stand. She told how she had sought out Means to get the baby back, caught back a sob in her throat as she referred to her own son, now dead, who was threatened by kidnapers. The defense objected to this background and Mrs. McLean went on with her story.

Vividly she painted the scene in her drawing room on the evening of Monday, March 7, when she turned over to Means $100,000 in old money, unmarked. First she had handed it to a Roman Catholic priest whom they had asked in for counsel.

Priest Counts Money.

"The priest counted the money," said Mrs. McLean, "then Mr. Means counted it. He put it in a pasteboard box and left the house. That was the last I ever saw of the money. O, later, I was at the Means' residence and he showed me a packet of money and flipped a few bills, but I didn't count it."

Tomorrow Mrs. McLean will continue the story through the 20th of March when, the prosecution charges, she met "the Fox" and was told by Means that "the Fox" was one of the kidnapers and "a dangerous fellow."

A body taken from the Lockport canal Saturday was identified yesterday as that of George Mather, 62 years old, 4122 West Congress street. Relatives said he had threatened suicide several times before his disappearance.

Women Seek Political Plums for Their Husbands

POLITICAL WIVES SEEKING JOBS FOR HUSBANDS

Leaves Women Free to Follow Careers.

Washington, D. C., May 8.—(AP)—A new type of woman politician has popped upon the scene—the one who wants her political plum in her husband's name so she'll be free to follow her own career.

Half a dozen women, prominent in their states, are asking that the appointments they feel they have earned be handed to their husbands.

Mrs. Blair Starts Fashion.

Emily Newell Blair of Missouri seems to have started it after she campaigned from state to state for Roosevelt. Her husband, Harry Blair, was made a special assistant in the department of justice. Mrs. Blair thus was brought to Washington and her writing and lecturing ability remains available to the Democratic party.

Leading Democrats of the state of Washington want some job for Robbert L. Proctor, husband of Mrs. Marie Proctor, possibly state immigration commissioner. Mrs. Proctor for the last three years has been a volunteer worker for the Democratic party, without compensation, but with regular office hours every day from 9 to 5.

Mrs. Harrison Parkman of Emporia, Kas., wants a place for her husband in the postoffice department. For Mrs. Parkman perfected such an organization in her state that women in every precinct were in touch with the national campaign office. She wants to keep on with such work.

Picks Job for Husband.

Mrs. June Fickel, Iowa organizer, would prefer to continue her own political work, but suggests her husband for deputy collector of internal revenue for Iowa.

Mrs. Grace Westerhouse of California, committeewoman from the Philippine islands and an effective west coast worker, would like her engineer husband, Ernest Westerhouse, to have a job on Hoover dam. Mrs. James R. Riggs, former national committeewoman of Indiana, wants her husband put into the department of agriculture.

Powerful women leaders of the Democratic party have urged an appointment for Annie Dickie Oleson, Minnesota woman orator, for her campaign work in the farming states of Kansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas, Iowa, and Minnesota.

Mrs. Oleson wants her husband, Peter Oleson, Minnesota educator, to get a Washington job, leaving her free to take the platform at any time.

DIES SUDDENLY IN HOME.

Joseph B. Hadden, 46 years old, 448 Garfield avenue, died suddenly yesterday at his home. Heart disease apparently was the cause.

LONDON PAPER CLAIMS TREASURE OF CZAR WILL BE RECOVERED

LONDON, May 8.—(AP)—The London Herald reported today that a treasure worth £2,000,000 [about $7,940,000], belonging to the murdered czar Nicholas II. and prominent Russian noblemen, will soon be recovered at Sverdlovsk, on the Asiatic side of the Ural mountains. The czar's family was slain at Sverdlovsk, then known as Ekaterinberg, after the 1917 revolution.

The cache was long known to the London agent of some of the owners, the Herald said. The agent sent three representatives, one of whom was a London banker, to obtain the treasure. They were reported to have negotiated for 18 months with the soviet government with the result that the latter agreed to turn over one-fourth of the treasure.

The treasure is said to be buried at a considerable depth under a house where it was placed 16 years ago by a man not known in Russia. The soviet government is said to have guaranteed him safe conduct to Sverdlovsk. The Herald reported discovery of the treasure was made but that it would not be dug up until the arrival of the man who buried it.

CHICAGO HEIGHTS REMOVES POLICE AND FIRE CHIEFS

The city council of Chicago Heights voted last evening to abolish the jobs of fire chief and police chief as an economy measure.

As a result Maj. Harry B. Stafford, police chief for the last four years, is out of a job. Malcom Philip, fire chief for the last twenty-one years, fares differently by being placed on the pension list. Their offices will be taken over by Fire and Police Commissioner Arthur H. Pannenborg who will serve without extra compensation.

Mayor Daniel Bergin explained that the retiring of the department chiefs is part of a $30,000 retrenchment program. Their combined salaries amounted to more than $6,000 annually. The ouster orders become effective June 1.

Wires He's for Roosevelt Stronger Than Horseradish

Washington, D. C., May 8.—(AP)—Singular among the numerous congratulations sent to the President today on his address of last night was one signed Raymond P. Lockerby of Boise, Idaho, saying "I am with you stronger than horseradish."

White Plains, N. Y., May 8.—[Special.]—Shortage of $250,000 in the accounts of the county treasurer as public administrator was disclosed today by William A. Davidson, county attorney. Most of the money, he explained, belonged to widows and children whose interests were in the hands of the Westchester surrogate. Inquiry indicated it had been used in stock transactions, he said.

Mr. Davidson said he had been told of the shortage by Mortimer C. O'Brien, a lawyer, who said he had been informed of the missing funds by Leonard E. Teed, who retired as deputy treasurer of the county on April 29. Mr. Teed, who is 52, left his home for a vacation. Mr. O'Brien declared the former deputy treasurer would make an appearance "at the proper time." No criminal action has been started.

WEALTHY HEAD OF MOVIE CHAIN KILLED IN CRASH

Floyd Brockwell Auto Victim.

AUTOMOBILE THEFTS.

Automobiles stolen, 92; recovered, 59; stripped, 18 [from police records for the twenty-four hour period ending at midnight Monday]. There were no court cases.

Floyd M. Brockell, 44 years old, wealthy head of a chain of suburban movie houses, was killed last night in a collision between his automobile and another car at Mannheim road and Grand avenue, in Franklin Park. His wife was bruised.

Brockell was president of the Mid-West Theater corporation, 910 South Michigan avenue, and at one time associated with Adolph Zukor, film magnate, and the Balaban & Katz organization.

On Through Highway.

The Brockells had left their home at 556 Hawthorne lane, Winnetka, a short time before, and were driving south in Mannheim road, which is a through highway. As they reached the center of the intersection at Grand avenue, another car going west in Grand avenue, crashed into them.

Witnesses said the driver did not stop for the through road. Both cars were seriously damaged. The driver of the west bound automobile alighted, evidently unhurt, and disappeared in the darkness. Police traced the license number to Ray C. Pattyn, of Garden avenue, Bensenville. He is being sought.

Toll 309 for Year.

This death and two others in Cook county from traffic injuries brought the toll for 1933 to 309. The victims:

Jacqueline Bergan, 4, of 6067 Harper avenue, killed when the tricycle she was riding was struck by an automobile backed onto the sidewalk by Anthony Morello, a barber, who was held.

Miss Lena Rahn, 42 years old, 2129 North 76th street. Died in the Danish-American hospital of injuries suffered March 6 in collision at Wabansia and North Keystone avenues.

An open verdict was returned by a coroner's jury at Waukegan yesterday in investigating the death of Miss Norma Torfin, 17 years old, daughter of Albert Torfin, a Millburn farmer. She was killed Sunday morning in Waukegan when an automobile driven by Roy Bingeman, 19 years old, collided with a fire alarm box.

'LAFAYETTE, WE ARE HERE,' AUTHOR DIES IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Cal., May 8.—(AP)—Col. Charles E. Stanton, 74, U. S. A., retired, author of the famous world's wartime phrase, "Lafayette, voila" ["Lafayette, we are here"] at the time attributed to Gen. Pershing, died here today with a heart ailment.

Col. Stanton, chief disbursing officer of the A. E. F., made the remark before the tomb of Lafayette in Picpus cemetery, Paris, July 4, 1917. Gen. Pershing and other allied officers as well as French officers were present.

Col. Stanton was born in Illinois Nov. 26, 1859. He entered the army with the rank of major in 1898 and served through the Spanish-American war. He retired in 1920.

He was named a member of the San Francisco board of public works in 1921 and continued in the post until his death.

LOSES CLUB'S $768; CONFESSES FAKE HOLDUP REPORT

A few hours after Arthur M. Knutson, 1634 North Meade avenue, had notified police that he had been robbed of $768 belonging to the Augustana Lutheran Bowling league, of which he was treasurer, he admitted to detectives that his story was false:

Knutson, according to Sergts. Robert Callahan and Edward Garrick of the Summerdale station, confessed using the money for gambling.

Just about sundown Knutson appeared at the Park Ridge police station. He related that two men had forced him into a car at Foster avenue and Clark street, and had driven him to a point just outside of Park Ridge where they robbed him. Knutson was turned over to the Summerdale police and questioned.

Police suspicion was aroused when they learned that a banquet was scheduled to be held for the bowling league members at the Ebenezer Lutheran church, 1650 Foster avenue, where the $768 was to have been distributed as prizes at the same hour at which Knutson said he had been robbed.

BANDITS ROB DRUG STORE.

Two bandits, armed with revolvers, took $135 and $15 worth of telephone slugs yesterday in a robbery of the Walgreen Drug store at 200 South Halsted street, after threatening the manager, Edward Berndt.

DRAFT CAPITAL CONTROL PLANS FOR ROOSEVELT

Business, Labor Leaders Join in Effort.

the largest number of workers possible. That being the case it follows that the industry will be entitled to an established fair price. It will be for the government to see that no injustice to workers, employers, and the public is done in any item."

Emergency or Permanent.

Points not settled in the discussions today were whether the government should be represented by a board or an individual who would be known as administrator of industry and whether the legislation shall be emergency or permanent.

With the administration behind this measure the Black thirty hour bill and Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins' amendment vesting the government with autocratic control of wages and hours of labor will be sidetracked. It was because of the menace of this legislation that big business, according to a prevalent view, set out to capture the support of the President for the more moderate alternative now being framed.

Making concessions to the plan the President now favors, Chairman Connery of the house labor committee announced today that the Black and Perkins bill will be revised radically. Though retaining the ban on imports produced by foreign labor employed more than 30 hours a week, the bill is to include a drastic licensing system for enforcement of the minimum wage and maximum work hour regulations.

Will Alter Wage Clause.

The proposal is, it is understood, to force every manufacturer to obtain a federal license before he can ship his product into interstate commerce. Infractions of minimum wage and work hours regulations would be punished by a revocation of the license.

The minimum wage provision of the bill is to be altered, Mr. Connery stated, to provide that industries 50 per cent organized will set their own wage standards, based not on the cost of living but on the "American standard" of living. A federal regulation board, composed of the secretary of labor, a representative of organized industry, and a representative of organized labor, would fix the minimum wages for industries which are not 50 per cent organized.

The drastic control of production features of the Perkins bill will be virtually eliminated in the new measure, Mr. Connery said.

The bill will also declare inoperative whatever sections of the Sherman and Clayton anti-trust acts are held to be violated by its provisions, would outlaw yellow dog contracts and stipulate a 16 year minimum age for child labor.

Congressional Comment Cautious.

Most leaders in congress commented with extreme caution on those portions of the President's speech dealing with inflation and the planned economy for industry. Among the few outspoken ones was Senator Charles McNary of Oregon, Republican leader of the senate.

"When the President," said Senator McNary, "seeks to invade the field of industry and private business he is treading on dangerous ground. It is no field for radical experimentation. I can promise that any proposed legislation will be gone into thoroughly and I am confident that congress will not be so generous in its grants of power henceforth as it has been in previous bills."

Outside of official Washington, however, President Roosevelt's address was hailed by Republicans and Democrats alike as a clear exposition of the present situation.

Half an hour after the President had concluded speaking, messages of congratulation began to arrive, and these continued all day today. More than 1,500 messages were received.

Some of Messages.

Some of the messages read:

JAMES M. COX, Democratic nominee in 1920—Your genius for lucid statement is now one of the nation's best resources. Your talk brings understanding and understanding guarantees faith and courage and a return to better days. Kind regards.

TOM CAMPBELL, Hardin, Mont., one of the largest wheat growers in this country—You have the confidence of 120,000,000 citizens who wish you every success. Your courage and frankness have thrilled the people. Do not let anything interfere with your program.

FRANK O. LOWDEN, former Republican governor of Illinois—I just listened to the second radio speech to the American people. It was perfect in every way.

E. S. JOUETT, vice president, Louisville and Nashville railway—Your address was the greatest I have ever heard from anyone.

GETS 30 YEARS IN PRISON FOR POLICE KILLING

Nicholas Konemogloos, 30 years old, a waiter, was sentenced to 30 years in the penitentiary yesterday by Judge Harry A. Lewis of the Criminal court. The judge found him guilty of the murder of Policeman Thomas Barker, 35 years old, 2816 Arthington street. The case was heard without a jury.

Policeman Barker, on sick leave from the department, was in a restaurant at 1438 Madison street on March 13, 1932, when two holdup men walked in. The policeman drew his revolver and in an exchange of shots was killed. James Bingley, 3133 Edgewater avenue, a bystander, was shot in the chin.

The robbers escaped. Later Konemogloss was arrested in New York City with a revolver. He admitted he was wanted in Chicago for a shooting. He at first confessed the killing of Barker but later repudiated his confession. Bingley, however, identified Konemogloos as one of the robbers. Konemogloos in his first statements, according to Assistant State's Attorney Leslie Curtis who prosecuted the case, said that Chick Hughes, his partner in the crime, died somewhere in South Carolina.

BRITAIN INSISTS ON 'SAFEGUARDS' IN TARIFF TRUCE

Cabinet Delays Answer to U. S. Envoy.

LONDON, May 8.—(AP)—Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, told Norman H. Davis, American ambassador at large, at a prolonged conference today that he could see no "insurmountable obstacles" in the way of America's tariff truce proposal. This was learned from high American quarters.

In the house of commons Prime Minister MacDonald indicated that the fate of the American proposal rested with the safeguards which the British government has asked to protect Britain's tariff position.

Davis Explains U. S. Stand.

In his conversation with Mr. Runciman the American ambassador at large, who has been jumping about from one of Europe's capitals to another, explained just what the Washington government has in mind.

The president of the board of trade agreed that it probably was "a very good idea," and promised that he would take it up at once with his cabinet colleagues and in due course let Mr. Davis know more about the British attitude.

His statement that he could see no "insurmountable obstacles" was a personal judgment, it was said, and it referred to acceptance of the project at the convening of the world economic conference on June 12.

Davis Settles Down to Wait.

The British safeguards, it was understood, were not an important part of the Runciman-Davis conversation and the American hope is that they will not be mentioned at all until the world economic conference convenes, although the Americans desire that Britain's acceptance of the entire idea will be announced soon.

Mr. Davis' problem now is to accustom himself to mere waiting at his hotel while the cabinet, visibly nervous because of recent attacks based on Britain's new trade pacts, makes up its mind. Mr. Runciman indicated to Mr. Davis that this might take some time, but American quarters hope for an answer in a day or two.

Mr. Runciman and Mr. Davis conferred again this evening in the house of commons. It was understood the question of safeguards was discussed in greater detail.

MacDonald Reports to King.

Prime Minister MacDonald is understood to have discussed the whole project with King George at a conference this afternoon. The king used the occasion to go into Mr. MacDonald's Washington visit and the current tariff agitation.

Tsuneo Matsudaira, the Japanese ambassador, informed Mr. Davis today of Japan's support of the armistice suggestion. He called on the American envoy under instructions from Tokio.

The truce question will be debated tomorrow in the house of commons.

REDS ARE LEADING BONUS ARMY ON WAY FOR WASHINGTON CITY

New York, May 8.—[Special.]—The new bonus army now being organized for a march on Washington is inimical to the United States government investigation reveals. Apparently inspired and led by communists and allied radical groups, the new army, under the name of veterans' expeditionary force, is planning the impending assault on Washington in an ugly, threatening mood.

It is avowedly determined to jam its demands down the throat of congress, to seize railroad coaches if deemed necessary to its purpose and to resist any show of force by the authorities. Its members expect trouble, are looking for it and profess to be prepared for it.

The veterans' expeditionary force has been organizing quietly for some time, its activity centered in Washington and New York. The organization work now is supposed to be in its last stages in 22 cities, and the New York contingent of the army is planning to begin the journey to Washington on Wednesday, leaving Union Square at 10 a. m. The organizers expect the strength of the New York contingent to reach from 5,000 to 7,000 men, although its present commander admits that only 500 men have enrolled to date.

DAIRYMEN VOTE AGAINST STRIKING IN CHICAGO AREA

An immediate prospect of a milk strike in the Chicago area was done away with last night, when two meetings of milk producers in Woodstock voted to delay until negotiations now pending between dairymen and city milk dealers are finished.

One of the meetings, attended by some 200 farmers who had previously voted approval of the Farm Holiday association movement, was regarded as having most of the radical element present. When a vote by counties was called, only three counties favored an immediate strike. Seven were opposed.

The second meeting was of a smaller group, officials of the Pure Milk association, whose members furnish the local supply. The association has consistently opposed striking, and this stand was ratified last night. Today officials of this organization will meet dealers in Chicago and discuss a demand for a raise of 40 cents a hundred pounds, from $1.45 to $1.85. Dr. Clyde L. King of Philadelphia will be here to act as arbitrator in the negotiations.

DEFAULTED WAR DEBTS MUST GO IN FISCAL BUDGET

That of Greece Due in a Few Days.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—The Roosevelt administration is planning to include the war debts in the budget for the coming fiscal year, although the first one to come due since the President took office probably will be defaulted upon within the next two days, it was learned today. Approximately 329 million dollars is due Uncle Sam during the coming fiscal year, which begins July 1, from foreign debtors, and the administration expects to include this full sum in the total estimated receipts for the year.

As long as the scheduled debt payments remain a matter of law fixed by congress, the administration has little choice about including them in the budget. It is mandatory unless the President has some definite recommendation for reducing them.

Greece to Default.

It becomes increasingly certain that the first war debt payment to be handled by the new administration, $444,400, due from Greece on May 10, will go into default. Despite conferences between the Greek minister, Secretary of the Treasury Woodin and Secretary of State Hull, no formula which would permit Greece to pay has been discovered.

The difficulties are due less to the actual amount required by the United States than to the fact that the American loan was only a part of an international credit arranged by the league of nations. Greece supposedly is unable to pay all creditors and cannot pay one without satisfying them all.

Might Melt Silver Coins.

Otherwise the Greek government might, by sacrifices, including the melting up of much of the nation's coinage, take advantage of the new silver payment option which the President is allowed to extend to debtors. Greece has in reserve silver coins containing about 1,080,000 troy ounces of silver. If President Roosevelt agreed to accept silver at 50 cents an ounce, 889,000 ounces of the silver contained in the coins would discharge the Greek payment to the United States. Even if the other creditors were willing to accept silver, however, the Greek stocks would be insufficient, leaving the problem of 100 per cent payments still unsolved.

New kind of Tire...3 Times Safer... gives Blow-out Protection free!

Sensational new Safety Silvertown Hailed as Greatest Contribution in Goodrich Crusade to Save Lives

Internal heat causes blisters to form... inside the tire... where you can't see them. Then suddenly—perhaps when you least expect it—BANG! A blow-out!

The new Life-Saver Golden Ply resists internal heat, so blow-out-causing blisters don't form. Thus, blow-outs are prevented before they even start.

TODAY'S high speeds—40, 50, 60 and 70—generate terrific heat inside your tires. As a result, rubber and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts . . . and GROWS . . . until BANG! A blow-out. And you're headed for trouble . . . or worse!

Prevents blow-outs

The amazing new Goodrich Life-Saver Golden Ply resists the most intense heat inside your tires. Rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form. Blow-outs are prevented before they even start.

At gruelling speeds on the world's fastest track the new Goodrich Safety Silvertowns, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted 3 times as long as first quality tires that did not have this blow-out-preventing feature. These Silvertowns never blew . . . because the Life-Saver Golden Ply refused to give.

Safest anti-skid tread

The tread, too, is safer from skidding. Scientific tests prove that its famous squeegee drying action gives your car extra road grip and reduces the danger of skidding to a minimum.

Remember, this blow-out protection is free . . . because the new Safety Silvertowns, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, cost not a single penny more than standard tires. Put a set on your car NOW and have real protection between you and the road.

REPORT SECRET U. S. WAR DEBT ENVOY TO FRANCE

Offers Final Settlement in Name of Roosevelt.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, May 8.—Two important developments occured on the France-American debt front today.

First was the action of the French cabinet, convened to study the problem of the $19,261,432 war debt payment due the United States last Dec. 15 but defaulted. The cabinet decided the new "unofficial" American debt plan for a lump settlement is sufficiently official to justify suspension of all action on the December payment until more detailed information is received. The proposal for an immediate settlement of the defaulted payment was made by Edouard Herriot in his report on his talks in Washington with President Roosevelt. Joseph Paul-Boncour, foreign minister, was the only cabinet member to advocate immediate payment of the installment.

Enter J. F. Sinclair.

The second development was the discovery by THE TRIBUNE correspondent that the French government has received within the last two weeks "a concrete debt proposal" from a private American citizen whom they understand is representing President Roosevelt. In certain usually well informed French circles it is even suspected that it is this unofficial American ambassador who carried to Paris the reported lump sum settlement offer now awaiting details.

In any case, the gentleman in question, John Franklin Sinclair of Pelham, N. Y., lawyer, writer on economics and lecturer, is said to be a confidante of the President. Sinclair is now on the ocean. He sailed from Europe Sunday and is believed carrying with him a confidential report for President Roosevelt on the French reaction to the reported lump sum proposal.

Confers With Premier.

Sinclair had several interviews with Premier Daladier about the same time Herriot was in Washington. In the course of the conversations, it is learned, Sinclair submitted the concrete debt proposal. It is the impression in French circles that Sinclair was an authorized agent of the President, but the basis for this impression could not be learned. Sinclair also discussed debts with Joseph Caillaux, president of the senate finance committee, and other French leaders.

Sinclair was staying at the Hotel Prince de Galles here with Frederick Stallforth, American banker, who makes his home in Paris. Stallforth, when reached by telephone today, insisted that Sinclair's mission was private and refused to answer any other questions.

Recall Bullitt Case.

It is recalled that when William C. Bullitt visited Europe last winter on a similar unofficial mission, during which he discussed debts with French statesmen, it was insisted in Washington that he had no official standing. Shortly afterward he was appointed a special assistant in the American department of state.

The suggestion that it was Sinclair who brought the new debt offer apparently is an effort to reconcile the definite knowledge that the French government received a new offer to which it attaches official importance and the categorical denials in Washington and Paris that any such offer was received through official channels. One of the leading mouthpieces of the Quai d'Orsay in the French press today revealed that the American offer is authentic, but that it had been transmitted purposely through an unofficial channel so that it could be officially denied.

Qualified spokesmen for the government said the foreign office was considerably upset over the revelation of the debt proposal in the press and expressed fear it would increase the difficulties of Premier Daladier and of President Roosevelt.

Washington Denies Offer.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—The state department and the French embassy tonight denied that the United States government has made a debt settlement proposal to France under which the war debt owed by that country would be scaled down one billion dollars. Administration officials said no definite debt proposal of any kind has been made to the French government.

SPAIN NIPS PLOT FOR REVOLUTION; SEIZES LEADERS

Enemies of Premier Unite; Strike Called.

BY JAY ALLEN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MADRID, Spain, May 8. — Spanish syndicalists tonight called a nation-wide 48-hour revolutionary strike for tomorrow and so gave the government the signal it has been waiting for to pounce on the leaders of a parallel military conspiracy.

Tipped off to the plans of the monarchist and republican opposition to follow up the revolutionary efforts of their syndicalist allies with an uprising to establish a military dictatorship, Premier Azana's police moved quickly and arrested Gen. Miguel Goded, former chief of staff and lately undersecretary of war, and a number of other alleged conspirators in Madrid and Barcelona.

General Rushed Into Exile.

Gen. Goded immediately was shipped off to the Canary islands and the others, whose names were kept secret, were locked up incommunicado. Syndicalist leaders are being arrested hourly. Not sure that the conspiracy has been scotched, police of Madrid, Barcelona, and elsewhere are taking the greatest precautions. All highways are guarded.

Police are roaming the streets of the capital tonight in open rubberneck wagons. They and the civil guards are armed with Mauser rifles and ordered to shoot. Five bombs exploded tonight near high tension lines in Madrid.

Officers Are Implicated.

The syndicalists called their strike in protest, according to handbills with which the country was flooded, against a "government that is divorced from the people and careening toward unemployment, hunger and injustice."

The government and police are mum as to the extent of the military plot they have unearthed. But it was common knowledge that a rebellion, long ready, was to break at dawn Wednesday. A large number of army officers, active and retired, are known to be implicated.

NAVY TO PLACE 3D OF FLEET ON ROTATION PLAN

Washington, D. C., May 8.—(AP)—In its drive for economy the navy department tentatively has decided to place one-third of the entire fleet on a so-called rotating plan under which they would be taken temporarily out of service.

A similar rotating plan was put into effect for destroyers and submarines last year in an effort to reduce naval expenditures.

While the ships are being rotated they will be overhauled and repaired, thus affording a measure of employment at shore stations.

It was disclosed that the navy department has agreed to cut its expenditures for the next fiscal year by a total of $53,000,000 under what it previously had planned to spend.

Congress appropriated 308 millions for the department, and it had been planned to allow the navy about $13,000,000 more of an unexpended balance which will be left over from the present fiscal year. After weeks of conferences with the budget bureau, the navy has agreed to confine its operating expenses to 270 million, exclusive of any building program as an employment aid.

Benton Harbor's blossom queen, selected last week to reign this week over Michigan's annual blossom festival, came to Chicago yesterday, attended by her retinue of twenty-nine beauties. She is Miss Marian Evans, 18 years old, of Berrien Springs. Miss Evans and her party spent a busy day meeting Mayor Kelly and touring A Century of Progress. They expect to remain here until Wednesday. They are staying in the house atop the Hotel Sherman.

DEFENSE FIGHTS INDICTMENTS IN STEVENS CASE

State Will Make Reply to Arguments Today.

Attorneys representing James W. Stevens, 79 years old, former president of the Illinois Life Insurance company, and his son, Ernest J. Stevens, a former official of the insurance company and former head of the Stevens and LaSalle hotels, concluded arguments last evening before Judge Philip L. Sullivan on the legality of the indictments against the Stevenses.

The indictments charge father and son with embezzlement of $1,000,000 and conspiracy to wreck the companies in which they were interested and which are now in receivership. The defense is seeking to have the indictments quashed.

Assistant State's Attorney Grenville Beardsley, the legal expert of the state's attorney's office, will answer the defense arguments this afternoon. Judge Sullivan is not expected to give a decision for several days because of the large number of legal precedents presented to him during the arguments.

The main point raised by the defense is one which during recent months has been argued unsuccessfully in every important criminal case. It involves the legality of the grand juries as they were chosen before a new system was established by direction of the state Supreme court.

Supreme Court Orders Change.

In a bank case some months ago the Supreme court ruled that there was not sufficient element of chance in the selection of the 23 grand jurors who returned the indictment in the case. The court did not reverse the decision in the lower court, however, but simply ordered a new system to be followed in the choosing of grand juries.

In connection with this point in the Stevens defense argument Chief Justice John Prystalski of the Criminal court was called as a witness by Attorney J. Fred Reeve of defense counsel. Judge Prystalski testified that before the Supreme court decision a grand jury was drawn by the chief justice, starting at the top of the venire list and working down until 23 men were selected. Since the decision, he said, the names are picked at random from a box.

Attorney Reeve tried to get a decision on the jury point after he had concluded this part of his argument. Judge Sullivan ruled, however, that he should conclude his argument on all points. The attorney then argued that the language of the indictments is ambiguous and that they do not sufficiently, in legal language, charge a crime.

Widow Gives Up Insurance.

Acting Probate Judge Theodore Fordy of Lake county yesterday authorized Mrs. Anna Hull Stevens, widow of Raymond W. Stevens, to turn over to Abel Davis, receiver for the Illinois Life company, insurance policies on the life of James Stevens, which name Raymond Stevens as the beneficiary. The policies total $66,284.

Raymond Stevens, a son of James Stevens and also a former official of the insurance company, committed suicide in his Highland Park home several weeks ago. He was a defendant in the embezzlement case with his father and brother.

Mrs. Stevens told the court that she was unable to pay the premiums on the insurance. Under Judge Fordy's order Receiver Davis will pay the premiums during the senior Stevens' lifetime. At Stevens' death the insurance will go to Davis in part settlement of his claim.

PROF. L. M. HRUDKA CHOSEN AS HEAD OF MORTON HIGH

Ladimir M. Hrudka, professor and head of the department of education at South Dakota State college, Brookings, S. D., was elected superintendent of the J. Sterling Morton High school in Cicero last night. Announcement was made by Richard W. Hoffman, new president of the Morton board.

Prof. Hrudka succeeds Harry V. Church, who resigned as superintendent last fall after sixteen years of service. Mr. Church's resignation followed his criticism of alleged politics and mismanagement by the old board. The new superintendent was recommended by thirty-three prominent educators.

STEPHEN STARTS SMALL, BUT HIS BUILDUP FLOPS

Stephen Potter, 17 years old, 1918 Taylor street, was arrested yesterday by Chicago avenue police on the charge that he had defrauded his employer, M. J. O'Donnell, owner of a grocery at 1123 Rush street, of $382 since Jan. 1.

"I'd have gotten a lot more if the boss hadn't got wise," Potter, an errand boy in the store, told the police. "I started small. Every time the boss would send me out to buy supplies I would increase the order by a couple dollars and pocket the difference. When I found out that he wasn't watching me I gradually increased my take."

Kidnap, Tie Up Motorist; Take All His Cash—a Dime

Four gunmen boarded the automobile of Paul Slightham, 7016 East End avenue, a foreman, at 104th street and Muskegon avenue last night. They took him to an abandoned factory and tied him up. "We want all your money," the robbers announced. They got it—one dime. The thieves added to this small loot by taking Slightham's watch and his automobile.

GERMAN POLICE ARREST FIRST OF '1918 TRAITORS'

Socialist Linked with Kiel Revolt.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, May 8.—On the heels of Chancellor Hitler's announcement yesterday at Kiel that the "1918 traitors" will be brought to trial for high trason, police at Cologne today arrested Karl Schwarz, who participated in the Kiel naval mutiny. The mutiny signalized the beginning of the republican revolution.

Schwarz is charged with playing an important part in the shooting of naval officers in the Kiel revolt. He is a member of the Socialist party but never has been prominent in political life.

Meanwhile it is apparent that the days of non-Nazis in Hitler's government are numbered.

Extreme difficulties for any Jews to keep their government jobs were indicated in the issuance of final regulations for the administration of the civil service law. The regulations completely bar former communists. War veterans who have been affiliated with the republican "iron front" will have no chance for leading positions.

War Veterans Face Ouster.

The government announced that Jewish government employés who have been retained because of their war service will be dismissed unless they can prove that they were under shell fire in some battle or participated in trench warfare.

There is only one exception and that is in the foreign service. If no Aryans are available, Jewish representatives may be appointed.

The regulations do not apply to officers or soldiers in the army. They are aimed particularly at judges, teachers, professors, notaries, police and civilian employés of the army. Persons who participated in the Kapp or Hitler putsches or fighters against separatist and communist outbreaks are elevated to the status of war veterans and enjoy preferential treatment.

The Nazis' campaign against Jewry today struck Max Liebermann, 85, dean of German painters and president emeritus of the Prussian academy of art. He resigned his membership because his "views on art and the nation do not correspond with those of present day Germany."

Defies Ultimatums of Powers.

"Germany is the only state in the world which is really disarmed and most interested to settle the disarmament problem, especially since it is surrounded by heavily armed nations on all frontiers," he said. "However, Germany will not submit to dictation of an ultimatum from the powers."

The general pointed out that Germany has found that military conscription was her most satisfactory system. He said it combined both military and educational advantages.

"The Versailles treaty forbade us compulsory military service," he continued. "The British system of long term recruiting was forced upon us. Now we are urged to accept France's system—the short term army. What about our social, practical, and military requirements? This complete disregard for Germany's interests cannot be accepted without opposition."

DROP EFFORTS TO END BOLIVIA-PARAGUAY ROW

[Copyright: 1933: By the New York Times.]

BUENOS AIRES, May 8.—Argentina and Chile, in long, sharply worded notes, tonight notified Bolivia of the termination of their good offices toward mediation of the Chaco dispute with Paraguay, declaring Bolivia's attitude toward their friendly efforts for peace was unjustified and holding Bolivia responsible for continuance of the Chaco war, which is described as an unprecedented example of contrariness and stubborn opposition to every effort to bring about peace.

SEIZED ON CHARGE OF RAPING A GIRL, EIGHT YEARS OLD

James Horne, 34 years old, 4611 North Racine avenue, was arrested last night on charges of having raped an 8 year old girl after dragging her into a basement near her home. The child, whose name is withheld, identified him as her assailant.

She said she was walking in the street when she met Horne, whom she knew slightly. Suddenly he seized her and dragged her to the basement. When she was released she ran home and told her mother and was taken to a doctor's office for treatment. From the girl's description her family suspected Horne and he was found later at Lawrence and Racine avenues and held until police arrived. He was locked up at Town Hall station, where the child identified him. Police said he was arrested some months ago for annoying women in the Town Hall district.

Evanston Council Orders $90,000 Cut in '33 Budget

The finance committee of the Evanston city council last night ordered a $90,000 cut in the 1933 budget, effective immediately. They provided 4½ to 25 per cent reductions in salaries and various decreases in costs of materials. The largest cut was taken by Mayor Charles H. Bartlett, whose salary, it is understood, will be reduced $1,140. The drastic reduction was necessitated by the limiting of the sales of tax warrants to $400,000 instead of an expected $500,000.

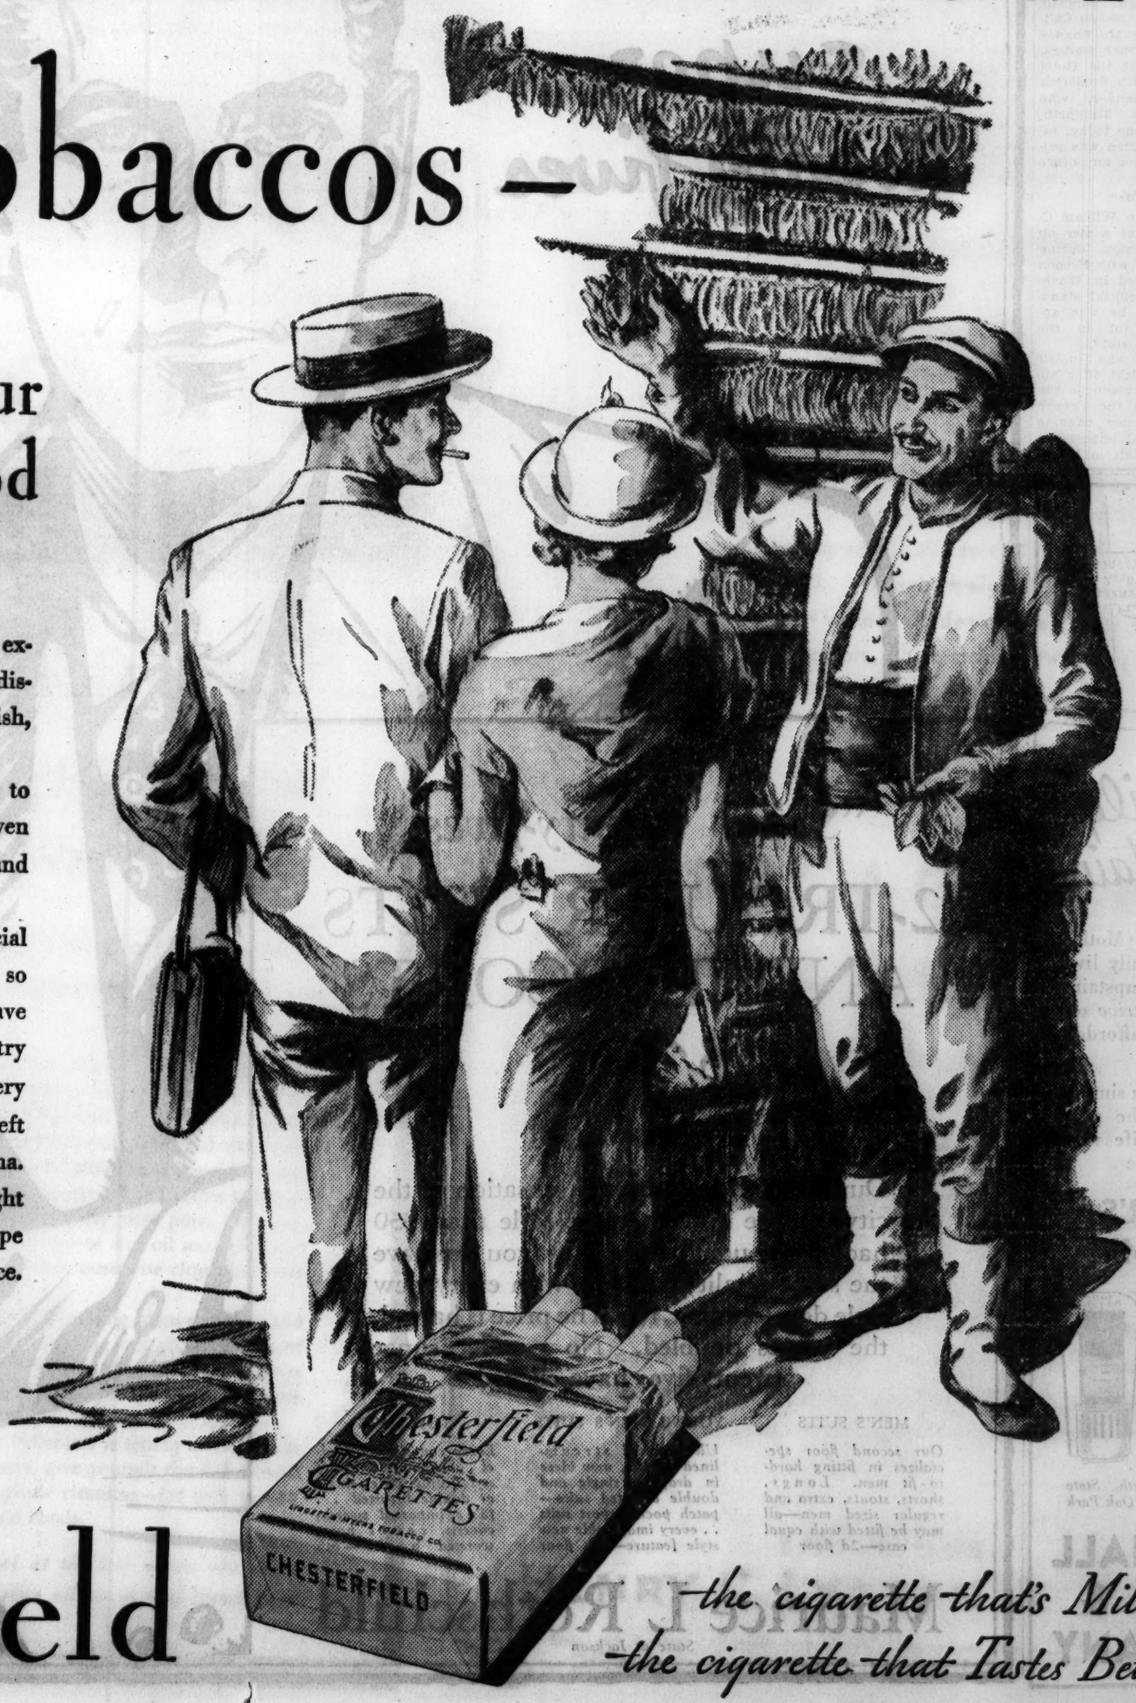
You Americans take our best Tobaccos—

It's no wonder your cigarettes are good



Tobacco now makes up one-fifth of all the exports of the Republic of Turkey. From the districts famous for producing the finest Turkish, most of the crop is shipped to this country.

Of the Samsoun crop 70% is exported to America; 68% of the Smyrna crop; and even greater percentages of the crops of Xanthi and Cavalla.

The reason Americans go so far for a special kind of tobacco is . . . FLAVOR. This flavor is so important to a blended cigarette that efforts have been made to raise Turkish tobacco in this country—in California and in the South. But every effort has failed. And when real Turkish is left out you miss its rich, spicy taste and rare aroma.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO CONTROL SECURITY SALES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Federal regulation reached out into a new field today as the senate passed the administration bill for the control of securities sold in interstate commerce.

The bill in slightly different form was passed by the house last week. Variations between the two measures should be compromised and the final bill ready for the President's signature within the next few days.

As passed by the senate the securities bill contained six principal features, and in addition was armed with an amendment by Senator Hiram Johnson [Rad., Cal.] setting up federal machinery to assist holders of foreign bonds which are in default.

Will Govern Securities.

Under the bill, the federal trade commission will become the governing body of the securities trade.

Persons or corporations about to sell securities in interstate commerce and agents of foreign governments about to sell foreign securities must register each issue with the commission, together with detailed information concerning the issue.

Advertisements of securities must present a required list of facts to the buying public, including the amounts paid in underwriting commissions, the names of officers and directors, and those responsible for the security and a statement that further information may be secured by applying to the commission.

For failure to comply with the law or the commission's ruling, registration may be revoked or suspended.

Large Group of Securities.

Large groups of securities are exempt, such as short term commercial paper, government, state, and municipal bonds, securities of railroads and other utilities subject to federal regulation, national bank securities, and securities issued by educational and benevolent organizations. Securities now outstanding are exempt from registration, except that in cases of sales of $100,000 or more the seller must give certain information to the commission.

If false information is registered, the issuer and the directors and officers who sign are civilly liable for any loss incurred. "Dummy" directors must be noted as such.

In case of fraud or misrepresentation, in addition to revocation of registration, the purchaser may sue for the return of his money; the government may stop further threat of fraud by injunction; and those guilty of fraud may be criminally prosecuted by the attorney general.

Johnson Urges Bill.

The bill was agreed to by the senate with only an hour and a quarter of debate. Senator Johnson urged passage of his amendment, declaring "great banking houses have sold foreign securities in this country, knowing full well that the bonds would be defaulted. Despite the reports of their investigators they palmed off literally billions of worthless foreign securities on the American public. They robbed the American people."

The Johnson amendment provides for a federal corporation of foreign security owners to be controlled by 12 directors named by the federal trade commission.

The corporation is to invite the voluntary deposit of defaulted foreign securities and will act as agent for the holders in negotiating in their interest for the best terms of settlement. Any agreement made and subscribed to by the holders of 60 per cent of any security issue in the United States shall be binding on all American holders.

The corporation is to receive a loan of $75,000 a year for three years from the R. F. C. and is authorized to levy a small pro rata charge on security holders to meet expenses.

Invades Own Home

PEGGY FEARS.
[Acme Photo.]

Larchmont, N. Y., May 8.—[Special.]—Peggy Fears, ex-musical comedy actress, theatrical producer and estranged wife of A. C. Blumenthal made a successful invasion of her own home and intends to remain in it all summer "despite the efforts of my husband to keep me off the premises."

When Peggy and a party of thirteen guests arrived here Saturday night without keys they found the front porch barricaded by two guards who refused to admit them, but suggested they consult the police.

The chief of police, after Attorney Max Steuer had asked him what right the police of Larchmont had to keep a woman out of her own home, gracefully loaned his aid to the cause. At his direction a ladder was mounted to a second floor window. An entrance was effected, the front door opened and the triumphant Miss Fears and her party strode in.

Miss Fears asserts her husband gave her the house as a wedding present. Former Mayor Jimmy Walker has been a frequent guest there.

CUBAN SOLDIERS FIGHT REBELS IN HILLS; 11 SLAIN

Continue Skirmishes in East Tip of Isle.

BY GUSTAVO RENO.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

HAVANA, Cuba, May 8.—Official reports from Santiago state that three of President Machado's soldiers and eight rebels were killed today in skirmishes in Oriente province, scene of last Saturday's revolutionary outbreak. Four were slain in the hills near Bayamo and seven near the capital of the province.

Troops confiscated large quantities of weapons, explosives, tents and other military equipment. Rebel bands continue to roam Oriente, Camaguey and Santa Clara provinces.

In Havana two communist leaders were sentenced to prison. Two other government oppositionists were exiled.

Angel Ramon Luis Cortez, accused of being president of the communist party of Cuba, was fined $1,500 and sentenced to ten months in the Isle of Pines penitentiary. A military court found him guilty of charges of plotting to bomb American properties throughout the island to provoke United States intervention in Cuban politics. Jose Garcia Pazos was sentenced to two years' imprisonment on the same charge.

Federico Morales Valcarcel, representative in Cuba of the national revolutionary junta, with headquarters in Miami, Fla., and New York, and Pio Socarras, A. B. C. terrorist leader, today boarded a plane for Miami under a decree of expulsion issued by Secretary of State Ferrara. The former is a former representative in the Cuban congress. Socarras is a "director" of the A. B. C.

Morales had been in jail for nine months, charged with directing revolutionary plots. Socarras was charged with bombings in Havana.

LANDLORD KILLS TWO, WRECKS HIS CAR AS HE FLEES; ENDS LIFE

Plainfield, N. J., May 8.—[Special.]—Theodore J. Zeller, a contractor and landlord, shot and killed Knight I. Faucett, laundry proprietor, and Faucett's son, Jack, after an argument early tonight. Zeller fled in his automobile and was pursued by Chief of Police Charles A. Flynn and Patrolman Thomas Bray. Zeller's car crashed into a tree and was wrecked. He climbed out of the wreckage and raced two blocks on foot. Then, as the police drew close to him, he committed suicide by firing a bullet through his brain.

The exact cause of the argument had not been learned. Police believe it may have been the result of rent troubles. The building in which the laundry is located was owned by Zeller, they say, and he and his wife lived in an apartment on one of the upper floors.

SEN. LEWIS URGED TO HAVE U. S. END GRADE CROSSINGS

Dean Edward T. Lee of the John Marshall school of law yesterday telegraphed Senator J. Hamilton Lewis in Washington, D. C., urging him to introduce a bill authorizing abolishment of dangerous railroad crossings outside municipal limits throughout the country. A similar proposal has been pending before congress since 1928.

Dean Lee suggested that as the railroads and individual communities appeared financially unable to do this work, congress should include the work in a public works program.

"I have been impressed by the growing number of casualties at these crossings," Dean Lee said, "in which whole families are wiped out. Between 1919 and 1930, 25,354 persons were killed at railroad crossings and 72,700 were injured. There are about 1,000 of these dangerous crossings in the 48 states."

NORTH SUBURBS TO CO-OPERATE ON BEER SALES

Chicago Plans Enforcement of New Ordinance.

Developments in the handling of the sale of legal beer yesterday included a conference held in Winnetka to decide on policies for the north shore towns, and in Chicago for the going into effect of two new amendments to the beer sale ordinance.

Present at the Winnetka meeting were representatives of Glencoe, Kenilworth, Wilmette, Evanston, and Northfield. It was pointed out that the charters of Winnetka and Glencoe, as well as that of Highland Park, prohibit beer sales. Kenilworth now permits beer sales while Wilmette bars the beverage. Evanston merchants are selling the brew.

Communities to Coöperate.

In view of this situation it was decided no general program could be adopted, but each community is to coöperate as much as possible with the others.

The Evanston council last night refused to take up the beer matter. Sales are being made without actual legal sanction.

Chicago's new amendments require brewers to have their name etched in bottles and burnt on kegs, and also order the brewers to mark the date of manufacture and the actual content of alcohol on labels. The first provision is to prevent racketeers from getting a hold in the business and the second to prevent green beer being sold. Mayor Kelly said he would allow brewers a reasonable time to comply with the law.

Trials of Illicit Brewer.

In the manufacturing end interest centered in the case of James Ward of Joliet, who went before federal officials and told some of the troubles of a brewery owner in the days before beer could be made legally. He wants a permit to make 3.2 in Chicago Heights.

His testimony was given in a hearing on his application for a permit, held before R. C. Minton and E. H. Loyd, attorneys representing E. C. Yellowley, supervisor of permits in the Chicago area. The matter of the permit was taken under advisement.

Ward said that he was at one time a bartender in Joliet and that he later owned several saloons. He bought the beer manufactory, known as the Chicago Heights brewery, in 1921. He admitted that, as prohibition agents testified, in had been raided in 1923.

He also admitted that two saloons in Joliet had been raided. During the hearing it was brought out that Ward was kidnaped and forced to pay $27,000 ransom in 1927.

RHODE ISLAND RATIFIES REPEAL; CROWDS CHEER

Never O. K.'d Basic U. S. Dry Law.

Providence, R. I., May 8.—[Special.]—Rhode Island acted officially today to repeal the 18th amendment, which it had never ratified and which it fought consistently throughout the 13 years of national prohibition.

Crowded galleries in the house cheered as 31 delegates, elected last Monday by vote of 150,244 to 20,874, met in constitutional convention and speedily ratified the proposed 21st amendment to the federal constitution to do away with the present dry laws.

Sign Amid Applause.

One by one the delegates, 26 men and 5 women, went to the rostrum and signed the resolution of ratification amid wild applause. The resolution will be transmitted forthwith to the secretary of state of the United States, there to join similar documents from Michigan and Wisconsin.

A contest over the presidency of the convention—the first such assembly to be conducted in this state since May 29, 1790, when Rhode Island ratified the federal constitution—was the only difference of opinion confronting the delegates. Senator Russell H. Handy of Lincoln, Republican, long a leader of anti-prohibition forces, was elected over former Gov. William S. Flynn, Providence Democrat, and another ardent wet campaigner by a 16 to 14 vote. One vote was cast for former United States Senator Peter G. Gerry.

Warns Against Legal Error.

The resolution of ratification was presented by Mr. Flynn. He urged extreme caution in procedure to block any attempt by the drys to invalidate the action of the convention.

Gov. Theodore Francis Green, temporary chairman of the convention, opened proceedings with an address. He termed Rhode Island and Connecticut the "sanest of states" for their steadfast stand against prohibition.

Recalling that Rhode Island always has maintained the 18th amendment "wrong in principle" and that this state carried its fight against national prohibition to the Supreme court of the United States, the governor proclaimed Rhode Island the leader in the fight for repeal.

First Convention Called.

Gov. Green termed it strange that during nearly a century and a half all constitutional amendments, even those "detracting from the liberties of our people," were ratified by state legislatures and that now, when "a portion of these liberties is being returned to the people," the convention method is being used for the first time.

WOMEN WARN REPEALISTS OF OVERCONFIDENCE

List Only 20 States as Safe for Ratification.

A warning that over confidence of repealists endangers ratification of the twenty-first amendment, which repeals the eighteenth, was sounded yesterday by the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

A map classifying twenty states as safely wet; six with good prospects for ratification; eleven hopeful; eight doubtful, and three dry was put out by Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, national chairman, from New York headquarters, with a word to the various state divisions that "There is hard work ahead before thirty-six states ratify."

WET STATES.
Arizona	Michigan
California	Montana
Connecticut	New Jersey
Delaware	New York
Illinois	Nevada
Indiana	Pennsylvania
Louisiana	Rhode Island
Massachusetts	Washington
Maryland	Wisconsin
Missouri	Wyoming
GOOD PROSPECTS FOR RATIFICATION.
Colorado	New Mexico
Florida	Ohio
Minnesota	Oregon
HOPEFUL.
Iowa	South Dakota
Kentucky	Texas
Maine	Vermont
New Hampshire	Virginia
North Carolina	West Virginia
North Dakota
DOUBTFUL.
Alabama	Nebraska
Georgia	South Carolina
Idaho	Tennessee
Mississippi	Utah
DRY.
Arkansas	Oklahoma
Kansas

"The map," said Mrs. Sabin's statement, "was prepared as a guide for our efforts. Unless we bear in mind that repeal is as far off as it ever was until 36 states have ratified, and face that fact that there are 28 states in which the repealists still have a great deal of work to do, all our efforts of the last four years will have been in vain."

Mussolini Gives Farewell Banquet for U. S. Envoy

ROME, May 8.—(AP)—A farewell banquet was given by Premier Mussolini tonight at one of Rome's leading hotels for John W. Garrett, retiring American minister to Italy, and Mrs. Garrett. Among the guests were Guglielmo Marconi, Luigi Federzoni, president of the senate; Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian delegates to the league of nations; Giacomo de Martino, and Delasio Gaetani, former ambassadors to Washington ,and a number of high governmental officials.

MICHIGAN PONDERS CHARGES GANGS PLOT TO RULE BEER SALE

Detroit, May 8.—(AP)—Beer in truckload lots moved into Michigan tonight, to be held for legal consumption Thursday after 6 p. m. Officials meanwhile investigated reports that gangsters financed by Chicago's "Capone gang" were attempting to gain control of Detroit's brewing and 3.2 beer distribution business with an investment of $250,000 in a Detroit gang now in control of five or six breweries, as yet unlicensed.

The Detroit News said these gangsters had needed ready money.

The News said the Capone gang seems ambitious to become a "national beer trust" by financing gangs in smaller cities, getting brewery stock in return.

Frank A. Picard, chairman of the state liquor control commission, said there was a defensive alliance between federal and state governments to combat gangster control of breweries. The preventive measures would be employed through licensing.

DECIDES NAME OF CONSOLIDATED ALCOHOL BUREAU

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Under the proposed consolidation of the prohibition bureau and bure u of industrial alcohol, the new organization would be known as the bureau of alcohol control, Attorney General Cummings announced today.

Regulation of legitimate consumers of alcohol and whisky under a "prohibition bureau" has caused irritation within the industry and brought about objection to the consolidation.

Apparently the attorney general planned, if the consolidation is approved by President Roosevelt and Budget Director Lewis Douglas, to place Maj. A. V. Dalrymple, head of the prohibition bureau, in charge of the new organization.

5C BEER A YEAR AWAY, BUT DORAN SEES PRICE DROP

Says Competition Will Bring Reduction.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Beer prices are due to hit the skids soon, but the public will have to wait another year before it will have nickel beer, Dr. James M. Doran, director of the bureau of industrial alcohol, predicted today.

Already local breweries have begun cutting their prices and stopped charging what the traffic will bear, he said. Reduction to rock bottom prices, however, will have to wait the launching of many new breweries.

196 Breweries Qualify.

Only 196 breweries had qualified for federal licenses up to May 1, Dr. Doran announced, although more than six times that many were in existence before prohibition. Wisconsin now leads the list of states with 43 breweries. Pennsylvania was second with 31 and New York third with 30. Illinois came fourth with 13, of which seven are in Chicago.

Nickel beer is entirely within the realm of possibility, Dr. Doran says, backing up his statements with arithmetical proof. For the time being, however, there still is something of a shortage in supply which keeps the prices up.

How He Figures It.

Demonstrating how five cent beer is possible, Dr. Doran points out that there are 496 eight ounce glasses of beer in the average 31 gallon barrel. And an eight ounce glass is more than the ordinary bartender will draw exclusive of foam.

At five cents a glass, a barrel of beer will yield $24.80. Beer is wholesaling at between $12 and $16 a barrel, and eventually the price ought to stabilize at about $13, leaving the retailer a gross profit of almost $12 on each barrel if he cuts his price to a nickel. With "mass production and consumption," this margin is plenty wide, Dr. Doran says.

National brews probably never will come down to a nickel a glass, Dr. Doran explains. Transportation charges will keep them up.

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves

Thousands who have piles have not yet learned that quick and lasting relief can only be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves nor suppositories remove the cause.

Bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The hemorrhoidal veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts almost dead. To get rid of Piles an internal medicine must be used to stimulate the circulation, drive out the thick impure blood, heal and restore the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, after years of study, found a real internal Pile remedy. He called his discovery HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1,000 patients with success in over 900 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer, no matter how stubborn their case, might try his prescription with a money back guarantee.

So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Walgreen's invite you to try HEM-ROID tablets with guarantee of money refunded if they do not end your Pile misery.

REVEAL PROGRAM FOR 1ST 16 DAYS OF WORLD'S FAIR

Adjustments Are Made for President's Visit.

World's Fair officials yesterday outlined the program for the first sixteen days of A Century of Progress. Adjustments were necessary because the opening date was advanced from June 1 to May 27 so that President Roosevelt may attend and make the opening day address in Soldiers' field.

The officials decided to make no special effort to fill up the blank dates with events during the first five days of the fair, but to let the schedule stand in skeletonized form. "After hearing the President on the first day the crowds are going to be interested chiefly in the fair itself," explained Hugh Donaldson, who arranged the schedule of special events. The program as arranged so far follows:

Saturday, May 27—Parade and opening day program, with address by President Roosevelt in Soldiers' field. Evening program, "Light from Arcturus," Court of the Hall of Science.

Tuesday, May 30—Memorial day program.

Thursday, June 1—El Reno, Okla., High school band concert, compliments of Rock Island lines, daily, June 1-5.

Friday, June 2—Lecture series, "Woman's Contribution to Civilization," sponsored by the National Council of Women, 11 a. m., lecture hall of Hall of Science. Sports events, Soldiers' field, afternoon. Army show, evening.

Saturday, June 3—Alabama day, Court of States. Girls' Glee club concert, Montgomery, Ala. World's Fair Legion day. Sports events, afternoon, Soldiers' field. Army show, evening, Soldiers' field.

Sunday, June 4—Festival chorus, Choral Directors' guild, 3:30 p. m. Massed orchestra concert of more than 1,000 voices sponsored by Music Supervisors' National conference.

Monday, June 5—Kentucky day, Court of States. Army show, evening.

Tuesday, June 6—Valparaiso university choir, afternoon. Paulist choir, 8:30 to 9:45 p. m. (also on June 24 and July 13). Lecture series, National Council of Women, Army show, Soldiers' field, evening.

Wednesday, June 7—Oregon day, Court of States. Electric Association day, court of the Electrical building group; George B. Cortelyou speaks. Y. M. C. A. hotel chorus concert, 8:30 p. m. East St. Louis High school choir, evening. Army show, Soldiers' field, evening.

Thursday, June 8—Tennessee day, Court of States. Tennessee State Teachers' college band glee club and ensembles, afternoon and evening. Gary, Ind., Froebel High school orchestra, afternoon. Army show, Soldiers' field, evening.

Friday, June 9—Columbian Guard day (guards of 1893 exposition convene). General Society of Colonial Wars assembly. McPherson, Kas., High school band. Sports events, Soldiers' field, afternoon. Army show, Soldiers' field, evening.

Saturday, June 10—Gaelic football, Irish champions vs. United States team, Soldiers' field, afternoon. Army show, Soldiers' field, evening. In and About Chicago club concert by 2,000 children, evening.

Sunday, June 11—Soccer football, Canada vs. United States team, Soldiers' field, 1 to 5:30 p. m. Cleveland Heights High school choir, afternoon. National Massed Band concerts, National High School Band association, Soldiers' field, 7 p. m.

Other music events include a band concert by the Southern Iowa Farm bureau band, including 800 pieces, in the evening of Tuesday, June 13, and the United Mothers' chorus, 900 voices, by mothers in the Parent-Teacher association, at 2:30 p. m., June 15, and on July 15 and Sept. 15. Dr. Frederick Stock will be the guest conductor at a concert of the All Chicago High School orchestra the evening of June 15.

Among the most important of the scheduled sports events are the national intercollegiate track and field championship meet to be held in Soldiers' field the afternoons of Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17, and the national interscholastic track and field championship to be held there those nights.

With the exception of sports and some other events in Soldiers' field, the special events as listed will be free attractions.

STRIKE TIES UP PART OF WORK ON THE SKYRIDE

Fifteen members of the elevator constructors union walked off the job yesterday at the Worlds Fair skyride. The strike will tie up much of the work on the top platforms and upper structure of the two skyride towers because it will cripple the elevator service in the towers.

The walkout occurred because union millwrights instead of elevator constructors were being employed on an endless chain elevator system at the Whiting-Nash building. Constructors operate elevators while building them.

A hurry call was put in for Horatio B. Hackett, who was recently appointed by Gov. Horner as labor conciliator for the Fair. He conferred three hours with representatives of both unions. The constructors declared that their men should have been employed instead of millwrights, whose business is to build grist mills or shafting machinery. The millwrights contended that the endless chain system, on which automobiles will be shown, was a piece of machinery and not an elevator.

At the end it was decided to place the matter before the jurisdictional committee of the Chicago Building Trades council today. The constructors indicated that meanwhile they might operate the elevators for 15 minutes to take workmen up the skyride towers in the morning and for 15 minutes at night to bring them to earth again.

BABY INCUBATOR AT FAIR TO CARE FOR 25 INFANTS

Dr. Martin A. Couney of New York, who is going to operate an infant incubator institute and model nursery for premature babies on A Century of Progress grounds, yesterday visited the Administration building.

His concession will be a small hospital equipped with the latest devices in incubators, oxygen beds, and a model nursery, with an exhibit room where bottles collected from all parts of the world and in use at different periods will be shown. Dr. Couney has an incubator institute and nursery in New York and introduced the incubator to America at Omaha in 1898.

Equipment for 25 permature babies will be installed.

Polish Ambassador Visits Fair; Returns to Capital

Stanislaus Patek, Polish ambassador to the United States, returned to Washington yesterday after having participated in the celebration of the founding of the Polish republic in Humboldt park Sunday. The ambassador yesterday toured the grounds of A Century of Progress and visited the exhibition of the World's Fair painting and sculpture at the Art institute.

URGES ICKES BILL TO SAVE $50,000 FEES TO PUBLIC

L. V. L. Condemns Public Administrator Law.

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—[Special.]—Advance proofs of the bi-weekly bulletin of the Legislative Voters' league reaching here today urged state senate approval of the Ickes bill to place administrators in all counties on salaries instead of on the present fee basis. It has passed the house by a vote of 101 to 19.

"Commendable action in the interest of economy and political decency," read the appeal, "was taken by the house in passing the Ickes bill to place public administrators on a salary basis. The bill will, if enacted, bring into the public treasury at least $50,000 a year in fees that now go to the public administrator of Cook county; and will benefit the other populous counties of the state. Under the terms of the bill the salary of the public administrator in Cook county would be limited to $10,000 a year.

Sometimes $75,000 a Year.

"For many years the job of public administrator of Cook county has been regarded as by far the best paid position at the disposal of the governor. Under the present law public administrators are allowed fees not exceeding 6 per cent on the personal property and 3 per cent on the real property of estates administered by them. In Cook county such fees are said to amount to from $60,000 to $75,000 per annum. The pocketing of this grossly excessive compensation, under a statute that is a relic of the obsolete fee system, has been a scandal for years, but because of natural unwillingness to give up this fat political patronage, successive governors have failed to act and an indefensible situation has been permitted to continue."

Proposal of New Plan.

The essence of the proposed new law is set forth in following language:

"All public administrators whose terms commence Dec. 1, 1933, shall have their compensation fixed by the county board. Such compensation, however, shall not exceed $10,000 per annum in counties having a population of 250,000 or over, nor $7,500 per annum in counties having a population of less than 250,000 but not less than 100,000, nor more than $5,000 in counties having a population of less than 100,000.

"The county board shall also determine the amounts which may be expended by such public administrators for clerk hire, stationery, fuel or other purposes. The compensation of such officers and all other expenses shall be paid only out of, and shall in no case exceed, the fees actually collected.

"All fees allowed and collected by the public administrators shall be paid into the county treasury at such time as the county board may direct and such public administrators shall keep full records of all receipts and expenditures and file a report with the county board before the tenth day of June and December of each year showing the gross receipts and expenditures during the six preceding calendar months. The county board may prescribe the form in which such report shall be made out."

The present statute governing the public administrators as amended in 1881, is as follows: "The governor, with the consent of the senate, shall, before the first Monday of December, 1881, and every four years thereafter, appoint in each county a suitable person to be known as public administrator, who shall hold his office for four years, or until his successor is qualified."

The Voters' league, commenting on passage of the bill by the house, gave particular credit to Elmer J. Schnackenberg and Sol P. Roderick, Chicago Republicans; Floor Leader Thomas P. Sinnett [Dem., Rock Island], and F. W. Lewis [Dem., Robinson], as well as to the author, Mrs. Anna Wilmarth Ickes.

HARRY NEW ARRIVES TO MAP ROOSEVELT'S PROGRAM FOR FAIR

Harry S. New, former postmaster general, arrived in Chicago yesterday morning in the capacity of United States commissioner to A Century of Progress. Before returning to Washington he will arrange with Fair officials a tentative program for President Roosevelt's participation in the opening day ceremonies, May 27.

"President Roosevelt is most eager to come and most enthusiastic over A Century of Progress," Mr. New said. "He is virtually certain to be here May 27."

The tentative program will be submitted for the President's approval, pending which no official announcement of it will be made.

ORPHAN HEROES TO BE REWARDED BY TRIP TO FAIR

Cleveland, O., May 8.—(AP)—Six Passaic, N. J., orphans who averted a train wreck recently, will have a pleasant surprise pretty soon, when they find out they are going to a Century of Progress as the guest of the Erie railroad.

President Charles Denney of the road today said he would invite them to the exposition with the matron of their home.

Babe autographed Associated Press photographs of the boys while in Cleveland last week-end and sent them promises of further recognition of their feat.

CHINESE IN FLIGHT AS JAPS ADVANCE TOWARD TIENTSIN

American Residents Fear Attack on City.

TIENTSIN, May 8.—(AP)—Fears for the fate of Tientsin were expressed by the city's foreign colony today as Chinese military forces retreated hastily before the new drive by Japanese and Manchukuoan armies into the maritime area of north China.

Fleeing before a heavy artillery fire and a bombing attack by aerial forces, the Chinese troops retreated as far as Changli, 60 miles south of the Great Wall. Less than 100 miles northwest of Tientsin the main Chinese troops were being rallied at Lwanchow.

American Colony Alarmed.

The new drive, the second general movement of Japanese armies in the direction of Tientsin within thirty days, aroused the alarm of the large American colony, whose members wondered if the attack would be halted short of the gates of the city.

Fears also were awakened for the safety of Peiping, where the shooting yesterday of an unidentified man, reputed popularly to be an agent of Japan and Manchukuo, has caused a great sensation.

The victim of the attempted assassination, who remains in a critical condition and still has not been identified, is being denounced by Chinese newspapers as an agent of Japan and Manchukuo, come to Peiping "loaded with $1,000,000 for bribes to assist in the political turnover at Peiping against the Nanking régime."

The assailants, who have not been apprehended, are praised by the newspapers as national heroes. The victim's wife has been placed in jail. She refused to discuss the affair.

Advance Into Chahar.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, May 8.—Three Japanese and Manchukuo mixed armies are advancing westward from Jehol province into Chahar province, Inner Mongolia. The objective is said to be to cut the Sino-Russian trade route from Kalgan to Urga, as well as to occupy Kalgan, the gateway in the Great Wall leading to Mongolia.

A Chinese report claims that a Japanese-Manchukuoan force besieging the town of Kuyuan, near Dolon-nor, was defeated by Chinese forces under Gen. Sun Tien-yin and Gen. Fang Chan-hai. The report said a decisive battle is likely to occur near Kalgan, where the Chinese are expected to offer major resistance.

A Japanese report from Tokio said T. V. Soong, Chinese finance minister, who is now in Washington conferring with President Roosevelt, has wired Nanking urging continued resistance, "since it is possible the United States may intervene in event the Japanese attack Peiping." The Japanese allege that the Chinese are "luring the Japanese to attack Peiping in order to provoke international complications."

There are unconfirmed reports of Chinese plans to burn Peiping in event the Japanese attack in order to prevent the Japanese from utilizing the city to restore the old Manchu dynasty.

Several Jailed in Plot to Kill New Head of Chile

LIMA, Peru, May 8.—(AP)—The authorities said today they had uncovered a plot to assasinate President Oscar Benavides who succeeded to the presidency after the assassination of Luis M. Sanchez Cerro a week ago. Francisco Spelucin, a former deputy of the Aprista opposition party, and Alejandro Zubiate, were among those arrested. Police seized seven bombs, two pistols, and a large amount of propaganda said by the authorities to have come from Russia.

IGNAZ MOSCICKI AGAIN ELECTED POLISH PRESIDENT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WARSAW, Poland, May 8.—Ignaz Moscicki, who became the third president of Poland on June 1, 1926, today was reëlected for another seven year term by a vote of 332 of the combined houses of parliament. Eleven of the German faction cast blank ballots. Communists voted for their candidate, but he was declared ineligible. Other oppositionists among the 555 deputies and senators stayed away in protest, demanding new parliamentary elections. Marshal Pilsudski, director of Poland, favored Moscicki's election.

At least 3 million more men will be back at work by September

WE HAVE INVESTED ONE MILLION DOLLARS IN THAT BELIEF

By JAMES H. RAND, Jr., President
REMINGTON RAND INC.

At least three million more men will be back to work in this country by September.

The past two years have crucified every forecast of better times. In spite of that, we state this as a conviction, for two reasons. The first is our faith in the wisdom of President Roosevelt. The second is that our business gives us a background of FACTS, both here and abroad, to back up that faith.

Through 200 branch offices and our 1800 Remington Rand salesmen, we have a continuous picture of every business activity in the United States. Through export offices and dealers in every country in the world, we see every fluctuation of international trade.

Two years ago our men found business drying up. The cause was not over-production. There was a greater need for shoes, for clothing, for cars, than ever before in history. The trouble was an overburden of debt contracted at high prices. Governments, business, private individuals had gone too heavily into indebtedness at a time when the purchasing power of money was small. Credit stopped. We could buy no more, and prices collapsed. Then the whole business structure went out of gear.

More and more men and women lost their jobs. And people without jobs cannot buy.

• • • • •

The government recognized that prices had to start up before improvement could set in, and that this could be most quickly achieved by monetary measures. The foundation was laid.

The same Remington Rand findings which early revealed the trouble, now point to its end. Our export trade has already responded to the adjustment of the dollar. Treasuries are responding to the easing of debt. Buyers are responding to the strengthening of commodity prices. Money is beginning to move from one hand to another.

An estimate of three million more wage-earners back to work by September is conservative. It means a gain of less than 13%. And that means the recovery of only about 11% of America's loss in employment.

For two years we have been working quietly for readjustment of the dollar. We have foreseen it had to come . . . and that, with it, economic recovery would start. And we have anticipated our belief by perfecting more than 100 new products in the meantime, at a cost of over $1,000,000 for retooling alone. The Remington Noiseless Portable Typewriter has been brought to a new point of perfection. A new line of Safe-Cabinets has been completed. The Powers Accounting Machines have been entirely modernized. Only last month a new all-electrical accounting machine was developed—an important contribution to accounting progress.

Every one of these products has a place in the new order of things. They will do more work at the same cost, or the same work for less money. They help make it possible for people to produce more things which other people want and are willing to pay for. They help make it possible for people to earn more and buy more.

Business men are now safe in assuming that, thanks to the gold embargo, commodity prices will maintain their rise. The revaluation of gold holds forth prospect of a further increase in the prices of commodities, real estate and securities. Business men are also safe in discounting the accomplishment of many other much-needed steps. Among those in prospect are:

—liberalization of the Treasury's banking policy and the opening of more banks.

—liberalization of credit to employers for the purpose of priming the industrial pump by re-employing people.

—temporary two-year Federal guarantee of bank deposits.

Give President Roosevelt's program your support by buying, by re-employing, now. Urge others to act now. There are millions of people in this country who have a hundred million unsatisfied wants. Put pay envelopes into their hands again, and watch them make the money move.

At least three million more of them will have these pay envelopes by September. That prediction is based on the knowledge of 1800 Remington Rand men who know every kind of business, in every city and in every state. It is based on the actual experience of a business that is a barometer of all businesses, both here and abroad.

FARM PLANTING DELAYED BY RAIN IN CHICAGOLAND

Residents Wade Home in Western Suburbs.

Heavy rains, falling almost daily for the last two weeks, have delayed the preparation of ground for crop planting in much of Chicagoland. Agricultural experts were of the opinion yesterday that another week of extremely wet weather would throw corn and soy bean seeding into June and push the market prices of these products higher.

Inconvenience and losses due to flood waters were not confined to the farming sections. Several of Chicago's western suburbs were severely damaged yesterday by the rise of small streams.

Wade to Suburban Homes.

The western end of Melrose Park and much of the village of Bellwood were under water following the heavy rains of Sunday and yesterday morning. Hundreds of basements were flooded and many of the residents had to wade into their homes in rubber boots.

Near Riverside much of the forest preserve was flooded by the swollen Des Plaines river, which rose two and one-half feet in a few hours. Near Devon avenue and the Des Plaines river, Gilbert Salazar, 15 years old, 3447 West North avenue, was drowned when he fell from a makeshift raft. Two companions made unsuccessful efforts to save his life.

Frost Perils Late Corn.

Even with good weather, farmers in sections of Indiana, Iowa, and Illinois say it will be ten days before preparations for sowing corn can be resumed. The official forecasts indicate, however, that more rain is likely today. If seeding is held over until June, the experts pointed out, frost may endanger much of the corn in the northern fringes of the growing area.

In view of this situation, farmers in the central west are holding on to the 900,000,000 bushels of old corn they have, although the farm price has risen to 25 or 30 cents a bushel, as compared to something like 10 cents a few months ago. July corn sold in Chicago yesterday as high as 45⅞ cents a bushel. Farmers in the northwest were said to be selling their supplies.

Seed Bean Prices Rise.

Soy beans, in contrast to most farm crops, are not abundant, a large amount having been sold abroad in the last year. Some of the acreage intended for early corn, according to reports, will be turned to soy beans, and this has caused the prices of beans for use as seed to rise until prevailing prices are from $1.25 to $1.50 a bushel, equal to the quotations of three years ago. The crop brought several million dollars to Illinois and Wisconsin farmers during the winter.

Official figures show that since Jan. 1 there has been a total rainfall of 12.83 inches in Chicago, an excess of 2.54 inches above normal. April was hardly as wet as usual, the total rainfall being 2.61 inches, as contrasted to a normal of 2.78 inches. But since April 30 it has rained on five out of eight days, and a total of 2.63 inches has fallen. Normal precipitation for the entire month of May would be 3.54 inches.

ABANDON TAP DAY CUSTOM AT YALE; ADOPT NEW SYSTEM

New Haven, Conn., May 8.—Yale's traditional tap day exercises apparently become history today when a notice signed by the 1934 student council asked all members of the junior class to remain in their rooms Thursday from 5 to 7 p. m.

As this is the scheduled time for the picturesque ceremony of selecting members of skull and bones, scroll and key, wolf's head, and the Elihu club, the mandate, if obeyed, will transfer to the juniors' rooms the annual election.

Heretofore the usual manner of selection on tap day was for every member of each society to pick from the junior class a member for next year by slapping him between the shoulders and ordering him to his room, where he was notified formally and secretly of his election.

JAMES CONANT IS ELECTED TO HEAD HARVARD

Cambridge, Mass., May 8. — [Special.]—James Bryant Conant, Sheldon Emery professor of organic chemistry, was named by the Harvard corporation today to be the next president of Harvard university. Confirmation of the choice will be laid before the board of observers on June 22.

One of the youngest in the long line of Harvard presidents, Prof. Conant is in his forty-first year. His predecessor, A. Lawrence Lowell, resigned, was 52 when he took office in 1909. Of other heads of the university, those who were younger than Prof. Conant included the first president, Henry Dunster. He was 30 at the time of his election in 1640. Charles William Eliot was also younger than Prof. Conant, being 35 when he became president in 1869.

Widely Known by Scientists.

Regarded since the early days of his career as one of the most brilliant of the younger generation of chemists, Prof. Conant is widely known among scientists for his research work in special fields. Last year he received the Chandler medal, given for achievement in chemistry, and the William H. Nichols medal, of similar significance. Both awards were based in part upon his research into the nature of chlorophyll, the green coloring substance on plants.

Born at Dorchester, Mass., March 26, 1893, the son of James Scott Conant and Jennett Bryant Conant, he entered Harvard college in 1910, after preparing at the Roxbury Latin school.

Completing his college work in 1913, after three years in which he attained high honors, Prof. Conant was graduated with the degree of A. B. His degree of Ph. D. was conferred in 1916 and the next year he received an appointment as instructor at Harvard.

Major in World War.

During the world war he was called to Washington, where he served first with the bureau of chemistry and the bureau of mines. Then he was stationed at the American university experimental station in Washington, where he engaged in research on war gas. He was commissioned a major in the chemical warfare service in August, 1918, and in that capacity established a large production unit for the service at Cleveland.

He returned to Harvard in 1919 as assistant professor of chemistry. In 1925 he became an associate professor and two years later a full professor. His present position of Sheldon Emery professor dates from 1929.

Son Has Operation.

The wife of the president elect of Harvard said today that for the present she is far more interested in the return to health of her youngest son than the honor paid to her husband. She said the condition of Theodore Richards Conant, following an operation Saturday for double mastoid, was most encouraging.

Shunning most of the usual sports, Dr. Conant has tried golf, which he gave up as "an old gents' game." He occasionally plays tennis.

The family prefers the simple, quiet life of the White mountains. From their occasional summer residence in Randolph, N. H., they go on hikes through the woods, swim, and climb the hills.

TWO HELD FOR ROBBERY.

Judge John Guthknecht, in the Boys' court, yesterday held Frederick Mitchell, 28 years old, and his nephew, Herbert Mitchell, 20 years old, both of 4108 Kenmore avenue, to the grand jury on robbery charges. Bonds for each were set at $3,500.

How I Lost 62 Pounds Ugly Fat

Without Harmful Dieting or Drugs

By MARGARET GEORGE

218 lbs. 148 lbs.

Above are my photographs taken before and after I drank Germania Herb Tea. I used to be so tired and weak I could hardly stand on my feet. I am now giving free demonstrations in the leading department stores of America. I am 50 years old, work 14 hours a day, am on my feet all the time and never felt so good before in my life. I would love to have you come and meet me.

Simply Drank Delicious Germania Herb Tea—

SIXTY-TWO pounds of fat in three months was the welcome loss in weight I registered without taking any harmful drugs or salts—without violent exercising and without going hungry for a single minute. Drinking three cupfuls a day of delicious Germania Herb Tea, obtainable at food, department and drug stores, I hold entirely responsible for the loss of all my ugly fat and the return to me of a youthlike strength and energy I had not possessed in years. To obtain a trial package free, note coupon below.

Just What Germania Tea Is and How Fat Drops Off Like Magic

Made of herbs grown on the sunny slopes of hills and mountains in Germany, Germania Herb Tea is strictly a vegetable product containing no harmful drugs. It tastes just like ordinary orange pekoe tea. It is made the same way and you can drink it, either hot or served as iced tea, with lemon, cream or sugar.

Delicious, I found it and many women I know who drink it say the same. But getting rid of 62 pounds of fat cannot be accomplished by drinking any ordinary tea. Remember, you must drink Germania Herb Tea—and the remarkable thing about it is you lose weight without going on a freak starvation diet that runs you down and makes you weak and strengthless. I lost weight every day and each day I ate what I wanted, except much fatty meats and starches, felt better, and grew stronger. The body simply must have plenty of good, wholesome food, and of the right kind, containing vitamins and other necessary substances to sustain life and build strength and energy. TUNNEL DIGGERS GIVE AWAY ROCK; SAVE CITY MONEY

Canny builders who wish to erect filling stations, beautify barbecue stands and lay down driveways can get stone quarried from the city's water tunnels, delivered and dumped, at from 50 cents to $1.50 a load.

The business of furnishing city-quarried stone is on a firm foundation. Customers are satisfied and the sellers, who are truck drivers and foremen employed by the city, are finding the small but steady profits a great help in combatting the depression. The city does not share in the receipts.

Attention was called to the enterprise recently by certain citizens who expressed surprise that city owned, or city hired, trucks were delivering stone to private property owners. Some of the attention callers were angered because, they thought, the municipality was competing with private business, and others were exercised because they were sure the city was giving something for nothing.

Stone Liability to City.

An investigation disclosed the following facts:

1. In digging water tunnels great quantities of stone are brought up at the shaft openings.

2. This stone must be disposed of; it is a liability instead of an asset at the shafts.

3. City officials are interested in getting each truck to haul away as much as possible daily, and approve nearby dumping grounds; they feel that if drivers and foremen can find such places, even for a price, the city is benefited.

A certain amount of stone is hauled to the Bridewell, where prisoners take the big pieces and make little pieces of them. But from some of the shafts the Bridewell is a long distance. Those shafts which produce most are at 3560 West Lake street; 1745 North Springfield avenue, and 3225 West Chicago avenue. Also there is a surplus above the amount of the Bridewell can use.

Where the Stone Goes.

Among those who have admitted getting some of this surplus by dickering with drivers and foremen are Joseph Harwoth, roadhouse owner at 1850 North Harlem avenue, 33 loads; H. Prech, landscape artist at 1837 North Harlem avenue, 2 loads; Ted Candelin, filling station owner at 2130 North Harlem avenue, 120 loads; Ray Kerr, barbecue stand owner at Harlem and North avenues, 150 loads, and John Coleman, filling station owner at 2144 North Harlem avenue, 150 loads.

The usual rate to the driver was 50 cents to $1.00 a load, and in addition the foremen at several shafts, particularly at the one on Springfield avenue, were reported as getting retainers of from $5 to $10. Coleman said that he had gotten the bricks of which his station is constructed from the city also, and was expecting to get enough bricks from torn-up streets to build two more.

Short Hauls Save Million.

James J. Varsluis, chief engineer of water construction for the city, pointed out that the city hired only a few trucks and used 30 of its own to haul away the rock waste from the tunnels. By having short hauls, he said, more than a million dollars had been saved during the digging of the present tunnel project. Hauls are limited to four miles and the stone is free. If the people want to pay the drivers for it, that's their business, Mr. Versluis feels.

He and Commissioner of Public Works Oscar Hewitt said an investigation would be made to learn whether brick which could be used again in street repairs was being sold. They said little of the rock waste from the tunnels was suitable for street construction, even if the city had places to use it.

SIXTH MAN EXECUTED WITH LETHAL GAS IN NEVADA PENITENTIARY

Carson City, Nev., May 8.—[Special.]—Ray E. Miller, who murdered his wife in Las Vegas five months ago, was executed at sunrise today, the sixth slayer to die in Nevada's lethal gas chamber.

Poisonous gas, which rose in clouds from a pail beneath the condemned man's chair rendered him unconscious almost immediately. He was pronounced dead after thirteen minutes. Officials said the gas was twice as powerful as that used in the last two executions.

The execution was witnessed by twenty-four persons grouped about plate glass windows.

DIES AFTER MYSTERY SHOOTING.

Evansville, Ind., May 8.—[Special.]—John O. Kelly, 33, shot by an unidentified person Thursday evening as he sat in the home of a neighbor, John Brown, where he and his family were spending the evening, died in the Deaconess hospital here today. Steven Masterson, 32, Grandview, is being held as a suspect.

NAVY PIER URGED AS DOCK FOR ALL PASSENGER SHIPS

Request for Use of River Brings Out New Plan.

A proposal to dock passenger steamships in the Chicago river this summer caused Ald. William A. Rowan [10th], chairman of the city council committee on harbors, wharves and bridges, to counter yesterday with the suggestion that all large water craft be forced to use the facilities provided by the city at Navy pier.

Two water transportation companies have applications for dock permits in the river pending before Ald. Rowan's committee. The Chicago Roosevelt Steamship Lines has asked for the 125 feet of city dock along the south bank of the river adjacent to the east side of the Michigan avenue bridge. The Duke Transportation company has applied for wharf privileges just west of the bridge where the City of New York, Admiral Byrd's ship, was tied up during the winter.

Both companies, according to representations made to the aldermen, plan to operate a series of short cruises this summer. The Duke company also has announced that it will run regular voyages between Chicago and ports on Lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron with the steamships Isle Royale and George M. Cox, bringing visitors to the World's Fair from the lake ports.

"I want to encourage water-borne traffic," said Ald. Rowan, "but there are several matters of importance to the city that should be taken into consideration before the permits for use of river docks are granted. One of them is that the city has ample space at Navy pier for large passenger boats.

"Commissioner of Public Works Hewitt has informed me that Navy pier has been operated at a deficit since 1923. In the last ten years the city has spent $2,077,099 on the operation and maintenance of the pier, but has received as revenue only $1,421,402, making a total deficit of $655,697. Further, the delinquency in rental collections so far this year amounts to $44,217. Certainly the city should try to make the pier self-sustaining."

Ald. O. E. Northrup [19th], chairman of a subcommittee on bridges, brought out other facts. He said that if large passenger boats are permitted to dock west of the Michigan avenue bridge the span would be raised frequently, causing serious inconvenience to land traffic. He pointed out also that steamship companies now using the pier would want to come into the river if other boats were given that privilege.

The harbor committee also has pending before it applications from four companies to dock small passenger motorboats near Michigan avenue. Application also has been made to tie up the Success, an old convict ship, near the bridge during the summer months. All of the applications have been taken under advisement by the committee.

Widow Leaps to Death from Window of Hospital

Mrs. Lillian Mulcahy, 56 years old, 4428 Magnolia avenue, widow of Sergt. Timothy Mulcahy of the central police detail, who died in 1922, plunged to her death last night from a fourth floor window of St. Joseph's hospital. She had been admitted on May 29.

LATIN AMERICA HIT BY QUAKES; CITIES DAMAGED

MEXICO CITY, May 8.—(AP)—Three earthquake shocks were felt in south central Mexico from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts today. Some damage resulted in several cities in the states of Guerrero, Oaxaca, and Vera Cruz. No deaths were reported. All three shocks were felt here, the first at 4:31 a. m., the second at 12:02 p. m., and the third at 8:37 p. m. The epicenter apparently was somewhere in the Pacific ocean off the coast of Acapulco, Guerrero. Acapulco and Chilpancingo, Guerrero, reported several buildings damaged.

Chile Is Shaken Up.

SANTIAGO, Chile, May 8.—(AP)—Heavy earth shocks occurred this afternoon in Coquimbo province. They continued for some time. No definite reports of damage were received. A light tremor was felt in this city at 12:11 p. m.

Sea Wave Hits Salvador.

SAN SALVADOR, May 8.—(AP)—The entire Pacific coast of Salvador experienced a heavy sea wave today. At the town of La Libertad the water swept over the docks but caused little damage.

PRIESTS ROBBED AT RECTORY OF $600 COLLECTION

Two priests of the Notre Dame church were robbed of $600 by two armed bandits in the reception hall of the rectory, 1335 West Harrison street, yesterday morning. The Rev. Albert Pelletier, pastor, and his assistant, the Rev. Alphonse Belanger, had placed the money, Sunday's collection, in two suit cases to take it to a bank. As they stepped into the reception hall on their way to a waiting taxi, the bandits, revolvers drawn, seized the suit cases, fled to the street, and escaped in an automobile.

Loses His Pay in Saloon; Farmer Found a Suicide

A verdict of suicide while despondent over financial difficulties was returned by a coroner's jury in Elgin yesterday in the death of Chester W. Wilson, 34 years old, of Sycamore, in an Elgin hotel room. Wilson shot himself Saturday night but the body was not discovered until yesterday. In a letter to his wife, read at the inquest, Wilson disclosed that he had been robbed in a Chicago speakeasy.

CHICAGO . . . HOST TO THE WORLD! . . . That is what our city will be this Summer. Millions of out-of-town visitors are coming to the Century of Progress. For the automobile traffic alone, parking space has been reserved for 50,000 out-of-town cars daily. Our hotels will be filled to over-flowing. Thousands will seek rooms in Chicago homes. Almost every one of us will receive our quota of relatives and friends.

Get Ready for the Century of Progress

It is surprising how much a few new electrical things can add to the comfort of your home . . . and at such little cost! A new radio will give your home a front seat at Summer activities of world-wide interest. And the old radio can go up into the guest room. New lamps will add charm and good light to your rooms. An electric clock will help you keep appointments on time. An electric refrigerator is essential for food-saving and to help in preparing company meals. And more electric outlets on your walls will make your appliances doubly convenient to use.

Prepare Your Spare Room

Chicago's guest accommodations will be taxed to the limit this Summer. It is a civic duty to help—to accommodate your own guests or to rent your spare room. Chicago's "I Will" spirit showed itself in creating the great Century of Progress . . . now let's carry on and make the most of the opportunity it gives us. With everybody getting ready there will be work for Chicago people . . business for Chicago merchants. The Century of Progress opening has been moved ahead. Prepare now for May 27.

Other Chicago merchants, as well as ourselves, are displaying electrical conveniences that will help you get ready for the Century of Progress.

HERE'S LIGHT ON THE TRUE FACTS OF REFRIGERATOR OPERATING ECONOMY

● When you buy an electric refrigerator, you naturally want one that will add as little as possible to your monthly light bill—so you will get all the savings you have a right to expect. Be sure, however, that you get adequate refrigeration along with economy.

Every electric refrigerator is powered by an electric motor. These motors draw current when they are running . . . using varying amounts according to three factors: their size . . . their efficiency . . . and their running time.

These factors must be balanced if you are to get the most refrigeration for the least money. And in twelve years of painstaking research, Westinghouse achieved this perfect balance in the Westinghouse Dual-automatic Refrigerator . . . the most economical full-sized, full-powered refrigerator you can buy at any price!

Be sure to ask about POWER and FAST FREEZING when confronted with economy claims. Play safe with Westinghouse . . . ONE line—complete; ONE quality—the BEST. Let us give you further facts at our show-rooms.

Use This Door to the New York Market!

A NEWSPAPER has the "personality" of an individual. Its appeal is a reflection of its readers' needs and ideals and desires.

The group of families reading the Herald Tribune, more than 300,000 of them, hold the merchandising key to this market of markets. The facts prove it. So, too, do the Herald Tribune records of sales success for both manufacturers and merchants.

Vital Factors in Selling New York

Total yearly New York retail trade exceeds $4,000,000,000.

The population exceeds that of 18 states.

16% of total food store sales.

Average per capita purchasing 41% above the national average.

"The newspaper is an institution developed by civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, to inform and mold public opinion, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."

THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM.

President Roosevelt adroitly used a statement of Theodore Roosevelt to give point to the candor with which he laid his case before the people Sunday night, explaining what has been done and the purpose of what is to be undertaken. He said the elder Roosevelt once told him that to be seventy-five per cent right was as much as he expected of himself and it would satisfy him that he was doing very well. The reference to T. R. was a helpful bit of public oratory, because the picture instantly became one of a man whose mettle was equal to any hard task, the harder the better, whose spirit for a good fight was always high, and whose altruism was conceded.

Twenty-five per cent of error can be one thing or another. It can be negligible. It can be absorbed without shock and taken up without serious consequence. It can also be the dominating and determinative percentage. Most people at a guess would say that Mr. Hoover was seventy-five per cent right. The twenty-five per cent, or whatever percentage of error it was, served to ruin his sound proposals. If twenty-five per cent of error is concentrated in the refusal to keep public expenditures within public revenue, if it includes such projects as Boulder dam, and if it is consolidated in the farm board and price fixing, the answer is failure.

President Roosevelt has the very fortunate facility, fortunate for himself and it is to be hoped for the country, of making large numbers of people willing to see things his way. He can take the new medium of information and argument, the radio, and use it to the full advantage it offers of injecting the living personality of the pleader and exhorter into his written brief. As listeners followed the President's words they were persuaded of his hopefulness, his reasonableness, his truthfulness, and his confidence. They were persuaded that, although miracles are not to be expected and rash enthusiasms are to be avoided, the future will see them through the troubles which have been so dark and perilous.

The dangerous twenty-five per cent of error in Mr. Roosevelt's program seems to be very dear to some of his secretaries and advisers. The ideas advanced by such left wing Republicans as Mr. Norris in the senate and by such enthusiasts as Miss Perkins in the department of labor and Mr. Wallace in the department of agriculture contain the dangers confronting the administration. Mr. Roosevelt has some glib and plausible but radical and heedless advisers to whom an emergency is an opportunity. If he can slam the brakes upon their wheels he may find that his percentage of error is not the dominant factor in the future of his administration.

FOR ECONOMY OF MONEY AND TIME.

Up this week for consideration in the legislature is house bill 485, which provides for permanent registration of voters in Illinois. By doing away with the present cumbersome and expensive precinct system the proponents of the measure expect not only to save the taxpayers on an average half a million dollars a year but at the same time economize the time of voters, as well as provide some additional safeguards against election frauds.

The bill has the support of such organizations as the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, the Chicago Association of Commerce, the Civic federation, the Illinois Republican Women's club, City club, Illinois League of Women Voters, Chicago Church federation and other citizen associations and of individual citizens especially interested in problems of good government. THE TRIBUNE has already urged its consideration by the legislature and hopes that in at least its essential provisions it will receive legislative approval. Similar legislation has produced desirable results in other states and there is no excuse at this time for maintaining any more expensive system of registration than is required for the protection of the ballot and the efficient functioning of elections.

THE RAILROAD PROPOSALS.

The President's proposals for emergency action to meet the railroad situation deserve prompt approval by congress. He has asked for power lasting one year to accomplish results which every one in or out of the industry concerned realizes are essential to relief of the railroads and the improvement of rail transport.

Coördination for the purpose of eliminating duplication of service and wasteful methods of competition and the accomplishment of essential financial reorganization and combinations have been under discussion for a decade, but it has not proved practicable to accomplish them by voluntary action. The President asks for authority to compel these reforms in the common interest, and in the common interest it should be granted. His program has a background of years of discussion and proposes nothing that has not, in principle at least, a favorable consensus among students of the railroad situation. The device of a federal coördinator is the only novelty and we think it a practical one.

A government appointed coördinator is to confer with railway committees, who are instructed to initiate operating changes that will direct the flow of the traffic through the carriers best adapted to handle it, suggest changes in capital structures, submit constructive legislative proposals to congress and consider ways and means of improving railway transportation conditions.

The act is to remain in force for one year. During that time an organization such as is proposed cannot possibly upset a regularly established business and can do much to formulate plans that will result in a revival of business on the rails to the benefit of shippers, employés and the public in general. The bill is a cross section of the best thought of transportation students and should receive prompt approval by congress.

What success will attend the actual operation of the plan and what difficulties and disappointments appear must await actual trial, but the emergency calls for prompt action and the President's proposals promise greatly desirable results.

SENATOR LEWIS ON GUARD.

Senator Lewis has filed a powerful minority report opposing the ratification of the St. Lawrence treaty as it now stands. It is a fortunate circumstance that finds Mr. Lewis speaking for Illinois when the treaty is under consideration. Few senators can have his grasp of the problems involved and no senator is likely to have his familiarity with the legal aspects of the controversy, for Mr. Lewis served a long apprenticeship as counsel for Illinois and the sanitary district in the litigation over lake levels.

Mr. Lewis' argument is based on the provision of the treaty which limits the diversion of water at Chicago. He points out cogently that if the treaty is ratified the United States automatically relinquishes its right to control the waters of Lake Michigan and at the same time causes itself needless difficulties in the operation of the Illinois waterway. The treaty was based upon the Supreme court's decision in the lake level litigation, but the decree was entered before congress had formally taken over the Illinois waterway and therefore before the United States government had assumed any responsibility for its successful management.

The engineers, as Mr. Lewis shows, have never doubted that they can maintain lake levels at any point desired and they can do so even if two or three times as much water is taken from Lake Michigan as has ever been withdrawn. Under these circumstances a treaty which will permanently impair the usefulness of the lakes-to-gulf route without in any sense benefiting navigation on the lakes is a sacrifice which offers no compensating advantages. There is ample water for both the St. Lawrence and the Mississippi routes, the one an international highway, the other an American highway. If the senate ratifies the treaty in its present form it will contribute nothing to the success of the international route while causing irreparable injury to the specifically American system.

The sacrifice could be justified only if it were necessary, which it is not, and only if the St. Lawrence route offered trade advantages to this country which were immeasurably greater than the benefits which will be conferred by the completed lakes-to-gulf channel. The more closely the question is examined from this viewpoint the less important the St. Lawrence route appears to be. It was projected at a time when there was still a considerable export trade in American grain from the northwest, but that day is gone, perhaps forever. Canada remains a great wheat exporter and there is no doubt that her trade with Liverpool will benefit from the expenditure of American money, particularly as England has discriminated against our wheat in favor of Canada's. Indeed, there is ample reason to think that the St. Lawrence seaway will do our trade more harm than good. It will open the Canadian lake ports to imports of British coal and to that extent injure our mining industry. What Canada's tariffs have been unable to accomplish fully in excluding our goods may be accomplished if the tariffs are reinforced by a reduction in the cost of moving commodities from Europe into interior Canada.

EARLY ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

Friends of the Roosevelt administration, and in fact all Americans considerate of the national welfare, will hope for an early adjournment of congress. Compliant as an effectual majority of that body has been up to this time with the wishes of the President, the essential features of his emergency program are nearly complete and the prolongation of the session would merely prolong the uncertainties and plausible fears of the business world and thus retard recovery. None of the measures likely to pass would help recovery and the mere discussion of many of the proposals would retard the return of confidence in private enterprise and postpone adjustment to the new régime. It is essential to business revival that business should be free to make this adjustment as soon as possible and it cannot begin to do so until the uncertainties of congressional action are ended. This is due both to the President and to the country.

Editorial of the Day

GRAND RAPIDS' QUOTA.

[Grand Rapids Press.]

Grand Rapids' quota in the forest conservation corps has been set at 338 men, which seems disappointingly small in view of the need for much greater relief. Yet even this assistance is welcome, especially as it means not merely the employment of the 338 but the probable removal of that many families from the welfare rolls.

Requirements for enlistment include the provision that the volunteers must be willing to assign from $20 to $25 of their $30 per month allowance to their families. This assignment is enough to permit the part or full displacement of these families on relief lists.

Since the cost of maintenance per family is about $17 per month, the saving to the city over the six months' enlistment period should be around $34,000. Meanwhile the local members of the forestry army would be paid by the government a total of around $60,000 over the period of enlistment. Subtracting the amount saved by the city, the net cost of the forestry work done by Grand Rapids men would be around $26,000, plus the per capita cost of feeding, clothing, and sheltering the volunteers.

In effect the forest army is transferring part of the relief load from local to federal hands. Eventually the cost must be borne by citizens as a whole, no matter from what pocket it now comes.

Of course there are intangibles to be considered. Taking more than three hundred local young men out of the city and putting them at useful work is worth something that cannot be measured accurately in dollars and cents. The only regret should be the fact that beneficial labor cannot be given immediately to ten times that many.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

IT MUST BE FAIR ENOUGH, so we started out to try it. The cables from Paris yesterday said Franklin Delano had offered to settle the French war debt of eight billion dollars for one billion in a lump. Without waiting to find out if this was a fact or an idle rumor we decided to act at once. We called on our auto repair man to see him about waiving the bill he had sent us for forty bucks for putting a new roof on the car. "Scottie," says we, "will you settle this bill if we pay you one-eighth, that is five dollars in a lump sum?" "Rin, Jamie, rin!" shouted Scottie to his helper in the doorway, "rin to MacPherson's doon the road and tell to breng a doctor, the mon is sair mad!" Still, that doesn't prove anything except we shouldn't have started with a Scotchman.

OH, GOSH! HOW WE SHRINK from mentioning it, but the truth must be told, so get thee behind us, Modesty [and shove]. For our horse, Broker's Tip, won the Derby. Our first choice was Beefsteak, going on the old principle when in doubt play Bradley. But Beefsteak got chewed up or something and didn't run, so we picked Broker's Tip, another Bradley nag, and announced the fact in the Line Saturday morning. And a year ago we opined several days before the Derby that Burgoo King would win. And who did win? We ask you. But never having seen a single one of the horses or been any nearer to Churchill Downs than Gary, Ind., how come we are such a race track wizard? We cannot explain, 'tis a gift!

SPRING IN HAMPSTEAD.

There is scarcely a house in Hampstead
But has an orchard tree
Standing there in the garden
Like a bride in her finery . . .

Or is it a nymph come back to see
How mortals build and plan,
With never a care for her ancestry
Or a thought for mortal man?

The almond tree's in blossom,
She's blushing like a rose,
Sighing for Pan and the rest of the gods,
But they're gone. Ah, no one knows.

For we are dull and we forget
And our visions do not last—
My orchard tree in a garden set,
Frail link with a joyous past.

Ere 'twas ever a Hampstead lane:
The fearless ones are gathering
And the world is wild again.

"POSTMASTER GENERAL FARLEY Looks Over Chicago's New Postoffice."—Headline. And, Mr. Farley, there are quite a large number of patriots in Chicago who are devoted followers of the late Mr. T. Jefferson who earnestly hope that you—while you looked over the new postoffice—did not overlook the fact that the postmaster's job at the new postoffice is still held by a Republican. SHUCKS! THE FARMERS' STRIKE doesn't scare us none. Even when stopping for dinner or supper at a farmhouse there's no green truck coming out of the garden, it all comes out of tin cans that the farmer buys at the village store three or four miles away. Even the cream and the milk and the chicken—all in neat cans and the eggs are in cartons all from the store. So the farmers' strike doesn't scare us a bit, but if the boys who work in the big, busy shops where they make can openers announce they're going on strike, we're going to just worry ourselves sick.

SHELLS.

As children who have gathered on the shore
A pocketful of glossy shells may hear
Within some rosy conch, subdued yet clear,
And, while they listen, see the sun-capped tides
Again, the tawny sands, the silver spray,
Rejoiced that, sealed within their shells, abides
The sea by which they played one summer day;

So we may find in little memoried things
The whole bright beauty of some place or hour.
The flooding loveliness of vanished springs
May gleam for us within one opening flower;
The tides of youth and love may sound again

TREATMENT IN COMA.

To find a man who hitherto has apparently been in good condition unconscious—in what physicians call a state of coma—causes great alarm and uneasiness. The sick man himself cannot help with a history, and many of the sources of symptoms are closed. Diagnosis of the cause is very difficult and dangerous, treatment without diagnosis may be hazardous, and prophesying the outcome is risky.

Among the more frequent causes of suddenly developing coma in an adult are: Apoplexy, diabetes, uremia, epilepsy, hysteria, alcoholism, narcotism, other poisons, carbon monoxide, and sunstroke. Occasionally a serious form of infection will be inaugurated by coma.

As a rule, in coma due to stroke, including stroke due to a ruptured blood vessel, hemorrhage, thrombus, and embolus, there is evidence of one sided paralysis. One leg, one arm, or the muscles of one cheek or one side of the face can be observed to be thrown out of commission. Often one pupil is larger than the other. At first there is no fever.

The need of an early diagnosis is because of the danger that anxious friends will do too much. A person who has just had a stroke of apoplexy should be kept as quiet as possible. The head should be slightly elevated, but the neck should not be markedly bent. If the collar is tight it should be loosened. And beyond that whatever is done by way of first aid will probably do more harm than good. Moving the patient around, transporting him in an ambulance, placing him in bed, removing his clothing and giving enemas are all hazardous. The patient will stand a better chance of recovery if he gets the minimum amount of first aid service.

Diabetic coma is unaccompanied by evidence of paralysis. There is a history of diabetes. The breath smells sweetish and the urine gives the test for sugar. A person with diabetic coma should have a full dose of insulin by injection and as promptly as possible. Since the dose must be full some sugar must be given, or else it must be kept at hand for quick use.

Coma due to too much insulin may be accompanied by convulsions. There may be a history of diabetes and the taking of insulin. The urine is likely to be free of sugar. The remedy is some sugar given by injection of some kind, or by mouth when that is feasible.

The coma of uremia is due to acidosis. It may be surmised if there be a history of Bright's disease, or if the woman is pregnant, or if there be dropsy. Examination of the urine for albumin usually determines the diagnosis. An effort is made to increase elimination. Bleeding and lumbar puncture are procedures that physicians use.

A home method of inducing sweating is by painting a two inch square of the skin under each axilla with a mixture of equal parts of guaiacol solution and olive oil. This is covered by several layers of gauze, then with flannel held on with adhesive tape. After this the patient is wrapped in a warm blanket.

Coma due to opiates is generally accompanied by very slow breathing and pin point pupils; that due to alcoholism by an odor of alcohol on the breath and flushed, red face. A test of the urine shows alcohol present.

In the coma of hysteria there is generally a little tremor around the eyes and in some other face muscles. The diagnosis can often be made by examining the eyes. Treatment makes hysteria coma worse. Neglect cures it.

SULPHUR AND MOLASSES.

Mrs. M. E. W. writes: I have pimples on my face. Would you please give me the recipe for sulphur and molasses?

REPLY.

Anybody can give it to you. Everybody knows a recipe. In fact, you can close your eyes and mix sulphur and molasses in almost any proportion; the effect would be about the same.

JOHN CAN MAKE YOU SLEEP.

REPLY.

The method you use is excellent. It induces mental calm and relaxation. Sleep follows naturally.

COLLECTING INSURANCE.

Chicago, May 6.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Will you kindly inform me if a husband can collect anything on his wife's insurance, the wife having disappeared eleven years ago and has not been heard of since? He has paid the insurance, which is a lodge policy, for twenty years. D. G.

In general, a person who has disappeared is presumed to be dead after seven years, but many insurance contracts expressly stipulate against liability based upon such presumption. Your rights would depend on the wording of your agreement.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

SALES TAX.

Chicago, April 25.—[Legal Friend of the People.] — Shoe repair shops are charging tax on top lifts and half soles, one cent tax on repair work from 11 cents to 33 cents, and so on. 1. Is this legal? Even though the scale is legal for commodities is it legal for shoe repairs where the labor constitutes by far the larger percentage of the charge? The price for top lifts is 25 cents in our neighborhood. 2. What percentage of this is for the actual leather or rubber in the lifts? 3. Has the man a right to charge more than 3 per cent on the price of the leather or rubber to him? 4. Has he a legal right to charge anything for materials under 33 cents in value? 5. Does anybody know when the Supreme court is going to adjudicate this tax?

R. S.

1. Where goods are consumed in rendering a service, as in the case of shoe repairs, the person rendering the service should pay the tax on the goods that are consumed, but not on the service portion of his charge. In his dealings with his customer he should not pretend that he is paying a larger tax than he is paying, but if his increased price does not purport to be based upon the tax there is no legal objection to his making any arbitrary increase in price that he desires.
2. This is a question of fact on which you are apparently better posted than we are.
3. Not as a tax.
4. Yes.
5. We do not know.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

40 YEARS AGO TODAY

MAY 9, 1893.

CHICAGO.—Residents of Chicago touched elbows with visitors from out of town in crowding to the World's Fair gates to witness the Fair ground illumination last night. At 6:30 o'clock the crowds of visitors by the Illinois Central, the Alley "L," the street car lines, and by the boats began knocking at the gates. Probably the prettiest sight was that the visitors obtained who entered at the north end of the park and walked south along the banks of the lagoon or across the wooded island. The glare of the thousands of electric lights was mellowed by the intervening distance, and it was reflected from the waters of the lagoon like the streams of light from a full moon on a summer's night.

One of the officials of the Transportation building said yesterday: "The total amount of exhibits that we expect is 1,000 carloads, of which over 900 are already in the building and perhaps 985 or 1. the grounds."

A famous old log hut which was one of the first erected in Kentucky arrived on the Ethnological department grounds yesterday.

Director Lyman J. Gage visited the World's Fair last Sunday and when he saw the struggling crowd seeking to gain admittance he became more than ever convinced that the Exposition should be open Sunday. Speaking of the matter last night he said that it is a privilege and a right the people had to expect. He said he had a plan to submit to the local directory providing for the opening of the Fair Sundays.

At the Woman's building there were received four carloads of showcases and three carloads of exhibits from Russia. At the Fine Arts building among the exhibits unpacked was the colossal bronze group of Washington and Lafayette, by A. Bartholdi of Paris. An immense oil painting, 10x20 feet in size, by Hy Landham, called "The March of Time," representing all the generals of the war marching in column, each figure being an accurate likeness, was another of the fine exhibits received.

MAY 9, 1917.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congress is to be asked for $1,000,000,000 to rush a merchant fleet to break the U-boat blockade. The ways and means committee of the house increased all existing tariff duties and put a tax of 10 per cent on all imports now on free list, thus boosting the war revenue bill up to $1,800,000,000 as demanded by treasury department. A storm is brewing in congress over giving autocratic powers to President Wilson in the conduct of the war. Opposition to his secretive policies is growing.

LONDON.—Reuter's correspondent at Saloniki telegraphs: "Today [May 6] was a great day in the history of Saloniki. A massmeeting proclaimed the deposition of the king of Greece and his dynasty. Over 40,000 persons assembled in the principal square and were addressed by various speakers. They cheered themselves hoarse with shouts of 'Long live Venizelos,' 'Long live the national government,' and 'Down with the king.'"

NEW YORK.—Theodore Roosevelt, speaking to a boisterously sympathetic audience of 3,000 Brooklynites last night, was cheered for three minutes when he told them that Washington's fear that he might serve his country too well was the principal reason for the opposition to his taking an army to France. Four thousand men and women, denied admittance to the hall, stood in the street and echoed the cheers.

REFUNDING SCHOOL DEBTS.

Clarendon Hills, Ill., May 4.—I should like to call attention through these columns to what seems to me the most vicious bill ever drawn, and which is now before the legislature at Springfield. It is known as the Barr act, designed to permit school boards outside of Chicago to refund unpaid tax warrants and teachers' orders without referendum.

If the time ever comes that local school boards, either in hard times or good times, can slap bond issues onto the people without their having a voice in the matter we might as well say that all limitations to spending and extravagance are off.

It is to the credit of the senate that it was voted down upon the first reading, but the author thereupon proposes to offer it again stripped of half its offensiveness and retain the part that would permit such bonds to be issued provided the money had been for the teachers' pay.

True enough, school boards are having a hard time to pay the bills they ran up during the last few years, but if they can easily go to Springfield, pass a bill soaking the taxpayers for an extra levy, and then be free to go on as before, all our progress toward restraining their spending activities in the future will be nullified.

For many districts the present hardships met in raising money are a good thing and a discipline to the boards, but if there are those that should be entitled to refund old debts by bond issues then it should be up to the taxpayers to decide and not a handful of tax spenders.

J. R. TRYDLE,
President Clarendon Hills Taxpayers' Association.

ECONOMY.

Chicago, May 1.—It is noted from the press that George W. Rossetter and a group of civic leaders plan a trip to Washington to confer with Senators Lewis and Dieterich, protesting the proposed abandonment of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, as an economy measure by the navy department.

As Mr. Rossetter gained so much publicity as a leader in the drive to reduce government expenditures, particularly those of the federal government, his trip to Washington leads one to wonder as to his sincerity in conducting the recent drive. The navy department has several times made a similar proposal, but business interests have fought it, as it would be their loss. B. Y. D.

IN HUMBOLDT PARK.

Chicago, May 2.—This, I think, should be called to your attention. Last Friday my son was riding his bicycle in Humboldt park and two boys armed with knives ordered him off and took his bike away from him. The desk sergeant at the Shakespeare station refused to take a report of the highway robbery and there was no one at the Humboldt station to take it. P. L. LOCKE.

FAMINE.

Chicago, May 3.—A great deal is being written and said concerning farm product overproduction. Weather operates her processes with equal force in overproduction as well as underproduction periods. It is better to invite overproduction than to risk famine.

L. H. HEMBERG.

PASSAGE UNDER I. C. TRACKS.

Chicago, May 1.—Warm weather is with us again and before long thousands of our citizens, and especially the school boys and girls, will be making their way to the lake front on the south side.

From 39th to 51st street there is no viaduct over, or subway under, the I. C. tracks, although at 47th street all of the I. C. tracks are on pilings, and there is a passageway under all but the four tracks to the east, which passageway leads up to the suburban station. From east of that passage line one has to climb up on the right of way and then walk across these four tracks.

Last year an I. C. train killed some young people who were attempting to cross the tracks and there was all kinds of publicity and a public demand for some action to put an end to this danger, but, of course, those unfortunates who were struck by the train were not related to any of the south park commissioners, so nothing has been done to relieve this dangerous condition.

May I offer a suggestion for eliminating this danger for the coming summer and the future? The south park commissioners have several teams of horses and if two of those teams, with a couple of scrapers, were put to work at 47th street it would take perhaps one to two days' work to complete a passage under those four tracks that would be large enough for pedestrians and would enable them to avoid climbing on the right of way and crossing the tracks.

JOHN A. BROWN.

"THE RING AND THE BOOK."

Harvey, Ill., May 1.—It is to be regretted that Mr. Charles Collins' interesting article in yesterday's TRIBUNE on the play "Caponsacchi" was marred by repeated and apparently serious slurs on one of the world's greatest books. I should be loath to believe that contemporary culture has fallen so low as to be fairly represented by such an attitude.

Referring to "The Ring and the Book," Mr. Collins says: "Hardly a man who is now alive can boast that his reading has mastered, with complete enjoyment, this literary monstrosity." Doubtless there is a saving element of the Pickwickian sense in the use of the word monstrosity, which should mitigate one's indignation. At any rate, I rise to remark that, while I had not thought of boasting of it, I have read this literary marvel, not only with complete enjoyment but with great enthusiasm.

As to the statement that Mr. Goodrich happened to be almost the only surviving member of what he calls the old school Browning cult, Mr. Collins is respectfully referred to Prof. William Lyon Phelps, who could put him in touch with hundreds and, perhaps, thousands of lovers of this unique masterpiece.

CLEAR AND STRONG.

Kansas City, Mo., May 3.—I wish to commend you for the excellent editorial in Monday's issue headed "Will a Free People Fight?" It is the clearest and strongest presentation of the actual issues confronting the American people today that I have seen in print anywhere. The great pity is that more big newspapers, many of which undoubtedly view the alarming situation the same as you do, evidently lack the courage of their convictions and remain silent.

BRITISH RELEASE GANDHI ON FIRST DAY OF HIS FAST

Mahatma Drops Civil Disobedience Drive.

POONA, India, May 8.—(AP)—The government of India released Mahatma Gandhi from prison tonight a few hours after he had started the three week fast which physicians believe will cost his life.

The mahatma, who has served 16 months in Yeravda jail for his civil disobedience campaign against the British government, immediately subordinated that campaign to the battle he is waging for removal of the stigma of India's untouchables, the lowest caste of the community.

The weakened little old man, a messiah to unnumbered Indian millions, announced that for one month the civil disobedience campaign was being abandoned.

Fruit Juice His Last Meal.

He made this announcement a few hours after he had eaten his last meal of fruit juice.

In his proclamation Gandhi appealed to the government to answer his gesture with the release of all political prisoners and with the withdrawal of the so-called anti-terrorist ordinances, which were invoked by the government to cope with the civil disobedience activities of the mahatma's followers.

Dr. Margaret Spiegel, a Jewish refugee from Germany, started a sympathetic fast at Madras at noon, the hour when Gandhi began his. When doctors declared recently that the mahatma's fast would be fatal she announced she would abstain from food also in order to try to make him desist.

"He cannot let me die," she said.

Condition Described as Fit.

A group of devotees and friends was present when the 63 year old Nationalist leader began his period of abstinence at noon. A medical examination had shown he had gained two pounds since Wednesday, and his condition was described as fit, although he had no reserve strength.

The assemblage prayed and sang hymns. Gandhi's head was covered with a red cloth to protect him from the intense mid-day sun. He asked his guests to sit in the shade.

At the conclusion of the devotional service the Nationalist leader asked the crowd to leave him and not to return as long as he continued to fast.

Issues Statement.

He issued this statement:

"Every day brings me fresh justification for the ordeal which God and truth have sent me. The discoveries I have been making would have paralyzed me but for my fast and whatever it may mean for the cause, it will certainly be my saving.

"Whether I survive or not is of little moment. Built as I am, these fasts are indispensable. I confess I have no strength but what God gives me, but it has never failed me hitherto and gives me confidence that it will not fail me now."

Britain Expects No Disorders.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, May 8.—Only one interpretation can be placed upon the release today of Mahatma Gandhi, India's Nationalist leader, from Yeravda jail at Poona coincident with the beginning of the "holy man's" three weeks' fast. It means the British government feels that the civil disobedience campaign sponsored by the all-India Nationalist congress is now so vitiated that Gandhi can be let out of his cell without any disturbance of the public peace in India.

The British government is also taking the mahatma at his word that he has resigned from all political activity except to fight for the abolition of untouchability.

JUDGES SEEKING RE-ELECTION

(Election June 5)

THOMAS J. LYNCH

Judge Thomas J. Lynch, Democrat, who is now sitting in the Criminal court, is finishing his second term on the Circuit bench. He was born in Chicago 53 years ago. He lives with his wife at 4218 Washington boulevard.

He was educated at St. Philip's grammar school and at St. Ignatius college, and after graduation from Chicago Law school he was admitted to the bar in 1905. Many years ago he had a position in the office of the Criminal court clerk.

Judge Lynch was elected alderman of the old 35th ward [now the 30th] in 1914 and he was reëlected three times. In the city council he was one of the leaders in fighting against raids on the public treasury by the spoils politicians. He took a strong stand against salary grabs. The M. V. L. rated him one of the most conscientious and efficient members.

He was elevated to the Circuit bench in 1921 and was reëlected six years later. For three years Judge Lynch served continuously as divorce judge. When he left the divorce bench he had a record of having heard and granted more divorces than any judge in Cook county up to that time. One of his epigrams was: "Alimony is as out of date as the horse and buggy."

Judge Lynch went to the Criminal court, and in 1925 was made chief justice of that branch to succeed the late Judge Jacob H. Hopkins. He was supported by the late George Brennan, Democratic leader.

Among the noted cases Judge Lynch has presided over were the W. D. Shepherd and Russell Scott murder cases. He has much personal popularity both on and off the bench.

He was indorsed in the bar association primaries, and the report said of him: "He is fairly qualified for the office."

This Small Utah Town Is Still on the Gold Standard

Salt Lake City, May 8.—(AP)—There's one town still on the gold standard, apparently, and that's Loa, down in the mountains of Wayne county, Utah.

Secretary Milton Q. Welling, in charge of the state automobile license law, today received a small bottle accompanied by a letter from S. M. Caldwell of Loa.

"Please find enclosed gold dust to pay for the license plates on my half ton truck, also including taxes," the letter said. "We have no place to sell gold here but you can get it cashed. This is gold from the Henry mountains. If any is left over from the license amount, please return it."

MARCHERS BRING UP SCOTTSBORO AT WHITE HOUSE

Ruby Bates Then Talks to Speaker Rainey.

Washington, D. C., May 8.—(AP)—Three thousand whites and Negroes sought from President Roosevelt and congressional leaders today intervention to free the nine Alabama Negroes convicted of criminal assaults in the Scottsboro case.

In the van of the marchers was Ruby Bates, who, after once swearing the men had attacked her, reappeared at a new trial as a surprise witness, reversing her testimony. With her went James Ford, Negro communist, and William L. Patterson, Negro national secretary of the International Labor Defense.

Also present was Janie Patterson, mother of Haywood Patterson, at whose retrial the Bates girl changed her story. Patterson was convicted again and sentenced to death.

At the White House the leaders saw Louis McHenry Howe, presidential secretary. They complained bitterly on being told the President was too busy conferring with Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, special German envoy, to receive their petitions in person.

They marched then to the capitol and Speaker Rainey heard them.

"We demand congressional action for the unconditional release of the Scottsboro boys," Ford told Rainey. "We present also a bill of rights demanding legislation to guarantee enforcement of the 13th and 14th amendments."

"The petition will be referred to the judiciary committee," Mr. Rainey replied. "As for the Scottsboro case, that is a matter for the courts. Congress has no authority to direct the release of men charged with a crime."

Ruby Bates said: "The Scottsboro boys are absolutely innocent."

"You testified once they were guilty?" Rainey asked.

"Yes, sir," she said.

"Now you retract?" Mr. Rainey said.

"Yes, sir," she replied.

"What caused you to change your mind?" Mr. Rainey queried.

"Well, I didn't want to see innocent boys suffer," she answered.

"Because you had perjured yourself?"

"Yes, sir, under duress," Ruby said.

Although at the White House attachés said the President was making a practice, now that business is so heavy, of referring petitioners to Secretary Howe, Ford, as spokesman for the marchers, said they regarded Mr. Roosevelt's refusal to see them as a "gesture of contempt."

KIDNAPING CASE BAIL FOR BUCKS SET AT $100,000

Brothers Enter Pleas of Not Guilty.

Provincetown, Mass., May 8.—[Special]—Held in $100,000 bail each, Kenneth and Cyril Buck of Harwichport were taken back to the Barnstable jail today to await trial for kidnaping 10 year old Peggy McMath. Kenneth Buck is charged with the actual kidnaping and his brother with extortion. Ransom of $60,000 was paid but recovered, after the girl had been returned.

In the arraignment today, District Attorney William C. Crossley demanded high bail on the grounds that the case "was worse than murder."

Young Judge on Bench.

Judge Robert A. Walsh, 30 years old and only recently appointed to the bench, agreed that "kidnaping is one of the most heinous crimes," and promptly fixed bail at $100,000 each after the two defendants had pleaded not guilty.

The cases were continued until May 22, although Cyril Buck wanted an immediate hearing. He said he was ready to testify, that he had nothing to conceal, and that he took no part in the actual kidnaping. He is charged only with extortion. He consented to the delay, however, in order to have time to engage counsel.

Says He Returned Money.

Kenneth Buck, who has confessed that he kidnaped the girl and held her for several days, wanted time to retain a lawyer. He denied a published version of the return of the $60,000 ransom money. He said he had personally given the money to detectives and added that even if he had not been arrested he had intended to hand the money to a priest.

Neil McMath, father of the kidnaped girl, voiced sympathy for Cyril Buck but none for Kenneth Buck.

"After all," the father said, "Cyril Buck brought my child back to me unharmed."

Start New Kreutzer Trial in Illegal Operation Death

The retrial of Armin L. Kruetzer on a charge of murder by abortion was begun yesterday before Judge Edward Shurtleff in Waukegan. Kruetzer was convicted on the same charge two months ago and sentenced to fourteen years' imprisonment. Judge Ralph J. Dady granted a new trial because of prejudicial evidence. Kruetzer is accused of causing the death of Mrs. Anna Balis of Cudahy, Wis., who died in Milwaukee on Dec. 16, after having been operated upon.

Fritz .....Reed McClelland

BY CHARLES COLLINS.

Miss Barrymore, intelligently recognizing the fact that Chicago is on the eve of a new World's Fair whose hosts of pilgrims will be eager to discover something about the institution called the Drama, of which they have heard much and seen little, began an engagement at the Harris theater last night under her own direction—her debut as an actress-manager. Her play, excellently cast and artistically staged, is "An Amazing Career," a comedy about one of the many phases of that theoretically fascinating character, an opera prima donna.

Pieces of this type [and they have been many] usually deal with the diva as a genius, sweeping the world with her conquering personality, driving her intimates to distraction with her explosive temperament. But Miss Barrymore's is not exactly that kind of a song-bird. Apparently the authors of "An Amazing Career" did not consider their heroine as a genius, although they granted that she could sing well enough to have a successful career of twenty years on the opera and concert stage.

They chose to depict her as the Peter Pan of prima donnas—a singer who never grew up, although she went about shedding old husbands for new and acquiring children [whether they were of her own bearing or not didn't matter] by the dozen. This Rosita Morales, Spanish by the name, but not in Miss Barrymore's portrayal, is a perpetual ingénue with a maternal complex—not an especially real character, but one well suited for the purposes of light and chattering comedy.

Miss Barrymore begins in London in 1910 with two children of her own and three that have been annexed from her husband's first marriage. She is apparently in the full flush of her career, and ready to sing Juliet. She drops her husband [a tenor, one suspects] to form a new alliance with a young painter [with three children] who wants only a mistress, but soon discovers that Rosita is a glutton for matrimony.

The second act finds her in Berlin, ten years later, where the comedy of changing partners is repeated. This time the victim is a Prussian pianist, with more children to be added to the fantastic ménage.

Another decade passes with the intermission, and we find Rosita and her third husband as concert artists in Paris. She hasn't aged a day, but she feels a change coming on. An American banker has been hanging around for years, kissing her hand, and she tags him for No. 4.

By this time she has got her prodigious brood of children all mixed up. She cannot tell her own from those acquired by marriage; and when Gretchen wants to marry Fritz [no blood kin] she is horrified.

This outline of the story will serve to indicate, I believe, that "An Amazing Career" is a slight and somewhat casual fabrication, with a plot that industriously chases its own tail. It is merely a picturesque character sketch, remote from reality. People who like to identify the prima donnas of such pieces with actual personages of the lyric theater probably will think of Schumann-Heink as the total of Rosita Morales' children mounts up, and if they get a kick out of such farfetched resemblances, so much the better.

The play is a pleasant departure from the standard pattern in that Miss Barrymore never drops into foreign languages to heighten the operatic atmosphere, and also refrains from a spaghetti-eating episode. She plays Rosita as a charming, slightly eccentric sentimentalist, beautifully gowned and always in control of her temper.

The cast is first rate in every rôle. Sebastian Braggiotti as the portrait painter [Husband No. 2] and David Tearle as the blustering maestro of the Chopin repertory [Husband No. 3] deserve special mention for vivid and persuasive acting. A burlesque rehearsal scene, with "Tristan and Isolde" as its material, represents the peak of the play's merriment.

Good Morning!

It's a wonder to me that more children don't scrooge up fat little fingers on stubby pencils and write scenarios. They know their stuff so well!

The three small boys in the row just behind me at the Majestic were always one lap ahead of the action on the screen:

"He thinks SHE killed him!"—when a character on the screen had, after discovering a body, indulged in a moment's facial pantomime. . . .

"He's going to forget something . . . !"—as the hero left the room, after carefully setting his stage for the police, due any minute. And so on—"Bzz-zzz-zzz!" I got more kick out of the kids than I did from the picture—though, at that, "The Phantom Broadcast" is a pretty good little programmer.

It's the story of a whataman [physically] crooner, and his sensitive, artistic, hunch-backed manager. The latter has a glorious voice and sings the songs which the former—his lips moving in unison with the manager's—appears to be rendering. Grant Murdock receives the mash notes, dates the girls, and makes public appearances. Norman Wilder, in the background, answers sincerely such letters as he feels are written by people who have been really touched by his voice, tends to business and gives singing lessons on the side. He has a knack for recognizing talent and developing artists.

Far-fetched, I grant you, and I would say, impossible, for Wilder and Murdock to so completely fool even their closest observers as they do—but the situation is effective, if you aren't persnickety about believing all you see and hear. It is a condition that leads to tragedy and a finale played all in tremulo.

Ralph Forbes as Wilder really hogs the show. I've not been fond of him in the past and in the first scenes I thought him tiresome and affected with an accent, probably caught from Ruth Chatterton. But, as the picture unreels, he captures both the sympathy and imagination of the observer.

Arnold Gray qualifies as the dummy crooner. Gail Patrick and Paul Page are delightful as a pair of lovers. Vivienne Osborne does a nice bit as a lady scorned. Pauline Garon—where has she been keeping herself lately!—is cunning as a cigar stand girl, and some convincing gangstering is accomplished by Rockcliffe Fellowes, Carl Miller et some more. Big Boy Williams is intriguing as Wilder's devoted taxi driver.

Direction is spotty—with bright spots uppermost.

What I'd like to know is, WHO does the singing for both Forbes and Gray! Nice voice!

Chorus Singing of Augustana College Praised

BY EDWARD MOORE.

It took two postponements before the Wennerberg and Oriole choruses of Augustana college, Rock Island, were able to meet their Chicago assignment, but the third dating brought them to Orchestra hall last night, and they were worth waiting for. They appeared for the benefit of the Luther leagues of the Chicago district, and the leagues thereby sponsored an excellent attraction.

The choruses were good when they appeared in Chicago before; they were better last night. Henry Veld, their conductor, would seem to have expert knowledge of how to build choral organizations into high musical efficiency. The Wennerberg chorus is of men, the Oriole of women. They sang separately, sometimes with accompaniment, sometimes without, and then they combined into a mixed chorus of about seventy members, singing entirely unaccompanied.

In all of their manifestations their singing was a matter of pure, rich tone, scrupulous regard for pitch, and exactness of phrase. Apparently no one has ever told them that choruses in general have the habit of blurring their words. At least they have not acquired the habit. Here was choral singing in which most of the time the words were about as clearly projected as they are in good solo singing, and this whether the text was in English or Latin.

This is the sort of performance to make one believe in the possibilities of musical leadership in American colleges. If all colleges and universities could show choruses as good as the Wennerberg and Oriole organizations the case would be settled. This comparatively small college in Rock Island is setting standards well worth examining.

Women Plan Gifts for Mothers at Oak Forest

Aged and destitute mothers at Oak Forest will receive presents Mothers' day next Sunday through a plan sponsored by Mrs. A. F. Klinetop, a member of the woman's department of the Chicago Church federation. With a corps of women interested in the home, Mrs. Klinetop will distribute cakes and sandwiches, jelly and fruit to residents of the home. Last year's Mother's day party provided for more than 1,500 women.

Junior League Elects Slate of Committee

Margot Atkin Will Serve Second Term.

BY ELEANOR PAGE.

The Junior league held its annual meeting yesterday at the Old Heidelberg inn at A Century of Progress and elected the ticket presented by the nominating committee. Miss Margot Atkin was reëlected president, Mrs. Alfred M. Wolfe was chosen first vice president, Miss Louise Neff second vice president, Miss Jean Armstrong secretary, and Miss Harriet Borland treasurer. The directors chosen are: Mrs. James Addington, Miss Adelaide Atkin, Miss Elaine Blackman, Mrs. John L. Cochran, Mrs. Ambrose C. Cramer, Mrs. Nathaniel Owings, Mrs. Norman Pritchard, Mrs. R. Hampton Ripley, Miss Dorothy Schmidt, Mrs. Carleton Scribner, Mrs. John I. Shaw, and Mrs. Ewing Webb.

After the meeting the two hundred or more members present sat for luncheon at long narrow tables covered with red checked cloths in keeping with the old-country atmosphere of the large wooden beamed room. There was nothing old-country about the clothes worn by the members, however, for every one was in her new spring clothes and looking exceedingly smart. Miss Atkin, stunning in a brown sports suit with a yellow sweater and a shoulder corsage of gardenias and pink sweet peas, introduced Mrs. Howard Linn, first president of the Chicago league, who spoke of the founding of the league, the great possibilities for service by its members and the marvelous work it has done. She was lovely, as usual, in a brown hat and skirt and a three-quarters length checked brown coat.

Among others at the meeting were Mrs. Franklin G. Clement and Mrs. Robert J. Dunham Jr., who had motored in from Lake Forest together and who both were wearing suits and hats of marine blue; Mrs. Stephen V. Horton (Betty Histed) in a zebra striped brown silk frock, Miss Barbara Senn and Miss Betty Offield in white hats of the "gob" variety, Miss Jane Fortune in a gray felt fedora which might have belonged to her brother, Mrs. James M. Carry, Mrs. Leslie B. Olmsted, Mrs. Douglas S. Offutt and Miss Elizabeth Ricker, all in black and white; Mrs. Kenneth Carpenter in brown tweeds, Mrs. J. Beach Clow in dark gray, Mrs. Lithgow Mitchell in navy and white, Mrs. Ronald P. Boardman in a black tailleur with a silver fox scarf, and Mrs. William K. Meyers in a dark suit with a cerise beret, very becoming.

After the luncheon the members saw "Peter Pan" in the Children's theater on the Enchanted island. The performance was a preview and the formal opening will be Saturday.

'Alice' Wonders if Boy Friend Truly Loves Her

BY DORIS BLAKE.

How can you tell if the boy friend loves you, or just likes your company? This is "Alice's" query.

The B. F. takes "Alice" out once a week, at least; maybe to the movies or to a dance, or to a regular show. When he is with her he is as attentive as a lady could wish. He remembers her not with expensive gifts, but with tender remembrances, flowers.

But she was ill for a spell—and he called once to ask how she was. Only once. When she got better and saw him again he explained he thought it would be well if he gave her a rest.

Another reason for suspecting the young man's devotion lacks the divine spark is that he never tells the girl he loves her. And Alice thinks that if a man loved a girl he couldn't keep from telling her so.

Well, as an intense Romeo we'd agree the young man falls a little flat. BUT—on the other hand, we believe young women very often set out with a program of their own making to which the young man must respond in toto, or his cause is lost. Too, these same young women forget that they have a part to play in bringing the love declaration to a head. They can't just leave everything to the boy.

It doesn't seem that a young man would squire a girl around for nearly a year, appearing at weekly intervals, unless he were ripe to be picked. And in this game of love it's better to give the chap the benefit of the virtues he possesses and soft pedal his forgetfulnesses. You can train him to the way you want him to go later, Alice.

Marlene Dietrich Signs Contract for Two Films

Hollywood, Cal., May 8.—[Special.]—Marlene Dietrich, German movie actress who leaves for her homeland this week, has signed a new contract and will return to Hollywood to make two more films, one in October and one in January. The contract, which is with Paramount, the studio which imported her three years ago, is a double-barreled one. It also provides that Joe Von Sternberg, temperamental director, will go back on the Paramount pay roll, after a recent difference and departure, to direct her again. The salaries were not announced. Miss Dietrich, however, is reported to be guaranteed in excess of $6,000 a week.

Members Hold Art Exhibition at Cordon Club

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The annual summer exhibition of paintings and sculpture by professional members opened yesterday at the Cordon club, Fine Arts building. It is a smaller exhibit than previous years have brought, but it has several points of interest. Anna Lee Stacey offers a stunning canvas, "Moonlight in Cagnes"; Lucie Hartrath shows "River and Trees," a rather wistful landscape; and Anna Lynch is represented by the portrait of a man, "My Nephew."

Crosby Buck, whose name is less well known, hangs an effective study of a woman, and Elizabeth K. Peyraud offers a charming foreign street scene, delightful in its play of color.

The portrait bust of Lorado Taft, by Alice Littig Siems, sums up the sculpture. It is as effective here as it was a few weeks ago when Mrs. Siems showed several other pieces of sculpture in the same gallery.

The "Persimmons—Japanese," by Bertha E. Jacques remains as piquant and irresistible as ever, one of the most satisfying color etchings you will find in a month's search. In the front room are hanging a mother and child of titanic proportions by Flora Schofield. The color is low in key and the whole composition is forced. Flanking it is a bridge and landscape by Jean Crawford Adams, a rather quick and impetuous effort. Across from it hangs the large decorative synopsis of Chicago by Frances Badger that last year was shown in the Increase Robinson gallery.

Re-elect Col. George Langhorne President of Friends of China

Dr. Laufer Shows Members Through Oriental Galleries of Field Museum After Business Session.

BY JUDITH CASS.

In the red and black cafeteria of the Field museum the American Friends of China met yesterday noon to reëlect Col. George T. Langhorne president and to hear Dr. Berthold Laufer, the museum's orientalist and anthropologist, tell about the newly installed Chinese collections.

There were three new vice presidents elected—Mrs. Joseph M. Patterson, Dr. Quincy Wright, and Mrs. William B. Hale. Dr. Laufer was retained as secretary, Miss Lucy Driscoll as assistant secretary, and Dr. Walter Lichtenstein as treasurer. W. W. Yen, ambassador from China to Russia, is the honorary president and Dr. P. C. Chang the Chinese adviser.

Governors for the coming year are Robert Allerton, Mrs. Tiffany Blake, Mrs. William H. Bush, Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, Mrs. Richard T. Crane Jr., Mrs. Charles W. Dempster, Mrs. Howell B. Erminger Jr., Arthur H. Evans, Stanley Field, Henry Field, William B. Greenlee, John Payne Kellogg, Mrs. Paul Shorey, Mrs. Silas H. Strawn, Russell Tyson, and Mrs. John Paul Welling.

Col. Langhorne, seated between Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, was the toastmaster yesterday. He introduced Dr. Laufer and then the 50 guests went to the oriental galleries, where all of the famous Chinese collections have been installed in one wing. This is the first time the museum has ever been able to display its jades together in one room.

One of the high lights was the exhibit of the famous ceramic catalogue Dr. Laufer received recently after a search of 30 years. It's a ten volume catalogue bound in five handsome portfolios and it describes in word and color the famous collection of oriental ceramics made by the late William Thompson Walters of Baltimore. Mrs. Robert E. Ross, Mrs. Joseph H. King, and Mrs. William E. Pratt, the three daughters of the late John B. Lord, presented it to the museum. Mr. Lord, a pioneer lumberman in Chicago, was an associate of Edward E. Ayer, the first president of the Field museum.

Miss Walsh Heads Contemporary Club

The Contemporary club, that fashionable group of women that meets regularly at the Fortnightly club, yesterday elected Miss Mary Walsh its new president to succeed Miss Martha Sarver, who is ending a two year term. The elections were part of the annual spring luncheon, given this year by Miss Naomi Donnelley and her niece, Mrs. Charles C. Haffner Jr., at the International house at the University of Chicago.

Miss Walsh has been for many years an active member of the club, the name of which was changed from that of the Wednesday club because Wednesday is "nurses' day out." The younger members had to remain at home to care for their children and the senior members wanted the day free to play with their grandchildren. So some years ago it was voted to change the day of meeting to Monday and the name to the Contemporary club.

Mrs. Chester D. Tripp and Mrs. Frederic W. Upham were chosen the first and second vice presidents respectively. Mrs. Wesley M. Dixon was made the recording secretary, Mrs. Harry M. Ayres corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Harold O. Smith treasurer.

The new directorate is composed of Miss Sarver, Mrs. Edmund Andrews, Mrs. Haffner, Mrs. Hallett Thorne, Miss Mildred Wetten, Mrs. Robert Puck Bates, and Mrs. Alfred C. Tyler.

Maud Sippy Hill Bride Tomorrow

Little Nona Ann Sippy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Irvin Sippy, dressed in an old fashioned pink organdy dress with lace pantalets and mitts, will be the old attendant of her aunt, Mrs. Maud Sippy Hill, when she becomes the bride of Thomas Ross King at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The ceremony is to be performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bertram Welton Sippy, at 5615 Woodlawn avenue, by Dr. Horace J. Bridges. Bertram Welton Sippy Jr. will give his sister in marriage.

John W. Cullen Jr. of Wilmette will serve as best man for Mr. King, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. King of Wilmette. Katherine and Paul Knaplund, niece and nephew of the bridegroom and the children of Prof. and Mrs. Paul Knaplund of the University of Wisconsin, will bear the ribbons with Kenneth and Francis Sippy, the twin sons of Dr. and Mrs. Burne Sippy of La Grange. Only relatives of the bride and bridegroom and a few inti-

Some Unknown Woman

By Elisabeth Sanxay Holding

SYNOPSIS.

Dinah Allen and Jane Rosslyn are roommates in a Manhattan boarding house. Dinah, from the south, envies and imitates Jane's air of mystery and sophistication. Jack Fiske, a young boarder from Vermont, is head over heels in love with Dinah, who considers him just a hick. Dinah and Jane stroll to the corner drug store for sodas. A good looking young man in a silk hat, not quite sober, invites the girls for a ride in his car. To Dinah's surprise Jane accepts for both of them. He takes them to his home. Dinah soon finds herself left alone, with Jane's purse instead of her own. In Jane's purse Dinah finds an automatic pistol. All the lights are turned out. Dinah rushes for the door and is grabbed by strong arms. She shoots. Jane reappears. She rushes Dinah away from the scene of their host lying in a pool of blood. Next morning the papers carry the story of the murder of Philip Divine, Broadway playboy, and said there were two bullet wounds. Jane and Dinah saw a tall, dark man with a mustache as they left Philip Divine's house. Jane recognizes Jack Fiske's sterling qualities and tries to bring Dinah and him together.

INSTALLMENT VIII.

IN NEED OF A FRIEND.

In spite of himself, Fiske was touched by Jane's faithfulness and loyalty to Dinah.

"It seems to me she's got a pretty good friend—in you," he said.

"I don't know," said Jane, and her quiet voice was not quite steady. "I don't know. . . . Sometimes I think, Mr. Fiske, it would be better if Dinah and I had never met. I'm fond of her. Very. No one could help being. She's honest and good—and sweet. But—I'm too old for her."

"Good Lord! You're not as old as I am," said Fiske, not from gallantry, but because he had learned from Dinah that Jane was only 23 and because at this moment, with a strange shadow upon her pale, clear face, he thought she looked very young herself, and very unhappy.

"You can't measure age by years," said Jane, and they were both silent for a time.

"She needs friends," Jane repeated, presently. "And I hope you're going to be one to her, Mr. Fiske."

"She—doesn't want me," he said, and all his misery, his bitter disappointment were in his voice.

"Dinah doesn't know what she wants—yet," said Jane. "And if you don't mind my saying so—perhaps you don't quite understand how to manage her. If she's trying and a little—imperious—just smile and go right ahead being nice to her. Don't let her see that you care too much."

"Well, I can't help it," said he.

"You'll have to," said Jane. "She—needs friends more than you realize, Mr. Fiske. Friends who'll stand by her, through everything. Friends who won't mind her moods, and her mistakes. . . . Every one makes mistakes, Mr. Fiske."

"I know that," he said, and thought with a moment's remorse, of some of his own.

"Let's stop in here and get some dinner," said Jane. "I feel as if I couldn't stand that boarding house tonight. It's the weather. I can be perfectly good and tame in the winter, but when the spring comes, and the summer, I want to travel—somewhere, anywhere."

"Have you traveled?" asked Fiske.

"Quite a lot," she answered. "When I was really young, and went a little mad about everything I saw."

They entered the restaurant before which she had stopped and sat down at a small table together. It was a third rate little place and the menu was not inviting, yet Fiske was glad to be here just now. Where he couldn't see Dinah with her face averted, could not hear her scornful, clear voice.

Jane brought out a cigaret case and he accepted one, and lit one for her. But no other women were smoking in here and he wished she would not. He felt that, somehow, she didn't look—right. . . . With her soft, shining, beautifully dressed dark hair, her plain dark dress and hat, and she had, he thought, the air of a princess. And that made him aware that he was very far from looking like a prince. An alert, ambitious young Yankee, good looking, but not yet with the mark of the city upon him, not quite at his ease.

"Well—where have you traveled?" he asked.

"Only to the usual typical places," said Jane. "London, Paris, Switzerland—all very tourist."

"High hat——" he thought, rebelliously.

"And I want to go to Java," she said. "And Sourabaya and Bangkok——"

Her voice had changed; it was almost as if she were talking to herself; her face, too, looked as if she were dreaming, and knew the dream to be hopeless.

"Montevideo—La Guayaquil——" she said. "The names—are magic, aren't they?"

They were to him. He, too, had his dreams of far countries, of lagoons, where flamingoes were, of surf beaten islands, spice-scented . . .

"My people were seafarers," he said. "My grandfather was captain of a schooner. There were a lot of things in the house he'd brought home, long ago. A sort of carved polished cocoanut or a little stand from Guatemala . . ."

They were both silent until the dinner came; and in both of them, in that cheap little restaurant, the same nostalgia stirred, that strange homesickness for lands never seen.

It was a wretched dinner.

"Really worse than Mrs. Cotter's," said Jane.

"Much," said Fiske. For he had eaten some of Mrs. Cotter's dinners under the influence of Dinah's smile and he had thought them flawless.

"Let's see," Jane began. "My share is——"

But Fiske would have none of that.

"No!" he said. "It was good of you to come with me. Good of you to say—what you said. You'll have to let me——"

"But, please! I invited myself."

"I don't do things that way," said young Fiske. And he might have been one of his own ancestors speaking, one of those steady-eyed, hard-fisted skippers accustomed to laying down the law.

Jane made no further protest; she let him pay and they went out together into the street again.

"You'll—be patient with Dinah, won't you?" she said.

They had paused for an instant where the light from the restaurant windows made the street bright. And as they stood there a tall and very well dressed man with a little dark mustache came up to them and took off his hat.

"Jane?" he said with a smile.

She did not answer, but Fiske, to his surprise, felt her fingers grip his arm tightly.

"It's been a long time, hasn't it?" said the stranger. "I've often thought of you——"

"Yes——" she said. "I—yes—it's been a long time."

"It mustn't be so long again before we meet," said the stranger, and, still smiling, put on his hat and walked off, turned the corner out of sight.

Jane still retained her composure, but with an effort obvious enough to Fiske. And if her delicate, dark-browed face was still tranquil she betrayed herself by that grasp on his arm.

"See here!" said Fiske. "Is that some fellow you don't like—some fellow who's—bothering you?"

"Everybody has to have some—bothers," she said with an attempt at lightness.

"It seems to me," said Fiske, "that maybe you need a friend yourself."

She looked at him with a sort of wonder in her eyes.

"You're loyal and kind to Dinah," he said. "I think it's—pretty fine the way you've shouldered all the responsibility for what happened. I wish—if you want—if you need a friend—you'll call on me."

She smiled, but he was very much moved to see tears in her eyes.

"Thank you!" she said. "I shan't forget——"

Build a Block of 'Ocean' for 'Gambling Ship'

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., Mey 8.—[Special.]—A visit today to the set of "Gambling Ship" at Paramount revealed a vast stage so transformed by the art of motion picture mechanics that it realistically resembled a vista of harbor front and a stretch of sea.

The stretch of sea was real cold, wet water, deep enough to drown any luckless scoffer who might wish to test its depth.

The far end of the set was a likeness of a big passenger ship—the "Gambling Ship" of the movie title. The vessel's name was lettered on its sides and its officers' caps: "Casino del Mar." But what seemed, from our near side of the block long set to be a ship, proved to be nothing but a very realistic framework of carpentry, metal work, canvas, plaster, and paint, when approached closely.

An exciting scene was being made. a gayly dressed crowd along the rails of the pseudo ship suddenly had its attention commanded by a speeding motor launch, roaring over the studio "ocean" and veering alongside the vessel's side.

Suddenly a figure in a launch arose and hurled a smoking object up to the high passenger deck, as the launch curved away to a swift retreat. The smoking object was a bomb which, exploding on the deck, so frightened the passengers that half a dozen women fell off the gambling ship into the water.

MINUTE MYSTERY

BY H. A. RIPLEY

[Copyright: 1933: By The Chicago Tribune.]

A FISHERMAN'S TALE.

"Well, Joe, let's drop the subject of politics and concentrate on our fishing." Inspector Kelley spoke with a note of finality in his voice as he made a cast to shore.

"You'd better!" retorted Fordney. "What a fisherman! A little technique and you'd have landed that one!"

"But did I tell you, Jim, of the interesting experience I had last fourth of March?"

"What—another fish story?"

"I arrived in Washington at 9 a. m. on the day of the inauguration," the professor continued unperturbed by his friend's interruption, "and went direct to the Mayflower hotel where an invitation for breakfast with the Roosevelts awaited me. An hour later, after a necessarily hasty meal, during which I was an attentive listener, I had the pleasure of witnessing the signing of my friend's first official document. As he wrote Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, I observed the undue solemnity of his countenance. In another second, however, his wholesome smile replaced the stern expression. A few minutes later as we left the hotel . . ."

"So what?" gruffly interrupted Kelley impatiently trying to unknot his tangled line. "I'm a Republican and I don't believe that any more than some of your other fish stories. Come on—cut it out. Let's fish or we'll be eating eggs tonight instead of . . ." but the inspector's words were wasted on Fordney who had just completed a perfect cast and had a sporting bass on his line.

WHY DIDN'T KELLEY BELIEVE FORDNEY'S STORY?

Worth Equips Black Silk Organdie Evening Frock with Two Jackets

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS.—[Special.]—Worth has a little evening number in his collection that is making its way in fashionable society of Paris. It is an ensemble that has two jackets and a dress of black silk organdie. The jacket trick is being tried out every evening in Paris.

The dress itself, as illustrated, is uncomplicated. The bodice, shown upper right, is straight, slightly bloused at the waistline, and has a shoulder yoke that gives it a daylight neckline. A cluster of rhinestone flowers is placed on the right shoulder, and that's all there is to the upper part of the frock. The skirt is one of those two gore affairs that flares a bit about half way down. The real trick of the frock is the wide shirred girdle which begins on the right side, is draped tightly around the hips, and pulled around to the right side front, where it descends to the skirt hem as a panel.

The two jackets are cut exactly alike. The one on the standing figure in the foreground is made of white silk organdy. It is a plain bolero with short fitted sleeves, and the two sides of the front gathered up and knotted and hanging in long sash ends. On the shoulders Worth sets a ruffle with a heading, which falls back, while the ruffle hangs over the arms in front.

The jacket of black silk organdy is made in this way except for the sash, which is merely two rabbit ear ends.

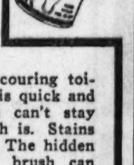
La Rabida Open House.

La Rabida sanitarium in Jackson park is to hold an open house from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon.

BANISH toilet odors!



A LITTLE Sani-Flush takes the place of scrubbing and scouring toilets. Its action is quick and positive. Odors can't stay where Sani-Flush is. Stains and streaks go. The hidden trap, where no brush can reach, is purified.

Sprinkle a little Sani-Flush in the toilet bowl (follow directions on the can). Flush the toilet—and down go germs and odors. The porcelain glistens like new. Sani-Flush can't harm plumbing.

At grocery, drug and hardware stores, 25c. (Another use for Sani-Flush—cleaning automobile radiators. See directions on can.)

PIMPLES
LARGE PORES
OILY SKIN cleared up quickly!

"IT'S wonderful," say 6,000,000 women, "how quickly it clears up skin blemishes and how little it costs!"

For years doctors have recommended Noxzema Skin Cream for skin faults. Today it's the biggest selling skin corrective in America.

Noxzema is so much more effective than ordinary creams because it's medicated—because it ends skin faults by restoring skin health. It's so much more effective than greasy salves and ointments because it is greaseless, vanishing—sinks deeper into the skin. And because you can use it not only at night, but all day under your powder, as a foundation.

Noxzema contains not only penetrating, corrective medication—but soothing oils and stimulating astringents as well. That's why it so quickly brings back baby-clear beauty, bewitching fineness, to any skin.

This week there's a special introductory offer that reduces the price of Noxzema to almost half. The regular 15-day 25¢ jar costs only 15¢. Only a penny a day for a clearer, lovelier skin. Get your jar today. This offer is for a limited time only!

Children Need Guidance by Their Parents

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

"It seems to me," said a 13 year old, "that I make a mess of things all the time these days. I waste time and let myself get behind in my school work and I seem so slow getting to bed, even if I start early, and then I'm sleepy in the mornings. And some days I'm so full of energy, and other days I'm not . . ."

"Do you know, mother," she went on, "I wish you'd plan things for me for a while. Just rule me with an iron hand."

Her mother, smiling to herself, agreed.

There are some ways in which children need routine even at 13 as a comfortable, steadying background for their lives. We rather impose it on our babies and little children as a matter of course, but some of us get a little confused and leave too much of this regulating to the children themselves as they get older.

We have a way of talking about giving our children freedom and letting them make their own decisions. But we must do these things with a great deal of judgment.

A child can't plan and manage his own time even at 13. There are some ways in which children need routine—especially physical routine. It saves everybody in the family a lot of lost motion, energy, discussion and inconvenience. It oils the wheels.

Of course, you can break routine with older children and come back to it refreshed. That doesn't mean, however, that they don't need routine as a background for living. And when I speak of routine I don't mean a cast-iron schedule.

Dr. Edward Liss, psychologist, said at a recent conference of progressive educators, that children, "beg for guidance." I believe that is true.

The round of pre-nuptial parties for Mrs. Hill was climaxed yesterday in the luncheon and shower that Mrs. Timothy Lowry had at her home in Evanston. One of the gayest and most unusual parties was given last week by Miss Betty Wales at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wales, in Winnetka. After dinner and a kitchen shower there was a treasure hunt on roller skates. Mr. King was required to make the rounds of the north shore in a coverall apron marked "King's Kitchen," the gift of "Bob" Porter. "Jack" Cullen won the treasury, a bag filled with 500 pennies.

Other hosts and hostesses have included Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Patrick Geraghty, Mrs. Porter, Sheldon Vanzwoll, and Mr. Cullen.

Mrs. Casselberry Is Married

That most unpleasant little phrase, "I told you so," was on the lips of the quid-nuncs yesterday when they learned of the marriage on Saturday of Mrs. Caryl Dunham Casselberry to Edgerton A. Throckmorton, for "they" have been saying for months that the marriage was to take place.

And "they" were right, for take place it did on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the apartment of the bride's father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Dunham of 1500 Lake Shore drive. Judge Francis S. Wilson reading the service in the presence of the family and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Throckmorton have left for a motor trip in the east and upon their return will reside in Barrington for the summer.

The former Mrs. Casselberry obtained a divorce from William E. Casselberry in February in Yerington, Nev., which is near Reno, where Mrs. Casselberry and Mrs. Lucy Norton Throckmorton lived together while they were getting their respective divorces.

The Throckmorton divorce was granted at the same time as the Casselberry one. There are three children in the Casselberry family and one in the Throckmorton family.

Mrs. Norton Throckmorton and her child have been living in Naples, Fla., since the divorce and Mr. Casselberry is abroad, and as far as we are able to determine, there is no basis for the report that they are to be married soon, although "they" may be right again.

More Amateur Painters Busy.

Thornton Wilder, who has talent in more than one artistic line—he not only writes but he plays the piano charmingly—may be the hitherto undiscovered genius the committee in charge of the Lower North Community council amateur art show hopes to unearth by their efforts! He is to paint a picture for the show, which is to be held in connection with a benefit dinner dance on May 25 at the Blue Ribbon casino at A Century of Progress, Friday night at a dinner party the John B. Allens are giving.

Miss Helen Bell and the Solomon B. Smiths are the other amateurs who will endeavor to paint pictures worthy of being displayed and perhaps even auctioned off at the show. Mrs. Philip B. Maher, who belongs to the group of architects' wives organized by Mrs. Ambrose C. Cramer to paint for the exhibit, isn't an amateur, so she, like all the other professionals, has promised to paint one with her left hand. Just why this group chose Inflation as its name, we don't know; perhaps they don't either. The members of Mrs. George J. Jaeger Jr.'s group have promised to do their pictures at their homes, but only to spend four hours at the most doing them. Mrs. John L. Cochran and Mrs. Henry Faurot Jr. have invited some of their friends to come to Mrs. Faurot's apartment on East Superior street for cocktails Friday afternoon and to daub in paint, and some of the theatrical stars now in the city are trying their hands at painting, too.

Mrs. McKinlock Starts Home.

Mrs. George A. McKinlock has left her beloved Casa Alejandro in Palm Beach and is on her way north, making the journey by motor by easy stages. Yesterday she was in Charleston enjoying the last of the azaleaes and magnolias, and Mr. McKinlock said he did not know when to expect her here, for she was going to stop in several other places for visits and delay her arrival until the weather here is good and settled.

This summer Mr. and Mrs. McKinlock are going to live in the little bungalow they built last year, which seems to be perched on the cliff overlooking Lake Michigan on their property in Lake Bluff.

Mrs. Chauncey J. Blair, who hasn't been in Chicago for three years, is arriving here next Tuesday for a visit with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey B. Blair of 70 Cedar street. Mrs. Blair has a villa at Chambesy, Switzerland, where she has been living for some years.

Mrs. Henry S. Bunting and Miss Elisabeth Bunting are leaving Nirvana in Lake Bluff tomorrow for a ten days' motor trip east. Miss Bunting will stop at Cornell to attend the house parties this coming week-end, joining her mother later.

Carpenters to Stay for Fair.

The John Alden Carpenters plan to stay here during the first month of the Fair, but early in July they will be off to Boston's north shore to spend the rest of the summer there, possibly at Pride's Crossing, where the former Mrs. Waller Borden had a house last summer.

The James R. Addingtons have moved into a house on Oakwood avenue in Lake Forest where they will be for the next year. They have been staying with Gen. and Mrs. Robert E. Wood, Mrs. Addington's parents, in Highland Park. Mrs. Addington's sister, Mrs. Calvin Fentress Jr., and her husband, who have been staying with the Fentresses in Hubbard Woods, are moving into a house on Roslyn circle in Highland Park.

On today's calendar: a meeting of the juniors of the Alliance Française at the John Goehst residence on Bellevue place with Miss Margaret Goehst as hostess. Miss Goehst will show a movie, taken with the aid of her sister, Emily, which they call "Hitting the High Spots of Europe," starting at 2:45 o'clock, after which tea will be served. Also a recital by Veronica Roasio of London for the benefit of the Visiting Nurses' association and Arden Shore at Mrs. Charles R. Robinson's "House of Memories" this afternoon at 4.

A number of south side matrons will motor out to the Chicago Home for Convalescent Women and Children on Washington boulevard this noon for the annual spring luncheon of the junior board. This home and La Rabida are the only two convalescent homes in the Chicago area. Hostesses for the party today will be Mrs. Walter Monroe, Mrs. Alan Lockard, Mrs. F. David Meacham, Mrs. Philip Grassell, Mrs. Harold Cudney, Mrs. Rollin D. Weary, and Mrs. Paul C. Chapan.

Lazy Appetite Reveals Lack of Vitamin A

And Indicates Necessary Diet Changes.

(This is the second in a week's series of popular vitamin chats by Miss Meade. The Tribune vitamin and mineral charts and menus explaining the main sources, benefits of the vitamin and important minerals, and the best method of cookery to retain them, together with a week's health-boosting menus, will be sent you on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

BY MARY MEADE.

Who, what, why, and when is vitamin A?

Yesterday we got the whole family of vitamins definitely located among the ranks of good food. You'll remember we had the starches, sugars, and fats classified among the "energy givers"; the proteins, minerals, and roughage lined up under the head of "body-building and regulating foods," and the six known vitamins—A, B, C, D, E, and G—making up the "protective foods."

But there wasn't time to talk about any one of these vitamin health-boosters in detail. So today we will discuss the first in line—vitamin A.

Have you been flirting with colds this winter—always in a state of discomfort? Has Johnny failed to shoot up to the proper length this last year? Then take a look at your three meals a day and see if all winter you have fueled your family with quantities of dairy products, eggs, green or yellow vegetables, and liver. Have you? Don't mistake me. The absence of those foods, which are all rich in vitamin A, will not cause a cold. A cold is a germ disease. But it will so lower the resistance of our bodies that the mischievous germs can poke right in and get to work.

For vitamin A is the anti-infective vitamin. Also it's the vitamin that is absolutely necessary for growth, physical fitness at every age, and successful reproduction. If we are finding too little of it in our foods we will notice it in lazy appetites, upset digestions, and the start of trouble in the region of our eyes, ears, noses, throats, lungs, kidneys, and skins.

On the other hand plenty of vitamin A foods taken in keep the tissues in these sensitive regions properly moist and healthy.

Then about the way we must treat vitamin A foods. Fortunately they are not overly delicate or temperamental. We may cook them at ordinary temperatures (but not extreme heats) without losing any appreciable amount of the vitamin. If the food is exposed to air vitamin A is gradually diminished.

Now let's see what vitamin A will look like in a tabloid:

VITAMIN A.

Main benefits:

1. Promotes growth and maintains general health.
2. Helps to protect ears, eyes, nose, throat, lungs, kidneys, and skin from infective diseases
3. Peps up appetites and helps along digestion.

Main sources:

1. Cod liver oil.
2. Butter.
3. Egg yolk.
4. Cream.
5. Whole milk.
6. Liver.
7. Vegetables: Green cabbage, green lettuce, spinach, other green leaves, yellow corn, carrots, sweet potatoes, yellow turnips, tomatoes.

Stability:

Tomorrow vitamins B and G to play dual leads!

Jackets Stay in Spotlight of Style Interest

Three-quarter Length Type Are Newest.

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Never, in the interesting history of fashion, have the designers spent so much thought, time, and genius on the detachable jackets or coats as they have this year. Dresses, gowns, and frocks were merely the contrasting background for jackets. You've heard about separate crash jackets of white, offwhite and colors, you can now buy them in fascinating assortments, from the fitted trig bell hop affairs with or without fanciful sleeves, short or long, to the sloppy loose smock like numbers that have been copied from the very ample blouses worn by picturesque French peasants.

Three-quarter length models are the newest arrivals and offer some startling possibilities in color contrast for summer seersuckers and other cotton tub frocks. They button high and very simply around the neckline, having very loose and wide sleeves and a pocket now and then. If you cannot find exactly what you need, ready to wear out, you will find some intriguing new materials for just such jackets or coats . . . any amateur could easily and quickly fashion a knockout model in a day or so.

A new shantung linen with an amazing ability to keep smooth and unwrinkled comes in white, pale gray, a nice shade of soft pink and yellow, in one shop, while another store shows a new natural color crash and some good looking dull black that is stunning.

Other new costumes show some gay and charming striped three-quarter length silk coats that are extravagantly eye-filling . . . they look like Roman striped ribbon, most of them, and what they do for thick crinkled white silk frocks as a 1933 contrast is something to get excited about. Gay green, brilliant streaks of orange combined with cobalt blue and scarlet against white or deep blue backgrounds are some of the more effective combinations, while varied stripes of black and gray are used dramatically with white backgrounds in another coat.

New evening jackets, coats or wraps, are featuring lovely shades of satin and crisp swishing taffetas . . . the newest arrivals are plain colors, with lovely powder pink tints predominating. You can wear this new shade of pink with practically every color, hence its instant popularity . . . it frosts a black net dance, tops a candy stripe organza and provides the sentimental accent for frilled chiffon and dimities and ruffled sheers and new flounced dotted swisses.

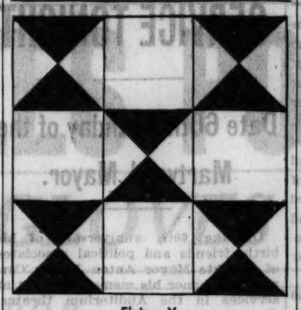
"Flying X" One of Simplest of All Quilt Blocks



Flying X.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"Flying X" is just about the simplest, easiest-to-piece pattern that a quilter could select. A smart combination of colors will contribute much to its effectiveness. The simplicity of it makes this pattern ideal for a boy's or man's room. For you historians—the origin of Flying X dates back to 1800 in Connecticut.

For a quilt pattern of this design, send five cents in stamps or coin to Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, printing your name and address clearly. Or call at the Tribune Public Service Office, One South Dearborn street.

Gray Haired Folk Need to Study Colors

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

As promised yesterday today we'll advance a few suggestions for the gray haired woman who, unless she relies on flattering color of dress and makeup, will not be nearly so effective as she might be.

Believe, all of you gray haired women, that you have the makings of a real asset in those silvering locks of yours. For the sheer psychology of it, believe it. Avoid the common habit of "letting go" of yourself, so to speak, with the onset of the graying period. The only way you can avoid this letting go is to train yourself to believe that those graying hairs of yours may be converted into a real asset.

I'm not just talking airy persiflage. I mean it. Time and again, I've seen women who never registered anything to speak of in a pictorial way until their hair turned and with its turning came a more fastidious care of the hair, its dressing, and a becomingness of clothes.

As said yesterday there is a particularly fortunate type of gray and graying hair that lends a striking note to its owner. It belongs to the woman with dark eyes and whose hair formerly was black, or very dark brown. The other group, whose hair turns from light or medium brown, blond, or red into a dingy shade and whose coloring is weak, eyes not bright, must get right down to the business of making themselves over with dress and cosmetic coloring that flatters.

In dress they should avoid gray like the plague. It does cruel things to both hair and skin. Black is only good on them in proportion to its rich quality and the kind of flattering makeup used. Certain greens and purples are deadly.

Blues are good, if you keep off the gray-blues. Periwinkle blue is good, also lavender with pink in it. Then there's a whole gamut of soft rose shades, and brick and burgundy.

Colors with pink in them are generally a safe bet, with, of course, the right touch of rouge and powder and lipstick. The conservatism of women of this age often orders them to use the palest powders, often white [yes, even yet], which is bad.

"NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS"

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited letter:

"Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the good it has done me that I feel I must write and tell you of it.

"For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated now for seven weeks."—Mrs. Louise Johnson, 1433 Forest Street, Denver, Colorado.

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further promote regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the wastes.

Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines—often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

VEGETABLES

GREEN PEAS ON TOAST

Served After the French Manner

3 tablespoons butter	1 bunch cleaned parsley
1 tablespoon flour	1½ teaspoons sugar
2 cups fresh green peas	½ teaspoon salt
½ dozen tiny white onions	Pepper to taste
1 cup water	1 egg, well beaten
	2 tablespoons cream

Melt half the butter in a sauce pan and stir in the flour. Add the water and then the peas, whole onions and the bunch of parsley which has been thoroughly washed and the stems tied together. Let this combination simmer for about ¾ hour or until the onions are tender. Now take out the parsley and discard (most of the flavor has been extracted). Add the seasoning, sugar, egg, cream and the rest of the butter. Simmer again until thickened. Serve on fresh buttered toast. Serves 6.

Clip on the dotted line, mount on a card; mounted, the recipe just fits the new Mary Meade Recipe File . . . If you haven't one of these files, you may obtain one (containing 133 delightful recipes) at the Tribune Public Service Office, One South Dearborn street. Price 26 cents. By mail, 34 cents.

"I've learned how to Flatter My Legs... smooth-fitting stockings give me this beauty"

"I find washing my stockings in Lux makes them fit better than when I rubbed them with cake soap. My legs look even slimmer and more graceful than when they're bare. And I almost never have runs now!" ELEANOR FRENCH

EVERY girl likes to have lovely, trim-looking legs. It's easy—if you're careful to keep stockings always smooth-fitting by preserving their elasticity.

Lux is specially made to preserve the elasticity silk has when new—that wonderful live quality that makes stockings fit like a second skin. Rubbing with cake soap . . . washing with ordinary soaps containing harmful alkali . . . weaken elasticity. Then stockings tend to sag and wrinkle. The lifeless threads break easily, too. The slightest strain may start runs.

Mrs. R. Dingman washed 408 items with 1 box of Lux:

40 pairs stockings
6 cotton dresses
8 suits underwear
48 table napkins
16 panties
10 slips
4 girdles
8 pajamas

HOSPITALS HERE TO HOLD AN OPEN HOUSE ON FRIDAY

Celebrate Birthday of Miss Nightingale.

Chicago hospitals will observe National Hospital day next Friday, the birthday anniversary of the renowned Florence Nightingale. All visiting rules will be suspended for the occasion.

Due to the financial stress through which hospitals all over the country have been passing, it was emphasized yesterday by Miss Veronica Miller, superintendent of Henrotin hospital and chairman of the national observance, every effort will be made by individual institutions to acquaint the public with their problems and prospects. In many cities centralized programs will be staged, and national broadcasts of addresses will be a part of the proceedings, all under the auspices of the American Hospital association.

Bernays to Give Address.

In Chicago the day will be marked by entertainments at the various hospitals. Henrotin will have as its guests the officials of the American Hospital association and Lewis Bernays, consul general for Great Britain in Chicago, who is an ardent admirer of Florence Nightingale and will give an address on her life.

Matthew O. Foley, magazine editor who originated the observance of the Nightingale anniversary which evolved into National Hospital day, will be among the guests, with Mrs. Foley. The program will begin at 8:30 p. m.

At Mercy hospital the new Institute of Radiation Therapy will be blessed in a ceremony in the amphitheater at 2:30 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. Edward F. Hoban, D. D., of Rockford will officiate at the service, which will be followed by brief addresses by Bishop Hoban, Dr. L. D. Moorhead, dean of the Loyola university school of medicine, and Dr. Herbert Schmitz, director of the institute.

Visitors' Tea at Wesley.

Wesley Memorial hospital will have a reception under auspices of the women's auxiliary from 2 until 3:30 o'clock, when Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf of the Methodist Episcopal church will speak. Visitors then will be conducted through the hospital and tea will be served. Mrs. W. H. Dangel of Oak Park, head of the auxiliary, and Mrs. C. H. Balch of Evanston, secretary, are in charge of arrangements, together with Miss Bertha L. Knapp, director of the nursing school, and Miss Polly Fesler, superintendent of the hospital.

Governors of many states have issued proclamations calling attention to the day. Gov. Horner yesterday advised Miss Miller that he was preparing to issue such a proclamation, and it is anticipated Mayor Kelly will follow suit for the city.

Mrs. Roosevelt to Speak.

National radio broadcasts will include a program at the Maternity Center association in New York at which Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Miss Frances Perkins, secretary of labor, will be present. The Grand Duchess Marie of Russia will speak at 6:15 o'clock Friday evening on her experiences as a nurse during the world war, with a comparison of conditions then with the present situation in hospitals of America.

Sponsor of W. J. Bryan Dies at Age of 91 Years

Sandoval, Ill., May 8.—(AP)—Henry R. Hall, 91, who is credited with launching William Jennings Bryan on his political career, died at his home here yesterday. He was prominent in the Democratic party for the last sixty years. He is reported to have introduced Bryan at the time when the latter made his first political speech.

ASK JURY TRIAL IN BOMBING OF BARBER; GET BONDS DOUBLED

Judge Joseph H. McGarry in the South State street court yesterday doubled the bonds of Frank Bishop, 54 years old, 4729 North Winchester avenue, vice president of the Master Barbers' Association of Chicago, Inc., and Joseph Paullen, 28 years old, 4954 North St. Louis avenue. Both had demanded a jury trial on charges of intimidation. Judge McGarry termed the request "deliberate delay," and pointed out that the defendants previously had promised to be ready for trial yesterday.

Bishop's bond was raised to $8,000 and Paullen's to $2,000. Judge McGarry ordered them taken into custody until new bonds are scheduled, and set hearing in the case for May 15.

The two were arrested two weeks ago on complaint of Fred Haim, a barber at 3118 North Clark street, who said that stench bombs were exploded in his shop and windows were broken when he refused to join their association.

SEEK INDICTMENT OF TORTURE GANG SUSPECT TODAY

Youth in Wheaton Jail; Lacks $75,000 Bond.

Indictments will be sought today before the Du Page county grand jury in Wheaton against Paul de Joseph, 19 years old, 1124 Milton avenue, who has been identified as one of three gunmen who invaded a farm house near Wheaton on April 26, tortured a woman, then bound her and five others and escaped with $110 and two shot guns. De Joseph is being held in the Du Page county jail, as he has been unable to raise a bond of $75,000.

The woman tortured is Mrs. Sophia Kersten whose farm is at Geneva road and Stoddard avenue, near Wheaton. She was in her home with her daughter, Irene, 17 years old, and son, George, 19 years, when a woman companion of the bandits entered to purchase eggs.

Woman Leads Torture Gang.

Within a few minutes after she left she returned with the three bandits, who carried drawn revolvers.

Mrs. Kersten and her children were bound with adhesive tape. One of the bandits started to tear the clothing off the daughter but was restrained by his companions. Mrs. Kertsen revealed the hiding place of $30 which the bandits took. When she insisted that was all she had in the home the bandits removed her shoes and stockings and applied cigaret stubs to her feet until she told of another $80 hidden in the home.

Neighbors Bound Also.

During the robbery Walter Campbell, 20 years old; John Lamars, 19, and his brothers, Albert, 21, neighbors of the Kerstens, entered the home. They also were bound. Campbell worked his bonds loose. When this was discovered by the bandits Campbell was beaten with the butt of a revolver and tied again.

De Joseph was identified by George Kersten and Campbell at a police showup in Chicago two days later. He denied any part in the robbery. He was charged with assault with intent to commit a felony and two charges of robbery with a gun.

Argentina Demands Reds Be Deprived of Civic Rights

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, May 8.—Profession of the communist faith is sufficient cause to deprive a man of his civic rights, according to the Argentine attorney general. He asked the Supreme court today to cancel the naturalization papers of Angel Rosenblat, who is a member of communist internationale and "an active propagandist of subversive doctrines."

HONOR CERMAK'S MEMORY AT BIG SERVICE TONIGHT

Date 60th Birthday of the Martyred Mayor.

On the 60th anniversary of his birth, friends and political associates of the late Mayor Anton Joseph Cermak will honor his memory tonight at services in the Auditorium theater, Congress street and Wabash avenue. Postmaster General Farley, Governor Horner and Mayor Kelly will be among the speakers.

Ald. Henry Sonnenschein, [22d] secretary to the late mayor for more than 20 years and chairman of the memorial committee, has arranged to accomodate 5,500 in the theater. If there is an overflow crowd, amplifiers will bring the services to the street.

Officials on Platform.

The city council, the county board of commissioners, over which Mr. Cermak presided for many years, and most of the officialdom of Chicago and Cook county will sit on the platform behind Patrick A. Nash, who succeeded the mayor as head of the local Democracy. Mr. Nash will preside at the services.

Starting at 8 p. m., the ceremonies are expected to last two hours. The program follows:

INVOCATION—Bishop Bernard J. Sheil.
ADDRESS—Attorney General Otto Kerner.
GOUNOD'S "AVE MARIA"—Mme. Rosalinda Morini.
ADDRESS—Dr. Preston Bradley.
VERDI'S "REQUIEM"—John Pane-Gasser.
ADDRESS—Mayor Kelly.
ADDRESS—Gov. Horner.
"LEAD KINDLY LIGHT"—A Cappella choir directed by Noble Cain.
ADDRESS—Postmaster General Farley.
HANDEL'S "LARGO"—Orchestra.
BENEDICTION—Rabbi Gerson B. Levi.

W-G-N will be on the air, direct from the auditorium, from 9 to 10 o'clock, broadcasting all the addresses of Gov. Horner, Mayor Kelly, and Postmaster General Farley.

The orchestra for the services will be furnished by James C. Petrillo, president of the Chicago Federation of Musicians.

As at the public funeral held for the mayor at the Chicago Stadium, leaders of all faiths will take part in the memorial—Bishop Sheil for the Catholic church, Dr. Bradley for the Protestants, and Rabbi Levi for the Jewish faith.

GIFTS TO HUNGRY CHILDREN'S FUND IN DROP TO $5.30

Contributions to the Hungry School Children's fund dropped to $5.30 yesterday, an amount so small as to cause the fund administrators considerable concern. However, the daily totals seesawed between extreme lows and highs all last week and it is hoped that the end of this week will show a fair average for the fund.

Yesterday's gifts will give more than 100 needy children a free lunch at some public school, but this is only a very small percentage of the 10,000 children who depend on the fund daily for their noonday meal.

Yesterday's contributions were sent by the employés of the "Board of Supervising Engineers," who sent $2.30; Matilda M. McKinlay, $2; and I. McM., who sent $1. Gifts should be sent to the cashier of THE TRIBUNE, Tribune Tower.

BUSINESS AIDS DRIVE TO EXPOSE RELIEF FRAUDS

One hundred and fifty-one Chicago business houses are assisting the emergency relief commission to ferret out persons who are fraudulently receiving public charity.

These concerns have supplied relief headquarters with lists of all their employés and the dates on which they began work. These lists will be checked against relief records. In this way it can be determined if any employés of those firms are charity beneficiaries.

Arrangements for this checking system were made by George W. Rossetter, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, and J. W. Berkthold, vocational director.

IRELAND PICKS TEAM FOR GOLDEN GLOVES BOUTS

ERIN'S FIGHTING SONS RALLY FOR CHICAGO BATTLE

Eager to Show U. S. Irish Can Punch.

BY JERRY CURRAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, Ireland, May 8.—Eight young men now are preparing to invade America to prove that Irishmen really can fight. For centuries the sons of Erin have held the reputation of being ever ready to punch any man's nose under reasonable provocation, either formally or informally, in the ring or out of it.

Many a famous boxer has fought under an Irish name when in reality he was a member of some less pugnacious race. But there can be no question about the nationality of the eight young fellows who are going to Chicago to fight THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE's Golden Gloves team at Soldiers' field Aug. 2, which will be part of the World's Fair athletic program. Every one of these boys has a clear right to bear the name of Connolly or Kennedy or Hearns or O'Driscoll, as the case may be. Each one is a genuine Irishman, ready to show the world what a son of Erin can do with his fists in a fair fight.

Represent All of Ireland.

They have won the right to represent Ireland in the international match by surviving a long series of eliminations in cities, towns and crossroad villages throughout the island. No fighter from the glens of Antrim or the fields of Armagh or the wharves of Belfast could prove himself a better man than Magill of the Royal Ulster constabulary, who won the middleweight championship. And no boxer from the rugged mountains of Kerry or the green hills of Wicklow or the rocky coast of Galway could conquer O'Driscoll of the Garda Siothchana for the heavyweight championship.

These men were picked not merely from the Irish Free State, but from northern Ireland as well. Every fighter in the four ancient divisions of Ireland—Ulster, Munster, Connaught, and Leinster—had a chance to show what he could do.

Some represent the army, others the civic guards or Garda Siothchana, and still others are from some of the numerous branches of the Irish Amateur Boxing association.

Boxing Interest Grows.

This association, which sponsored the eliminations, has had a great influence upon the development of boxing in Ireland during the last few years. Four years ago it had only 25 branches and totaled about 300 members. But now it has expanded to include 100 branches containing a total of about 3,500 members.

The Civic Guards also have had much to do with increasing the popularity of the sport and many boxing clubs now flourish in this organization. The army was quick to follow the example set by the guards and in a short time boxing became one of the favorite pastimes of the soldiers.

The Irish Amateur Boxing association consolidated and centralized the efforts of the small clubs which were struggling to carry on in various parts of the country. The sport has become so popular recently that little difficulty is encountered in organizing new branches. At Williamstown in Galway, for instance, an attempt was made to form a club and within two weeks 68 members had signed up.

International Bouts Stimulus.

It is generally recognized that Irish boxing now needs nothing quite so much as the stimulation of international competition. The bouts in Chicago Aug. 2 will provide that impetus.

Schulte Gets Four Hits at St. Louis; Leads in Big Six

Fred Schulte, Washington outfielder, was right at home in the Browns' park yesterday, pounding out four hits in six times at bat, to climb back into first place in the big six and the American league. The former St. Louis player's slugging added 22 points to his batting average, boosting it to .395.

Sam West, who figured in the deal that sent Schulte to the Senators, got two hits and added one point to his batting average. Ben Chapman also gained two points.

In the National league half of the sextet the two leaders, Hartnett and Frederick, were idle, while Traynor lost 20 points when he failed to get a hit in four times at bat against the Braves' pitching. The standing:

IRON SHOTS MAKE OR BREAK GOLFER; HIT BALL EASILY

Cyril Walker Gambles Fame and Fortune on His No. 1.

[This is the sixth of a series of articles on golf by Tommy Armour, who recently came to Chicago as professional at the Medinah Country club. Armour has been ranked among the world's leading players for nearly a decade, having won every major title within the reach of a professional.]

BY TOMMY ARMOUR.

In the last ten years, since golf has become one of America's major sports, the writers have so dramatized every great shot played by the famous players that they are known throughout the golfing world. This is true, I believe, with the exception of the momentous and important shot played by Cyril Walker at the 16th hole at Oakland Hills, in the last round when he won the 1924 national open championship.

In the opinion of the players themselves, this shot goes down in history as the greatest ever played under the conditions. Cyril Walker, a very small man as golfers go and weighing only 115 pounds, was undoubtedly one of the finest players in the game. He tried for many years to win the big crown, but it always seemed to slip out of his grasp. Being the hard working and studious type of professional who never knew the meaning of the word "quit," he kept plugging and working at his golf game until finally his day of glory arrived on that memorable day in 1924.

Practices Two Hours to Straighten Out Game.

Just before the championship Walker had been playing beautifully and was picked by many who understood the game to be a likely winner. In fact, a friend of mine backed him for a considerable wager, against any individual in the field. As often happens in the golf game, the very evening before the tournament started Walker slipped out of his smooth running game and developed some peculiar kink. He asked his dear friend, Paddy Doyle, to look him over and to try to find out what was wrong. After two hours of work on the practice tee, he appeared to be straightened out and awaited the start of the tournament, ready to do his best.

His play in the championship was sensational and his driving was the talk of the tournament. Spectators flocked in thousands to watch this tiny fellow drive balls such prodigious distances that the supposed long hitters were left far behind. His iron play, also, was very effective and his putting approached perfection. He was near the top from the first hole on, playing steadily, calmly, and very carefully, with a great deal of confidence. Walker had that certain "something" about him that made you feel he was going to win. What this is, it is difficult to define, but it is something that to the experienced watcher is always obvious. Perhaps it is his walk, or the way he studies the shot, or the smoothness of his swing, or it may be all three. At any rate, it is there.

Bunkers, Water, and the Cup 185 Yards Away.

When he reached the sixteenth tee, Walker needed par to win by two strokes, but two of the holes are extremely difficult pars, and on the other hole anything may happen. After Walker drove from the sixteenth tee, this was exactly the situation. He was faced with the necessity of making an iron shot of about 185 yards on a slightly downhill lie. The last 80 or 90 yards of the hole were over water. Behind the green was a deep bunker, and the green sloped from the bunker towards the water. Although the water cut into both the left and right sides of the green, there was still another bunker on the left and the green was lightning fast.

That was the physical opposition facing Walker, and there was in addition, the mental obstacle. If he failed to hit the shot perfectly, his ball was in the pond. He then had to drop out for the loss of one stroke, and was still left with an extremely difficult mashie-niblick shot to put the ball on the green to get a six. The likelihood,

BROKER'S TIP IS READY TO RUN IF HE HAD A RIDER

MeadeBarred for30Days; Fisher Also Set Down.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Baltimore, Md., May 8.—Broker's Tip, the Kentucky Derby winner, arrived here today to fill his engagement in the $25,000 Preakness stakes to be run on Saturday afternoon at Pimlico.

Ladysman, Pomponius, Mr. Khayyam, Kerry Patch, Good Advice, Inlander, and Dark Winter were others from the Derby field which pulled into the old Hillside course at the same time. Head Play, beaten a nose by Broker's Tip in the Derby, is making the trip alone and is scheduled to arrive tomorrow morning.

It doesn't seem likely that either Donald Meade, jockey on Broker's Tip in the Derby, or Herbert Fisher, who rode Head Play, will be allowed to ride in the Preakness.

Riders Draw Suspensions.

Both were suspended for thirty days by the stewards at Churchill Downs today for their rough riding in the breath taking stretch drive of the Derby. Fisher was set down for another five days for striking Meade after the race.

It has been announced that A. Robertson will succeed Fisher as the jockey on Head Play in the Preakness. Owner Bradley had expected to see Meade wearing his colors on Broker's Tip. Yet soon after the ruling of the Kentucky stewards suspending both boys for thirty days, except for stake race engagements, was received here, Matt Daiger, secretary of the Maryland Jockey club, said suspension automatically prevented Meade from participating in the sport at Pimlico.

Owner Edward R. Bradley was reported to be en route here from Kentucky to protest the Maryland ruling. If the protest is not allowed he will obtain another jockey to ride Broker's Tip. The report was that Johnny Gilbert might ride Broker's Tip if the Maryland Jockey club persists in keeping Meade on the ground.

Two Quoted at 3 to 1.

According to the betting here today Broker's Tip isn't a red hot favorite to win the Preakness. He was quoted at 3 to 1 and Head Play was held at the same odds. The Coe entry of Ladysman and Pomponius was at 4 to 1. Keep Out, a Maryland colt which did not start in the Derby, was mustering some backers at 8 to 1.

The Preakness may attract as many as fifteen starters, it was predicted tonight.

The jinx on jockeys continued to have the upper hand today when G. H. [Pete] Bostwick, wealthy young gentleman rider, sustained a broken collarbone and lesser injuries when his mount, Creek, slipped and fell during the running of the steeplechase race at Pimlico this afternoon.

Is Fourth Accident.

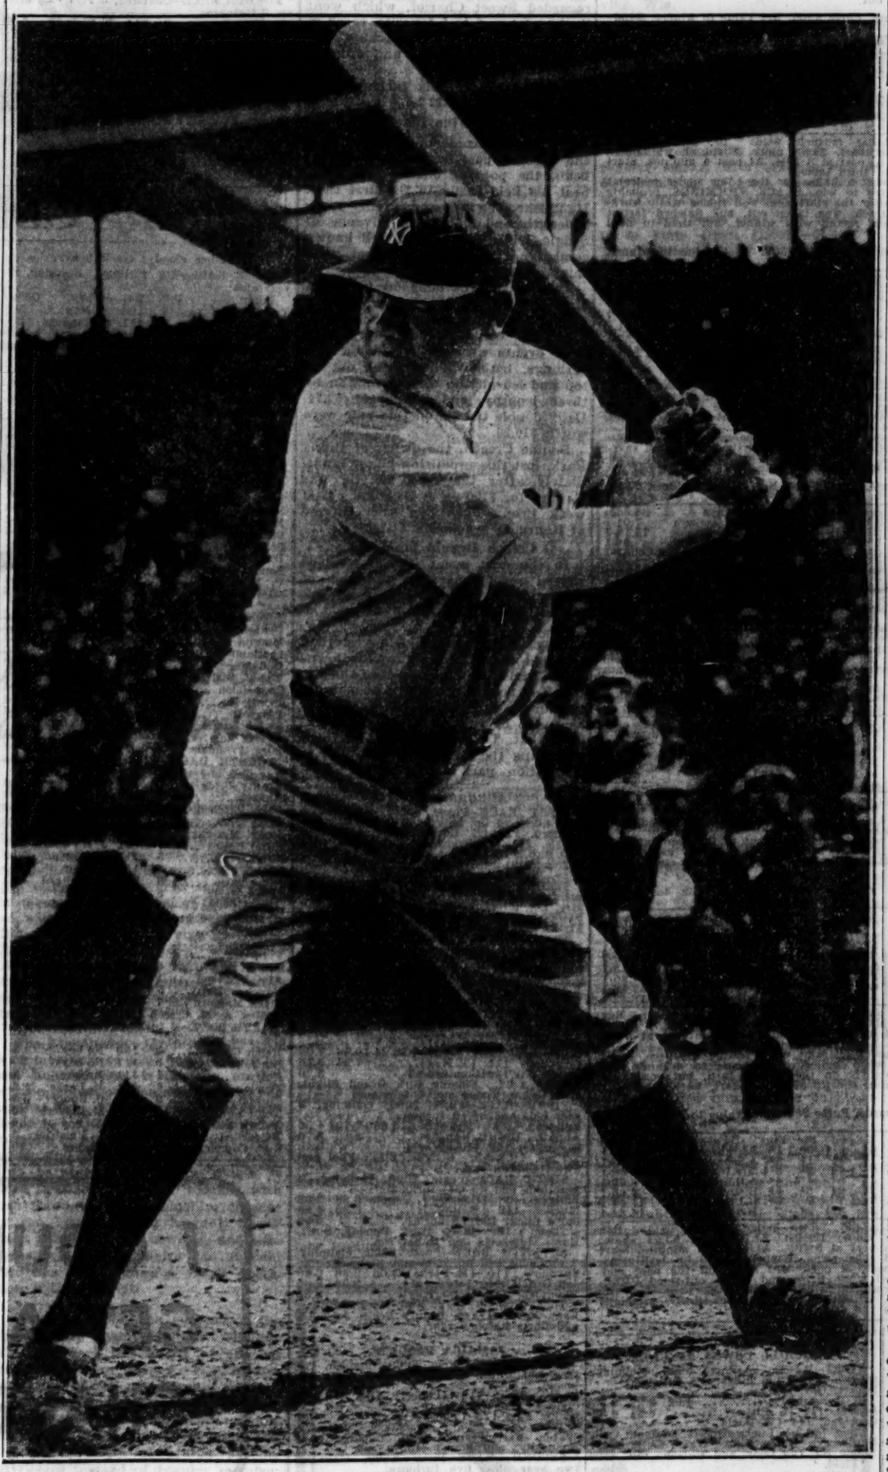
Bostwick's accident is the fourth since last Thursday, when Buddy Hanford was thrown from his mount and received fatal injuries. The next day two steeplechase riders were injured in spills, one of them, Harry Hunt, suffering a dislocated cervical vertebra when a horse he was schooling pitched him from the saddle.

Bostwick has been riding for a number of years in England and America. He rode John Hay Whitney's Dusty Foot in the Grand National at Aintree, England, last March. Dusty Foot fell.

61 Pound King Mackerel Hooked; Claim New Record

Palm Beach, Fla., May 8.—(AP)—Catch of a 61 pound king mackerel in the gulf stream near here by Albert R. Hakes, Dunkirk, N. Y., golfer, was asserted by sportsmen today to have set a record. Basing their claim on records of the Pflueger company of Akron, anglers declared the previous record king mackerel weighed 57 pounds. Hakes' catch was 63 inches long.

ANY HOMERS TODAY, BABE?



This may be the day Babe Ruth hits a home run. Perhaps he'll hit two home runs. But White Sox fans are confident that old Sam Jones will keep the Babe and his slugging companion, Lou Gehrig, in check this afternoon in the second game of the series at Comiskey park. Jones always has been a hoodoo for the champions. Yesterday, against Ted Lyons, Ruth collected two singles and Gehrig got a double and single. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

VOSMIK, BATTING EYE LOST, GOES TO SPECIALIST

Cleveland, O., May 8.—(AP)—Joe Vosmik, Cleveland outfielder, who is rated a .300 hitter, is going to an eye specialist, as a result of his poor showing at the plate this season.

Out of 80 times at bat Vosmik has hit safely only 10 times, for an average of .125. A specialist who examined his eyes found each of them "four points off," which means only slightly defective vision.

EARNSHAW SENT HOME BY A'S TO GET INTO SHAPE

Detroit, Mich., May 8.—(AP)—George Earnshaw, who left suddenly for Philadelphia today after the first game of the Athletics' series with the Detroit Tigers, had been called off because of cold weather was sent home to "get into condition," according to Connie Mack, manager of the club.

The veteran Earnshaw has suffered more than the youngsters thus far this year because of the bad weather encountered by the Philadelphia club, which has had more than its share of rain and frigid breezes. Earnshaw has not pitched since April 24, Mack said, and he feels that Earnshaw will have a better chance to get in shape by working out in the mornings in Philadelphia weather.

BROOKLYN FALLS FOR TWIN BILL IDEA; CUBS IDLE

Richmond to Pitch Today; Two Games Tomorrow.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, May 8.—All hail the double header, neighbors, and listen to the merry click of the turnstiles, the bargain click that is to be the salvation of the national pastime in these parlous times.

Another double bill went on the Cubs' loaded slate today when the Brooklyn management decided it was too cold for the Dodgers to play the Cubs in the opener. The decision was not reached until shortly before game time. Then it was announced that two games will be played Wednesday.

Usually games are played after the gates are opened, unless it rains, of course. But a thousand or so fans were in the park when today's action was taken. The fans had rain checks, so they'll be back, and the double header will attract, it is thought, a good additional turnout day after to morrow.

It's Getting to Be a Habit.

Wednesday's affair will be the fourth Cub double header in 11 days and there is every indication that they will play two games in Cincinnati next Sunday. They will play a double header with Boston in Chicago on Sunday, May 28; another double header with Pittsburgh in Chicago on Sunday, June 4, and still another against Cincinnati in Cincinnati on June 11. At present there is none arranged between June 11 and July 25, but give 'em time.

The fact that double headers in six cities yesterday drew 205,000 customers, with Pittsburgh-Philadelphia and Philadelphia-St. Louis idle, did nothing to discourage the Sunday double header vogue.

The game scheduled for Saturday, May 27, between Boston and Cubs at Wrigley field will be put over a day in deference to the opening of A Century of Progress, President William Veeck announced today.

Veeck Likes the Idea.

"It is my theory that the only persons who have money to spend on ball games are the ones who have steady jobs. A man with a steady job isn't going to take a single day off unless he has to. But he does have Sundays off and, after bearing down all week, as he never did in the old days, he wants his recreation in large packages the one day a week he can get it.

"The Sunday double header is dedicated to the man with a steady job, who works six days a week. There are plenty of fans who have plenty of time to go to ball games during the week but they haven't the money to spare. Week day crowds generally are going to be smaller this year. Sunday is going to be baseball day. Those 205,000 at six major league parks yesterday was a significant testimonial to the current trend in amusement patronage."

In the Cub single game tomorrow Beryl Richmond will be opposed by Walter Beck. Wednesday Bush and Root will hook up with Clark and Benge.

TED'S BAT O. K., BUT ARM LACKS USUAL CUNNING

All New Yorkers Hit Except Lazzeri.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The New York Yankees are the same old bone crushers. They dropped around yesterday at Comiskey park for their first call of the year, and to prove they hadn't exhausted themselves while mauling the Cubs in the world series last fall, they flattened the ambitious White Sox by the easy margin of 7 to 3. And what made it worse than an ordinary beating was that Ted Lyons, the ace of the south side staff, was involved.

The usually peerless Lyons did a few things remarkably well, but his pitching wasn't among them. With his bat he helped to make Don Brennan, one of Joe McCarthy's portly newcomers, appear like an everyday right hander. Ted ripped off two doubles and a single. He also fielded in a fashion that kept the beating from being more painful. But he couldn't fool the Yanks consistently, and even went so far as to aid them in their scoring. Two of their runs grew from passes and two from wild pitches.

Hurray! No Homers.

If keeping the Yanks from exercising their almost exclusive rights to home runs means anything, Lyons probably is entitled to a little more credit. The maulers, notably Mr. Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, didn't slap anything that came even close to passing over the barriers. But while concentrating on the suppression of homers Lyons overlooked the danger of singles and doubles. These caused all his troubles, and all but one of the visitors cut in for at least a small share of the mauling. Tony Lazzeri was the only one who neglected his average.

The large Brennan started as if his tenure was to be restricted to a few innings. He was pounded for eight hits in the first five sessions and three runs resulted. Then he suddenly squared away and was such a tough customer that only two additional hits were recorded in the four concluding innings. Al Simmons collected two of the numerous hits which occurred early, so it is possible that he is gradually breaking out of the slump which has had him shackled for the last two weeks.

One Hit, Two Runs.

You can call it luck or efficiency, but either way the Yanks scored two runs in the opening inning on one hit. Lyons' generosity made this possible. He walked Combs and Sewell, the first pair to face him. Ruth singled to left and Combs ran home. Then Lyons regained his composure. Gehrig grounded into a force out of Ruth at second. Sewell, who had taken third on the Babe's hit, scored on the play. Three strikes for Chapman and Lazzeri's force of Gehrig closed the inning.

The Sox weren't slow about getting themselves back on even terms. Brennan handed a pass to Hayes in the first inning and Haas rolled into a force out. Swanson sacrificed. Simmons came through with a single to left, scoring Haas. Appling followed with a double, Simmons stopping at third, but Kress couldn't assist. Then Grube singled in the second, moved up a peg on a balk, and carried in the tying run on Lyons' double to left center. This happened with only one out, but Hayes and Haas succumbed on grounders.

Yankees Get Going.

Ruth's single was the only hit surrendered by Lyons in the first four innings, but he was nicked for two in the fifth and a run resulted. It started with a pass to Dickey and Crosetti's single to right. Brennan tried to sacrifice, but Kress picked up the bunt in time to force Dickey at third. After Combs' roller to Appling had forced Brennan, Sewell slashed a single to right to score Crosetti. Ruth then walked and Gehrig was suppressed on a tap to Dykes.

The Sox tied the score again in the fifth at 3 to 3 on singles by Swanson and Simmons and a force play, but the deadlock was short lived. The Yanks bobbed up with another run in the sixth. Chapman hit a two bagger to right, dashed to third on Lazzeri's infield out, and ran home when Lyons was guilty of a wild pitch.

A pass to Dykes and Lyons' single with one gone gave the Sox a chance to retrieve the run in their half of the same inning, but Hayes fanned and Haas rolled gently to Brennan.

Yankees Increase Lead.

The Yanks waited until one was out in the eighth before formulating plans for two more runs, putting them three to the good. Dickey lined a single over short and pulled up at third on Crosetti's double down the left field line. Lyons promptly let go with his second wild pitch of the day, Dickey scoring and Crosetti moving to third. The infield was drawn in, so when Brennan hoisted a short fly to right Hayes couldn't get back to grab it. The ball dropped for a single, Crosetti scoring. Another single was produced by Combs, but Sewell obliged by bouncing into a double play.

The Yanks were still pecking away at Lyons in the ninth. Gehrig hadn't had anything more than a scratch single up to this point, so smashed a double to left and scored when Chapman lined a single in the same direction.

BLOOD LINES TELL AS SUN WORSHIP WINS AT CICERO

BY FRENCH LANE.

Sun Worship, one of the best bred horses that ever raced over a half-mile track, made the 7,000 spectators stand amazed as he rambled around the muddy little oval to win by a length from Concisus, with the favorite, Outbound, third.

The folks who had studied the blood lines reaped a nice profit, for Sun Worship paid $16.02 for a $2 investment.

Sun Briar's Boy.

Talk about blue blood! Sun Worship has it. His daddy is Sun Briar, one of the most noted sires in America, and his mother was Hathor, a daughter of Meddler. There's a family for anybody who knows their horses.

Sun Worship must be a black sheep in the family, for at the age of seven which is quite ripe among horses, he would not be out there running against half-milers unless he had failed on the big jobs that were assigned him.

Yet, he was out to do his job well in the Harvey purse, and except for a few seconds shortly after the start Sun Worship never caused his backers any anxiety.

Sun Worship let All Upset run him for the first furlong, and then, when All Upset dashed out toward the outside fence on the clubhouse turn, Sun Worship took the lead and was never headed.

A Winner for McCuan.

Sun Worship was ridden by Jockey Dent Smith. He raced in the white and green dotted jacket of Mrs. Ed McCuan of St. Louis and was saddled by Mrs. McCuan's husband. He carried 115 pounds and gave away weight to every horse in the race with the exception of Outbound.

The race of Outbound was most disappointing to the people who had backed him so stoutly that he went to the post at about even money in the betting. He didn't get up a good brisk gallop until Sun Worship had the race won.

Outbound is another nicely bred fellow, his daddy having been Luke McLuke and his mother In Bounds. The breeding lines indicate this one might run very fast in the heavy going. However, he didn't do it, so the only thing his backers could do was groan.

Plunge on Wayward Lad.

While the crowd suffered as a result of Outbound's beating, most of the players had fattened their bank rolls in the seven furlong fourth race when Wayward Lad sprinted home in front of nine rivals. He was the hottest post time tip of the Chicago season and won very easily when the stoutly backed Brookside refused to show any of her mud running ability. It was the third failure for Brookside here over just the sort of track she used to like. Wayward Lad paid $6.58 after the plunge.

The players are all out of sorts with Brookside and will probably not back her extensively again. If that happens Brookside may come along and win at tall odds. Horses have a habit of turning such flip-flops, particularly horses like Brookside.

Time, :23 3-5, :54 2-5, 1:01 2-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Copain $77.44 straight, $35.72 place, $18.84 show; Grey Sash, $6.50 place, $4.38 show; Polvos Pride, $7.06 show. Winner trained by E. G. Woods. Went to post at 2:10. At post 1 minute. Start good from machine. Won driving; second and third same.

COPAIN, away forwardly, taken back off the pace to the second turn, responded to pressure when ready, and won in a drive. GREY SASH, away well, raced trifle wide at first turn and, energetically ridden, took a short lead, but tired right at the end. POLVOS PRIDE, always close up, showed a same effort.

SECOND RACE—Five furlongs out of chute. Purse $500. Net value to winner, $400; second, $65; third, $25; fourth, $10.

Time, :24 2-5, :51 2-5, 1:05 1-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Uforme, $10.96 straight, $5.14 place, $3.60 show; Tombereau, $3.30 place, $2.90 show; Marchite, $3.14 show. Winner trained by F. H. Meyer. Went to post at 2:50½. At post 1 minute. Start good from machine. Won easily; second and third driving.

UFORME, away well, saved ground on the turns, took lead under restraint, and was never threatened. TOMBEREAU, off slowly, worked his way up to the leader on the back stretch, withstood punishment but could not get up. MAECHUTE lost ground on first turn, but closed well when straightened out.

THIRD RACE—Seven furlongs out of chute. Purse $500. Net value to winner, $400; second, $65; third, $25; fourth, $10.

DR. JILLSON, away forwardly and showing a liking for the going under restraint while saving ground, LONELL, into deep mud, barely lasted to win. BLACK STOCKINGS, probably best, dropped back to last position shortly after the start and, well ridden while working way up, bore over behind leaders in stretch, was taken out, and finished fastest of all. LONELL showed good early speed while racing with winner, but tired in final drive.

SUN WORSHIP, away fast, took short lead, saved ground on turns and, under hard urging while bearing out on last turn, managed to last. CONCISUS, crowded back at first turn, challenged at head of the stretch, but was forced wide by winner and held OUTBOUND safe. Latter off sluggishly, saved ground on the turns, but could not menace the leaders.

SIXTH RACE—Four and one-half furlongs. Purse $500. Net value to winner, $400; second, $65; third, $25; fourth, $10.

REX REGENT, away forwardly and under restraint while setting the pace, saved ground on the turns and responded gamely when challenged and lasted for a handy win. ADELAIDE, A., off well, moved up menacingly on the stretch turn, but could not reach the winner. PRINCE PEBBLES, bumped shortly after the start, worked his way up and tired.

EIGHTH RACE—One mile and seventy yards. Purse $600. Net value to winner, $475; second, $75; third, $30; fourth, $20.

Winner went to post at 5:48½. At post 3½ minutes. Start good from machine. Won driving; second and third same. Winner trained by J. Klucina.

BOB WEIDEL, away well and taken back at once, was saved off the pace and, coming to outside at head of stretch, swerved while tiring and barely outlasted DUELIST. Latter sprinted into early lead under restraint while making the pace, held on gamely, but could not withstand the winner. TEMPLE DANCER, off slowly, gradually worked her way up to leaders, but hung in the drive.

Culloden Wins at Aurora in Year's Debut

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Old Culloden came back to the races after his winter vacation to win the fifth race, feature event on yesterday's program at Aurora. After allowing Timorous and Anne L. to set the pace for half a mile, this veteran campaigner began moving to the front at the head of the stretch and came on to win by two lengths. Anne L. drew away from the tiring Timorous to take second place by a margin of two and a half lengths.

The fact that Culloden had not raced since last October prompted many of the fans in the crowd of 4,000 to overlook him when making their bets, and as a result he paid $15.66 to win, $7.76 to place, and $4.56 to show. The highly regarded Sweet Chariot, which went to the post as 8 to 5 favorite, raced in fourth position until reaching the stretch, where he tired and dropped back.

Culloden ran the six furlongs over a muddy track in 1:22 2-5.

Corbeau Wins the First.

The usual parade of favorites past the winning post began early as Corbeau, the popular choice at 2 to 1, beat his field easily in the first race. He finished the mile and seventy yards a length and a half in advance of Sedgie, while Riff Raff, a well known campaigner in previous seasons, took third place.

Then a pair of odds on favorites, Mrs. Let and Bronx Park, won the second and third races, upon which the daily double tickets were sold. Both events were at five and a half furlongs, both winners went out on top and led all the way, both won by three lengths, and both paid $3.74. Daily double tickets on this pair were worth $10.20.

Bennie Creech, the owner of Bronx Park, lost this promising plater immediately after the race, for he was claimed for $700 by J. D. Mikel. Last week Bronx Park had been entered at Kentucky tracks for $1,200.

Creech Repaid for Loss.

In the next event Creech received partial recompense for the loss of Bronx Park when another of his horses, Guide Book, won at odds of 12 to 1.

Exposition Park officials yesterday received word from Churchill Downs that Charley O, which finished third in the Kentucky Derby, will be shipped to Aurora to compete in the Illinois Derby to be run on May 20. It was said that Trainer Tommy Eastman will bring the R. M. Eastman colt to Exposition park next week.

AURORA RESULTS.

DRAFT BILL TO END 'BOOTLEG' AMATEUR BOUTS

Illinois Legislature Gets Measure Tomorrow.

BY ARCH WARD.

Representatives of the Amateur Athletic union and members of the Illinois Athletic commission yesterday met with State Representatives John Bolton of Chicago and Howard Doyle of Decatur to draft a bill that will protect bouts which are truly amateur and put an end to bootleg shows.

A substitute measure for section 22 of the present boxing law will be introduced in the legislature tomorrow. It in effect will give the state commission control of all boxing in Illinois except bouts certified as amateur by the Amateur Athletic union.

No Sanctions to Individuals.

No individual will be granted a sanction to conduct amateur boxing, the theory being that an individual promotes a boxing show solely for personal profit.

"Amateur contests, exhibitions or tournaments within the meaning of this section shall be only those held and conducted under the auspices or sanction of the organization having jurisdiction and control of amateur boxing, sparring, and wrestling throughout the United States, maintaining a system of registration of its competing members and recognized as having such jurisdiction and control of amateur boxing and wrestling by the International Amateur Boxing federation."

Amateur Boxer Defined.

The bill which will be presented at Springfield tomorrow defines an amateur boxer as one who receives no money, compensation or reward for his participation except suitably inscribed wreaths, diplomas, banners, badges, medals, time pieces, and mantel ornaments or suitably inscribed articles of jewelry, silverware, table or toilet service. These prizes must not exceed in value $35 for first prize, $20 for second, and $10 for third unless by special permission of the A. A. U.

Sanction of the A. A. U. or the state commission will not be necessary in the cases of college and universities, units of the regular army, navy or marine corps or national guard or naval reserves which desire to conduct bouts between members of their own organizations within the confines of the institution, reservation or armory.

Must Submit Card to A. A. U.

Any club, corporation or association which has received a sanction to conduct amateur boxing shall submit to the A. A. U. prior to each contest the names of all contestants and a list of officials, including referees, judges, physicians, announcers, timekeepers and seconds. The athletic commission will send an inspector to each show to see that the provisions of the proposed section are enforced.

If a promoter attempts to put on an amateur show without the sanction of the A. A. U. he immediately will fall under the jurisdiction of the state athletic commission and this organization will compel him to operate as a professional promoter or will stop his show.

If this bill is passed as drafted by the group which met yesterday at the commission office amateur boxing will be run on an amateur basis and will be relieved of the danger of political racketeering.

Chairman Joe Triner, Packey McFarland and George Getz, the state's boxing board, were in attendance. President Avery Brundage, George Donoghue, Fred Steers and Lyman Bingham represented the Amateur Athletic union.

ORDER SAVOLDI, LONDOS TO SIGN FOR TITLE BOUT

The Illinois Athletic commission yesterday arranged a test of the principals in the recent wrestling fiasco at the Stadium when Joe Savoldi was awarded a fall over Jim Londos, which brought about a temporary suspension of wrestling in the state.

Both wrestlers were given 30 days by the commission to sign for a return bout and post forfeits. This match would be a contest under the new commission rules, thus requiring forfeits, and the winner would be considered the world's champion.

Evasion on the part of either would be interpreted as establishing doubt concerning the championship claim of that wrestler. Should Londos fail to sign and post forfeit, it will be evident, the commission said, that his claims are without grounds and that Savoldi should be given full credit for this victory. If Savoldi fails to sign then he may be considered as having no right to the victory he was awarded over Londos.

The commission then added: "Pending the acceptance by Londos and Savoldi for a return bout, this commission will not permit either to appear in this state against other opponents in contest or exhibition excepting the one who does comply with this order by signing contracts and posting substantial forfeit as evidence of good faith."

Purvis Rates Best in Big 10 with Javelin

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Fourteen of the outdoor track and field records of the Western conference are owned by six universities. The other two, the half mile and mile, belong to nonconference schools, Mississippi A. and M. and Oberlin, respectively, and date back to 1916 and 1917, when the conference meet was an open affair.

Purdue owns no all time record. Indiana, despite its recent upturn in track, Iowa, and Northwestern also are out of the "book," but the Boilermakers see a splendid chance to crash the record column in the meet at Dyche stadium May 19 and 20. It will be up to Duane Purvis, who began his collegiate athletic career last fall on the gridiron and now has been throwing the javelin as if he intended to outdistance all those who have competed in this event in the last 33 years of Big Ten meets.

220 Feet as Freshman.

The conference javelin record now is held by Northrop of Michigan, who, in 1926, registered 207 feet 7 3-5 inches. Purvis is said to have thrown the javelin 220 feet while a freshman last year. In his first competition this spring at the Drake relays Purvis threw 203.04 feet. The Drake record is held by Kuck of Kansas at 207 feet 7 inches.

Last Saturday in a triangular meet between Purdue, Indiana, and Illinois at Lafayette, Purvis took only two throws. His first sailed over the 190 mark and his second established a new Purdue record of 206 feet 1 inch. Purvis did not try again because of the cold weather, fearing that he might injure his arm. It's easy to see why the Boilermakers believe Purvis will set a conference record. At any rate, he appears certain to win the event.

Team Better Than Last Year.

In all probability Purvis will be Purdue's only champion. Coach Orval Martin, himself a noted distance runner for Purdue a few seasons back, broke a few records, but the last of these, the half mile indoors, was wiped out this winter by Charles Hornbostel of Indiana. Martin has assembled a fair team and it is likely Purdue will beat its last year's record of 9 points. Purdue took second place in the broad jump, third in the mile, and fourth in the half mile.

Among those counted on to score is Sandbach, who won the 120 yard high hurdles in the triangular meet last Saturday. Sandbach was timed in 15.2 seconds, very slow, but the high hurdle field this year, with the exception of Jack Keller of Ohio State, won't do much better than 15 seconds. Scheifley of Minnesota probably is second best. He won both the Kansas and Drake relays in 15 seconds. In the Drake preliminaries he was timed in his heat in 14.9 seconds. Smith of Purdue finished second in the high hurdles Saturday.

Sears Second to Hornbostel.

Sears is a fair half miler. He ran second to Hornbostel in a 1:56 race in the triangular meet. Jack Swezey was fourth in the 220 yards in which Hellmich of Illinois, probable Big Ten winner, was timed in 21.9 seconds. Robert Jones won the high jump at 5 feet 7 inches Saturday, but this isn't enough to place in the conference. Jones also pole vaults, but his best so far is around 12 feet 6 inches.

Hollis won the broad jump against Indiana and Illinois with a mark of 22 feet 7⅞ inches. This mark should score points in the conference meet since John Brooks, Chicago's defending champion, is the only consistent 24 foot jumper in the Big Ten. John Crossman, a half miler, may land a fifth place and Popejoy, if he gets into condition, may score in the mile.

David McQueen, who has run the quarter in 50 seconds, is another possible point winner.

PURDUE GOLFERS BATTLE MAROON SQUAD TODAY

Lafayette, Ind., May 8.—[Special.]—Purdue's golf squad left tonight for Chicago to meet the Maroons tomorrow. The team was composed of Capt. Rosseau, Hobbs, Reitemeier, and Skinner.

Purdue's baseball team will leave tomorrow morning by bus from Bloomington to play Indiana tomorrow and Wednesday. The teams will meet here on Saturday afternoon in the final of the three game series.

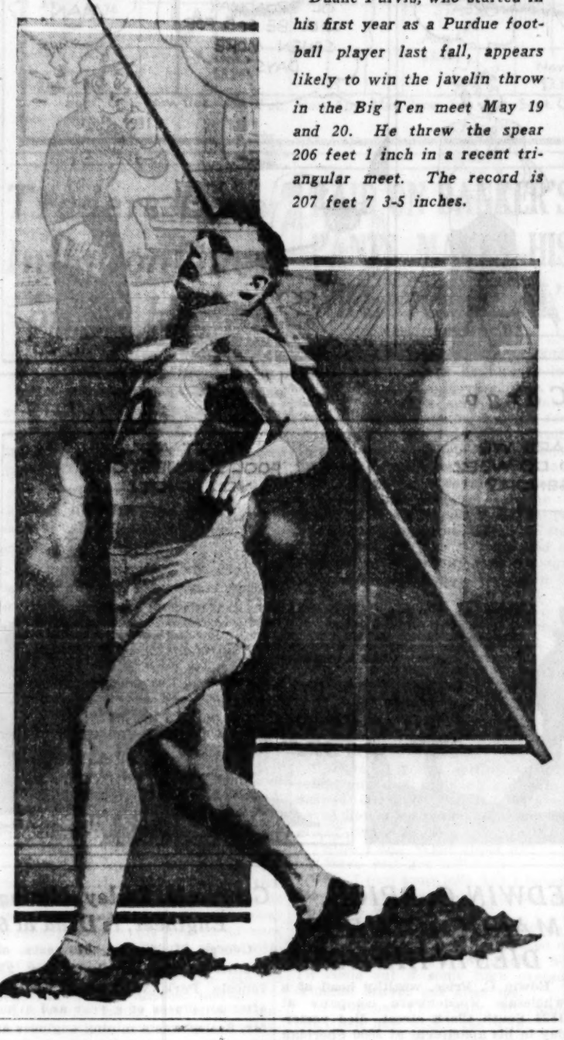
Tarala, Devoreck Meet on 40 and 8 Mat Card Tonight

Steve Tarala, winner of both National A. A. U. and Olympic titles in the 180 pound class, will meet Ed Devoreck, Chicago Park champion, in a wrestling match on the 40 and 8 card at the Medinah Michigan Avenue club tonight. Six fights and another wrestling match, with two Y. M. C. A. champions, Henry Mueller of Central, and Frank Lang of Division, will make up the show. Henry Rothier, Eddie Ward, Lenny Cohen and Johnny Liston are in the group from which the boxers will be selected.

Linfield Wins Football Shield in Belfast Game

BELFAST, Ireland, May 8.—(AP)—Linfield today won the Antrim football shield, defeating Celtic, 3 to 1, in the final game of the trophy series.

PURDUE'S BEST PITCHER



Duane Purvis, who started in his first year as a Purdue football player last fall, appears likely to win the javelin throw in the Big Ten meet May 19 and 20. He threw the spear 206 feet 1 inch in a recent triangular meet. The record is 207 feet 7 3-5 inches.

207 Chicago District Golfers Seek 27 National Open Berths

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

If evidence other than a schedule chock full of tournaments is necessary to convince the dubious that Chicago will be the golfing capital of the United States during 1933, it was supplied yesterday with the announcement of entries and places allotted for the qualifying round of the national open championship, to be decided Monday at the Medinah Country club.

Joe Davis, secretary of the Chicago District Golf association, revealed the fact that 207 amateurs and professionals from these parts filed their entries with the United States Golf association before last Tuesday night's deadline, the largest entry of any district in the country and by far the record for this neighborhood. The district has been allotted 27 qualifying berths of the 117 in the open tournament proper, which will be played on June 8, 9, and 10 at the North Shore Golf club. Those 27 places should assure Chicago of a talented entry in the big show at North Shore, for practically every leading amateur and all of the professionals have entered the 36 hole trials over the No. 1 and No. 3 courses at Medinah Monday.

Three Pros Exempt from Trials.

Among the amateurs will be Johnny Lehman of Olympia Fields, Jack Westland of Sunset Ridge, Chick Evans of Edgewater, Jock Hutchison Jr. of Glen View, Ira Couch of Chicago Golf, and George Dawson of Glen Oak. Every leading professional in the district will be seeking one of the 27 places, with three of them exempt from qualifying by reason of their finishing among the leaders at Fresh Meadow last year. The trio is composed of Tommy Armour of Medinah, Harry Cooper of Glen Oak, and Bob MacDonald.

Incidentally, the Chicago district provided the open trial with approximately one-fourth of its total entry list, which fell to 913 this year.

Club Will Supply Caddies.

Players competing in the qualifying round next Monday are requested not to bring their own caddies, since all bag toters will be supplied by Medinah. Those wishing to sample the scene of the trials would do well to communicate with the club before going out. All of the courses are in excellent condition, but the rains of the last week have left them quite wet, a situation which prevailed yesterday and caused the club to close them.

The fourth annual Tri-State open tournament will be held at the Beverly Shores Golf club, near Michigan City, Ind., on June 26 and 27, according to Manager Frank P. MacDonald. The dates indicate that the titleholder will not be present to defend his crown, for Horton Smith, who won the Tri-State last year, will be in Southport, England, on those same two days playing on the American Ryder cup team. All of the fairways at Beverly Shores have been reseeded, a number of trees planted, and one of the best professionals in Indiana has joined the club in Walter Murray. Walter finished second to Harry Cooper in the 1931 Tri-State open, has won the Indiana pro title, and will compete in the national open trials at Medinah.

The Lincolnshire Country club, with a membership of 1,500 and three eighteen hole courses, is offering an annual membership for the price of the annual dues, $50, plus tax. One membership entitles an entire family to partake of all of the club's privileges, which, in addition to golf, include boating, bathing, fishing [the club's 40 acre Deer lake has been stocked with fish through the Lincolnshire chapter of the Izaak Walton league], horseback riding, tennis, bowling, and winter sports. Lincolnshire has no debt and has yet to close a year's operation with a deficit.

Following upon the success of the membership campaign at Olympia Fields, comes the report of another completed drive from F. W. Lietzow, chairman of the membership committee at Ridgemoor. Mr. Lietzow states that Ridgemoor's experience should prove encouraging to those clubs facing the problem of selling playing privileges instead of regular memberships. Ridgemoor members met on April 19 and decided to sell regular memberships at $100 plus tax. Within ten days thirty memberships were sold, and now the club is not only sold out but has a waiting list. The club owns all of its 150 acres, with no bonded indebtedness.

The Garfield and Columbus park golf courses, operated by the Chicago West parks commission, will be leased to a concessionaire for private operation, Harry B. Joseph, president of the board, said last night.

The courses have deteriorated in recent years, and have been operated at a loss, Joseph explained, so that it was thought best to put them under private control so they could get back on a paying basis.

Charges for playing will remain the same, it was announced.

Cardinals Beat Giants, 4-3, on Two Homers

New York, May 8.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals collected only three hits off Fitzsimmons today, but two of them were home runs by Joe Medwick and Frank Frisch and they defeated the New York Giants, 4 to 3.

Medwick connected with his homer in the second with the bases empty while Frisch duplicated the feat in the eighth after Durocher and Martin had walked. Sam Leslie hit his second homer in as many days to account for all of the Giants' runs.

The defeat was Fitzsimmons' first of the season while the victory was Tex Carleton's fourth. Neither finished the game. Fitzsimmons was taken out for a pinch hitter in the eighth and Carleton was knocked off the mound in the same inning. Johnson and Dean finished. Score:

PIRATES, 3; BRAVES, 0.

Boston, Mass., May 8.—(AP)—Larry French today held the Boston Braves to three hits as the league leading Pittsburgh Pirates collected enough two baggers off Tom Zachary to gain a 3 to 0 shutout in the series opener.

Zachary, making his first start of the season, pitched a winning brand of baseball up to the fifth inning, when Floyd Vaughan started the Pirates on their way by doubling to left. Tony Piet scored him with another two bagger.

The Pirates were unable to increase their lead until the eighth, when Vaughan paired up with Paul Waner in another successive two base act. The third Pittsburgh score, made with two out in the ninth, was unearned, for French reached first when Wes Schulmerich dropped his fly in right field and scored on singles by Lloyd Waner and Fred Lindstrom. Yanks Pick Gomez to Pitch Today; It's Jones for Sox

Joe McCarthy, the boss of the Yankees, laments that his world's championship team isn't clicking properly just yet. He thinks the hitting and pitching will improve when summer arrives, if ever. But the Yanks are in first place, despite the conditions the manager complains about, so there's no telling where they'll go when they hit their stride.

For this afternoon McCarthy plans to let the efficient Vern Gomez do the pitching. Sam Jones, who invariably is tough for the Yankees, will start for the Sox.

All the Yanks bellowed lustily when Umpire Hildebrand called a balk on Brennan in the second, but all of them subsided except George Pipgras. He kept "jockeying" the official guesser and was told to get off the premises. The balk may have been the final tremor of a nightmare experience by Brennan during the train ride over from Cleveland. He leaped out of his berth, thinking he was about to be murdered, but his aroused mates assured him he was only kidding himself.

Manager Fonseca's injured right foot took a turn for the better yesterday. The swelling and pain diminished after the injured part had been tightly taped. He discarded his crutches and got about with the help of one cane.

NAGURSKI WILL MEET MARSHALL ON MAT FRIDAY

Bronko Nagurski, Chicago Bears full back, will make his first appearance in Chicago as a wrestler when he meets Floyd Marshall of Denver, Colo., at White City Friday night. Jim McMillen and Abe Coleman will wrestle in the main event. Their bout has been ruled a contest by the Illinois athletic commission. They are to go two out of three falls with a two hour time limit.

MAIL REQUESTS TO CUBS NOW FOR LADIES' TICKETS

Requests for Ladies' day tickets will be accepted today by the Cubs for the game of Friday, May 19, at Wrigley field. One ticket will be allotted to each applicant until the limit of 20,000 has been exhausted.

Requests should be addressed to "Ladies' ticket office, Wrigley field," and must contain a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Eddie Ran Stops Levine in 10th Round of Bout

New York, May 8.—(AP)—Eddie Ran, right hand puncher from Poland, stopped Benny Levine of Newark, N. J., in 48 seconds of the tenth and last round of a one sided bout at the St. Nicholas arena tonight. Ran weighed 147¾ pounds, Levine 140½.

CHAMPION BAIT, FLY CASTERS IN CONTEST TONIGHT

All Three Chicago Clubs Enter Experts.

BY BOB BECKER.

World champions in bait and fly casting will be seen in action tonight and Friday at the motorboat and sports show at Navy pier. Charles E. Edwards, president of the Chicago Fly Casting club and also president of the National Association of Scientific Angling clubs, has arranged the event, a 5-8 ounce accuracy bait and dry fly casting contest in which outstanding Chicago casters will take part. Entries have been received from the three Chicago casting clubs.

These contests will provide an opportunity for casting experts to prepare for the national tournament, which will be held in Chicago this summer. Fishermen who attend the show to see the many displays of new boats will receive free instruction in casting after the regular scheduled events.

Chicago a Center in Casting.

The skill of a certain group of Chicago tournament casters has made Chicago known as one of the outstanding centers for the sport. If every nationally known local caster were to enter these contests at the motorboat show the list of champions would read like this:

From the Chicago Fly Casting club: Charles Edwards, national 5-8 ounce accuracy champion; Bob Clarkson, all around champion of Illinois; Edwin Sutter, secretary of the N. A. S. A. C. and national ¼ ounce accuracy bait champion; Fred N. Peet, holder of the world record for longest cast in the salmon fly event [162 feet].

Steel Holds Dry Fly Record.

Senators Win from Browns in 12th, 10-8

St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—(AP)—Bob Boken, substitute second baseman, hit a homer in the twelfth inning and scored behind Schulte to give Washington a 10 to 8 victory over the St. Louis Browns today.

Before the game, friends from his home town of Collinsville, Ill., a suburb, had presented Boken a watch. His home run came with two out in the twelfth after he had failed to hit in five times up. Score:

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS WJKS IN BROADCAST

O.K.'s Station's Unlimited Use of Air.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—The power of the federal radio commission strongly was sustained today when the United States Supreme court in an opinion by Chief Justice Hughes, upheld the commission's action in allotting to station WJKS of Gary, Ind., unlimited use of the 560 kilocycle frequency formerly assigned to station WIBO and WPCC of Chicago.

The decision upheld the right of the commission to transfer wave lengths from a state with more radio channels than its normal quota to stations in an under-quota state within the same zone.

WJKS is owned by the Johnson-Kennedy Radio corporation. Stations WIBO and WPCC are owned respectively by Nelson Brothers Bond and Mortgage company and the North Shore church. Licenses for the latter two stations were issued by the commission to be effective from Sept. 1, 1931, to March 1, 1932, and were granted on a temporary basis subject to the commission's decision with regard to the WJKS application.

Indiana is 22 per cent under quota and Illinois 55 per cent over-quota. The Supreme court's decision ended a long drawn battle which began when the commission's examiner ruled against WJKS. The commission approved the application of WJKS; the District of Columbia Court of Appeals reversed the commission; the Supreme court reversed the Court of Appeals.

FUNERAL SERVICE TOMORROW FOR C. F. GOODWILLIE

C. F. GOODWILLIE. [Walinger Photo.]

Funeral services for Charles Francis Goodwillie, for 40 years president of the D. M. Goodwillie Box company, will be held tomorrow morning at Our Lady of Mount Carmel church. Mr. Goodwillie died Sunday at his home, 416 Barry avenue, from heart disease, after prolonged illness. He was 66 years old.

Mr. Goodwillie, who conducted the business founded by his father in 1867, was one of the founders and directors of the Atlas Box company. He was for many years a member of the board of the Illinois Athletic club.

Mr. Goodwillie is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emily Goodwillie, and eight children: Mrs. Gerald Cleary, Winnifred and Cecile Goodwillie, and Charles Francis Jr., Douglas, Earl, Robert and John Goodwillie. Interment will be at Calvary cemetery.

Alexander Byfield, Uncle of Ernest, Dies at Home

Alexander Byfield, 67 years old, uncle of Ernest Byfield, president of the Hotel Sherman company, died of heart disease yesterday in his home at 5109 Ellis avenue. Mr. Byfield had been in the investment business until his retirement several years ago. Interment will be in Rosehill cemetery today.

EDWIN C. PRICE, MANUFACTURER, DIES IN HIS HOME

Edwin C. Price, wealthy head of a wholesale woodenware company at 1822 South Clark street, died yesterday in his apartment at 3000 Sheridan road after a long illness. He was 65 years old.

Born in Sandwich, Mass., and educated at Boston, Mr. Price came to Chicago more than forty years ago. His business career started in the stockyards with Swift & Co. He became cattle buyer and purchasing agent, and later went to Omaha as general manager for Swift's. He retired from that company in 1901 to enter the packer's supplies business for himself. He was a 32d degree Mason and a Shriner. Last year Mr. Price obtained a divorce in St. Petersburg, Fla., from his second wife, Laura, on charges of cruelty. The divorce followed a court action in which Mrs. Price had been sentenced to six months in jail here for a robbery-insurance hoax.

Surviving Mr. Price are two daughters, Mrs. Catherine P. Girault and Mrs. Ida M. Holmes. Funeral services will be held tomorrow in St. Paul's church, 49th street and Dorchester avenue. Burial will be in Oakwood cemetery.

CARDINAL DIES; PROTECTOR OF CHICAGO ORDER

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, May 8.—Cardinal Bonaventura Cerretti, who for eight years was auditor of the apostolic delegation at Washington, D. C., died today of influenza after a week's illness. He was 61 years old.

Msgr. Cerretti was the official protector for many religious orders, including the Franciscan Tertiaries of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Chicago.

Will Disposes of Wealth of Perkins Bass' Widow

The will of Clara F. Bass of Petersboro, N. H., once socially prominent in Chicago, was filed for probate yesterday in the Cook county Probate court. The will disposes of an estate of several million dollars of which $1,000,000 in real estate and $5,000 in personal property is in Cook county. Mrs. Bass, who was the widow of Perkins Bass of Chicago, died March 9 in her home in New Hampshire.

A total of $45,000 is given to charity in the will. The Petersboro hospital is to receive $25,000, the New Hampshire Children's Aid and Protective society, $10,000, and the Children's Memorial hospital in Chicago, $10,000.

WAGES BOOSTED BY INDUSTRY ON ROOSEVELT PLEA

5 to 10 Pct. Increases Affect Thousands.

Wage increases ranging from 5 to 10 per cent and affecting many thousands of workers in many lines of industry were announced yesterday in support of President Roosevelt's program to revive business and increase purchasing power.

Units in the automobile and affiliated industry, the southern cotton textile industry, and several other lines, including brokerage firms that have benefited by rising prices and activity in the securities markets, participated in the spreading of larger compensation to employés.

The most important announcements came from the Cord corporation, with headquarters in Chicago, and the Piedmont textile mills in South Carolina. E. L. Cord, president of the Cord corporation, announced a blanket increase of 5 per cent in wages and salaries of approximately 10,000 employés, effective tomorrow. The Piedmont textile mills announced an increase of 10 per cent in wages of approximately 9,000 employés.

Work Hours Not Increased.

Mr. Cord said the increase, applying to present employés of every division of the Cord corporation and those of American Airways and Aviation corporation, which are Cord controlled, does not mean any extension of working hours.

Word has been sent to make this increase effective to the heads of the following companies:

American Airways, Inc.; Aviation corporation, Auburn Automobile company, Lycoming Manufacturing company, Stinson Aircraft corporation, Duesenberg, Inc., Spencer Heater company, L. G. S. Devices corporation, Columbia Axle company, Central Manufacturing company, and Limousine Body company.

Plan Expansion Program.

In addition to the immediate pay roll increase, an expansion program is envisaged for the future by the Cord organizations.

"The President and the administration have had much applause and favorable comment on handling a most difficult task," said Mr. Cord. "The increased purchasing power resulting from expansion programs and higher pay rolls is the kind of applause that we believe will help the country most.

"There is definite evidence that the President's program is well on its way toward its goal. It behooves all American business to support his program. That is why we now feel that new programs of expansion and increased compensation are fully warranted."

Shirt Concern Adds 10 Per Cent.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 8.—(AP)—Announcement of a 10 per cent wage increase was made today by the Supreme Shirt company, effective May 12. Officials said the action is in line with the suggestion of President Roosevelt that wage levels be stepped up on a par with prices of finished goods.

9,000 Textile Workers Raised.

Greenville, S. C., May 8.—(AP)—More than 9,000 employés in 20 Piedmont, S. C., textile mills were given 10 per cent wage increases today, reflecting better business conditions and "appreciation of the loyalty" of the workers.

Over the week-end the Greenwood, Mathews, Panola No. 1 and Grendell mills at Greenwood and the ninety-six mills at Ninety-six announced the increase.

Today additional announcements were made by the Brandon and Poinsett mills here, the Renfrew at Renfrew and the Brandon corporation plant at Woodruff. The Woodside mills with several factories also increased their employés' pay.

Late today officials of the Victor Monogham mills said their five plants would immediately increase wages of employés, but the amount of the increase was not specified.

Delaware Plant Boosts Pay.

Wilmington, Del., May 8.—(AP)—About 500 employés of the Standard Kid company will receive a general wage increase of 7 per cent, starting with their next pay, it was announced by officials of the company today. They said the advance in wages is based on the desire of the company to share profits with the employés.

Tire Company Joins [illegible].

New York, May 8.—(AP)—The Norwalk Tire and Rubber company announced today that ," with a view of aiding the President's program of increasing purchasing power" it was putting into effect a plan to pay its workmen a 5 per cent bonus on their weekly earnings.

J. S. Bache & Co., brokers, announced that salaries of all employés, local and out of town, will be increased 10 per cent immediately.

Managed Plan of Denmark Hits Taxpayers

BY SCRUTATOR.

Denmark has had a "managed economy" since September, 1931, and that is why Vilhelm Elwarth can speak with considerable authority and no little heat on the price of cattle in Copenhagen.

Mr. Elwarth is, and has been for years, agent for the Cudahy Packing company in Copenhagen. Several weeks ago George Marples, vice president of the company, wrote to him asking why live stock prices were so high in Denmark.

In his reply Mr. Elwarth not only answers that question but gives some very illuminating information about the consequences of Denmark's political experiments in managed economy.

"I have your favor of the 4th of April," writes Mr. Elwarth, "and the reason why the prices are so much higher than in January is to be sought in the depreciation of the Danish kroner, the value of which is at present only 56 per cent of the original gold value."

Denmark Depreciates Money.

He explains that when Great Britain abandoned the gold standard Denmark followed, but that the depreciation of the kroner has been much greater than the depreciation of the pound.

"Denmark," he continues, "is governed by the Socialist-Democrats, the biggest political party. Next to them in importance comes the Farmer party. These two parties together possess the political majority and can thus carry through in common what they have mutually decided upon.

"A while ago these two groups made agreements resulting in:

"1. Depreciation of the kroner; and,

"2. Considerable tax reductions and interest reduction to relieve the farmers.

"The Labor party members, in return, have secured for themselves the maintenance of the high wages that employers wanted to have reduced by 20 per cent, and, further, a series of social laws allowing for large grants of aid with a view of improving the social level—all at the expense of capital that is to pay for it by taxes augmented accordingly."

Try to Aid Farmer, Labor.

These measures, he says, are intended to make farming more lucrative and increase the buying power of the farmers. Labor's bait is the public money contributed to its support and the maintenance of the high level of wages.

"All this is only an illusion that is not tenable," Mr. Elwarth explains. "It is all based on fiction.

"If the farmers produced sufficient feeding stuffs in Denmark to raise their hogs and cattle the situation would be entirely different, for the farmers know perfectly well how arduous and thrifty they ought to be, or in other words, how much of social agreements they are entitled to for their own account, whereas they have now by loans from public funds become able to lead a more luxurious life, although unable to pay their debts."

In the past, he says, Danish farmers produced enough grain to satisfy domestic demands and still leave some for export. The quick profit in live stock, however, wooed them away from grains and into stock raising to such an extent that now they have to import much stock feed.

Live Stock Exports Restricted.

Newly raised tariffs now exclude Danish cattle and hogs from former markets in Germany and other nations. And to make matters worse, the depreciation of the kroner has made imported feeds much more expensive. Denmark's cattle and hogs are backing up on their raisers. Alarmed, the government is preparing to restrict the imports of corn and other feeds in order to reduce the production of live stock.

"The restrictions imposed by Germany on her imports of meat have rendered a considerable number of cows, chiefly old ones, unsalable, and the Danish community has to pay stupidly for the fact that 60,000 cows have to be slaughtered, by which only the price of hides and tallow comes out. The remaining part goes to the farmer as fertilizers. The farmers get a certain price for their cattle, on which the state pays the difference.

"This is a silly circulation. First we pay for the import of feeding stuffs and the cattle raising, and finally it all comes back to the farmers in the shape of fertilizers, while the community is paying for this in taxes and is thus robbed and impoverished.

"One cannot conceive how this is possible and how so many clever heads in the various countries can submit to similar nonsense."

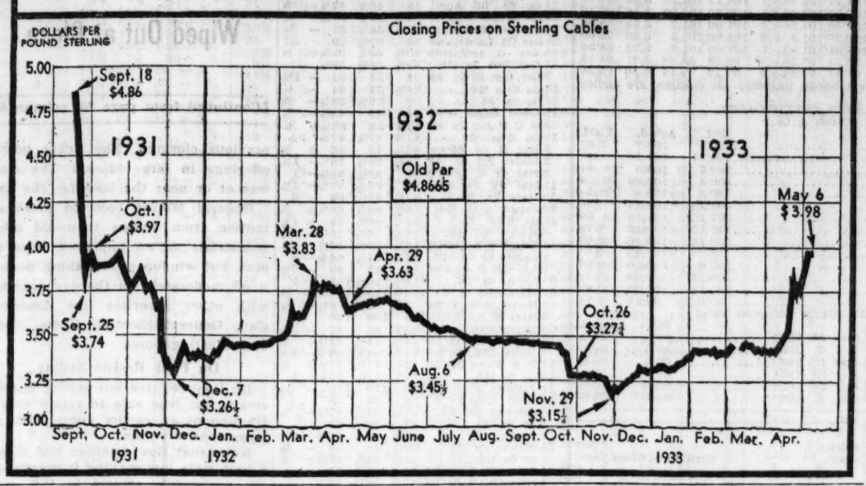
Sterling Since England Went Off the Gold Standard



Traders Base Inflation Guess on Its History

BY HOWARD WOOD.

Traders yesterday in all markets were cautious as they sought to interpret the various references to inflation in the President's talk Sunday night.

Two sentences from the speech particularly impressed the "street," and each to a certain extent offset the effect of the other.

"The administration," the President had said, "has the definite objective of raising commodity prices to such an extent that those who have borrowed money will, on the average, be able to repay that money in the same kind of dollar which they borrowed."

That would indicate a return to the average commodity price levels of the period of 1926 to 1929. But another sentence in the speech indicated that the ascent would not be meteoric.

"I do not want the people of this country to take the foolish course of letting this improvement come back on another speculative wave," the President had warned.

Expect Gradual Deflation.

All in all, the impression in the financial district yesterday was that the administration's intention is to create new currency and new money gradually so that the desired advance in prices may be brought about without a sudden shock.

Whether or not the job can be done that way is another matter.

Meanwhile banks and other financial institutions, corporations and individuals are all trying to guess how the experiment in managed currency will turn out. Much depends upon the decisions which will be based on these guesses. To date the consensus is that the United States will get a little stiffer dose of inflation than Great Britain has had thus far, but probably not as much as France had after the war.

For the guidance of its own officers one large bank has prepared an analysis of the inflation experiments in Great Britain, France and Germany.

Blame War on Inflation.

Inflation in France, the survey asserts, really started with the war. The inflation period can be broken up into two periods: First, the period from the war to 1922; and second, the period from 1922 to July, 1926.

During the second period the price index rose from 314 to 836. Late in 1926 prices declined to six times the pre-war figures, then stabilized in 1927 at a slightly higher level.

In June, 1928, the franc was officially devalued at one-fifth of its former gold content. It is important to note that the devaluation of the currency followed the actual inflation, occurring only after prices had risen. It was done to stabilize them at the new higher level. Economists predict that the same order of events will be pursued in this country, that currency devaluation will follow rather than precede the price rise. When the franc was again hitched to gold at 20 per cent of its former value commodity prices were 6.4 times the 1913 level.

During the period from January, 1922, to July, 1926, when commodity prices in France increased a little more than 2½ times, stock prices increased not quite 2½ times.

Bond Movements Irregular.

Bond prices during the same period had three movements, the bank finds. From January to August, 1922, the bond index moved from 72 to 77. This was followed by a decline to a low of 52 in November, 1925, the low point of the 1922-1926 period. By July, 1926, the index had risen to 54, a point 25

RAID ON BANKER'S PANTS MAKES HIS WIFE "CRIMINAL"

A downstate banker yesterday added two more worries to his already long list of financial embarrassments. He said he'd always supposed bankers were immune from having the feminine part of the family go through their trousers' pockets; he also added he never believed he'd turn out to be an actual passer of counterfeit money.

"My cashier called my attention the other day to some bad money that had been turned in at the bank," he said. "I decided I'd take it home and examine it at my leisure with a magnifying glass. I slipped the roll in my pocket and promptly forgot all about it.

"A day or two later I happened to pull out the roll at breakfast and found a $5 bill was missing."

"Great Scott! I've lost one of those phoney fives," I said to my wife.

"O, yes, dear, I meant to tell you I borrowed a $5 bill from your roll," she casually replied. "I had to pay a bill at the butcher's."

"What!" I yelled, setting down my coffee cup and grabbing my hat. I dashed down to the butcher's and asked him if he remembered my wife giving him a $5 bill.

"Sure I do. What about it?"

"Have you got it?"

"No. I paid some bills, but I haven't the least idea which one got the five. Anything wrong with it?"

"I told him 'no' as casually as I could and went home and finished my breakfast. Now I'm wondering how I'd come out if some high pressure criminal lawyer got after me.

"I suppose I'm guilty, all right—but, then how about the wife?"

Add good uses for closed banks' buildings — the Ashland and 79th Street State Bank building is being remodeled into a beer tavern, according to a sign displayed outside the building.

In the furious trading at the opening of the wheat pit last Saturday, Charles Laib, a Bartlett Frazier company broker, received a blow in the side that broke several ribs. He is expected to be on the sidelines for a week. A. K. Munson narrowly escaped being seriously hurt yesterday when he slipped on the top of the pit and fell.

According to farmers coming on the market lately the advance in the grain market has solved their usual spring repair problems. Many have cashed grain to finance the repair of their machinery.

WESTERN ROADS' TRAFFIC BETTER THAN YEAR AGO

The Milwaukee road yesterday reported that car loadings for the week ended May 2 totaled 23,098 cars, compared with 21,301 cars in the like period of 1932 and 19,426 cars in the like period of April, 1933. Loadings on the road have shown an increase for twelve successive days over the like period in 1932. The principal gains last week were in miscellaneous freight, including beer shipments, and in wheat and wheat products.

Loadings on the Atchison last week also exceeded those of the like week in 1932, with a total of 21,808 cars, compared with 21,410 last year. However, the total fell below that of the 23,762 in the preceding week.

Another western road to report an increase in loadings is the North Western. Loadings on this road for the week of May 6 totaled 21,399 cars—an increase of 272 cars over the like period of 1932 and of 131 cars over the preceding week in 1933.

STOCKS REACT AFTER RALLY; CLOSE LOWER

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, May 8.—The craving for profits assumed epidemic proportions in late stock trading today, and the list, with rare exceptions, closed down moderately on a turnover of approximately 3,000,000 shares.

After an irregular, dull opening, followed immediately by a slight turndown, buying operations were resumed on an appreciable scale as commodities rallied. Around noon gains ranging from 1 to 3 points or so were the rule, with steel, railroad, and motor shares in the van of the advance. At that time carrier equities were somewhat better liked than the mill run of stocks.

With the rally at its height, however, the attention of traders turned to the recovery the dollar was making against foreign currencies, and forthwith there was a turnabout in the price trend as earlier buyers turned to the selling side.

President's Talk Reassures.

Wall street appeared to consider President Roosevelt's address last night reassuring on numerous points, particularly as regards the President's plan for controlled inflation through higher commodity prices. There were readers of the speech, however, who were perturbed by that section of it to the effect that gold contracts cannot be met because of insufficiency of the metal. The President's words on that phase of the situation were not comforting to more introspective students.

Stocks were depressed quite sharply in the last few minutes of trading, selling spreading to all groups to wipe out earlier appreciations and push quotations for leading shares below

Dollar Rises When Raiders Turn to Franc

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, May 8.—The American dollar gained in strength today in relation to the British pound from the opening of the foreign exchange market. After opening weak in relation to French and Swiss francs, Dutch guilders and German marks, it rallied against all of them.

The French franc advenced to $.0462, but reacted to $.0458 this afternoon.

Sterling started here at $3.99, a decline of 2 cents from Saturday's close, advanced to $3.99½ and then reacted to $3.94¼, net loss for the day 3¾ cents.

Dutch Guilders Decline.

Guilders were strong at the start at $.4744, an advance of 53 points, or nearly half a cent, but declined to $.4725 in the afternoon.

Swiss francs opened at $.2281, an advance of 21 points, but reacted to $.2270.

Japanese exchange followed the course of sterling, declining 30 points to $.2425.

Although fluctuations in prices were erratic, the volume of trading in the New York market was smaller than the latter part of last week. The French franc was the center of attack by foreign speculators, actuated by a belief that the unit must decline, despite assurance of government officials that France has no intention of suspending gold payments.

Sterling Sold to Aid Franc.

Selling of sterling to support the franc apparently weakened the pound against both the franc and the dollar.

Traders believed the movements were dictated by conditions in Europe, where the French franc is exposed to speculative drives. They saw no indication that the improvement in the dollar had resulted from statements made by President Roosevelt in his radio address last night.

An advance of the Argentine pesos from $0.2850 on Saturday to $0.30 today was the feature of the South American group. Sales in francs were reported today at $.3125.

EASTERN RAILS FIGHT PROPOSAL TO REDUCE FARE

Road Presidents Will Meet Tomorrow.

Proposals of the western railroads to reduce passenger fares from the present basic rate of 3.6 cents per mile to 2 cents a mile for coach travel and 3 cents a mile for Pullman accommodations are meeting with determined resistance from the eastern lines, according to reports in railroad circles here yesterday.

The eastern roads, however, are reported to be willing to compromise on a reduction to 2.75 cents for both coach and Pullman travel.

D. T. Lawrence, who among other positions holds that of chairman of the presidents' committee of the eastern trunk lines, is reported to have telegraphed Harry Guy Taylor, western railroad commissioner, asking that he hold up any action on fare reduction. Mr. Lawrence is also reported to have called all the railroad presidents of the country to a meeting in Washington tomorrow when the problem will be thrashed out.

Western Roads Favor Slash.

A majority of the western roads are reported to favor the high reduction in passenger fares as a means of winning back the business they have lost in recent years. Their position is that the only way to restore this business is to make travel by railroad cheaper than the cost of travel by private automobile.

The eastern roads pass through densely populated sections of the country and they maintain there is no assurance they would add to their profits by cutting rates because they would have to handle a much larger volume of traffic to make up the difference in returns.

Distances are much greater in the west and the western executives feel

BERGHOFF BEGS THE PUBLIC to be Patient

TO SAY THAT there is an overwhelming demand for Berghoff beer is putting it mildly. Unless you have actually witnessed the activity at the Berghoff brewery since April 7, you cannot conceive the enormity of our problem.

We expected a big initial rush. But no one could possibly have foreseen the tremendous demand that has followed.

People tried Berghoff—and found it good. They told others—and the demand grew. Word spread throughout the nation. The Atlantic coast, the Pacific states and the far Southland have all tried to get this beer.

Enterprising restaurateurs everywhere and leading hotel operators, anxious to please their guests, write, telegraph and phone the brewery asking that special consideration be given to the distributors who serve them.

The situation has reached the point where only a fraction of our daily flood of orders can be handled promptly.

In this day, when beers are being compared as never before, it is gratifying to know that Berghoff is so universally preferred. It is apparent that the public likes Berghoff Dortmunder.

The goodness of this distinctive style of beer is largely the result of our natural, old Munich process of brewing.

Every effort will be made to supply your territory promptly. But remember—it takes you only a minute to order a case of Berghoff beer. It takes us months to brew it.

We beg you, please to be patient. We promise you'll never be disappointed.

HOLDS INDUSTRY DENIED CREDIT IN SECURITIES BILL

Investment Bankers' Head Asks Congress Delay.

Asserting that the ability of the country's industry to finance itself is imperiled by the securities bills passed by the house of representatives and senate, Frank M. Gordon, president of the Investment Bankers' Association of America, yesterday issued an appeal on behalf of his organization that the legislation be put over until the next session of congress.

The amended senate bill, which was approved yesterday, and the bill passed last week by the house are equally unworkable, Mr. Gordon declared.

Cites Commerce Chamber's Plea.

At the same time Mr. Gordon made public the text of the resolution adopted at the recent meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce urging that final action on the securities measure be postponed. A letter explaining the views of the chamber is being sent to all members.

Because of the grave questions which have been raised by the successive drafts of the bills, the chamber believes that public interest would be better served by deliberate consideration of the measure.

Mr. Gordon pointed out yesterday that the wholesale liability clause, which was the most objectionable feature of the house bill, is also incorporated in the draft approved yesterday by the senate. He cited the danger that responsible corporation directors would be unwilling to continue under the stringent regulations.

Sees Handicap to Recovery.

"The measure as a whole might be exceptionally deflationary in its effects because it affords unreasonable interference with honest business at a time when recovery from the depression depends on facilitating the flow of investment capital to revitalize industry," Mr. Gordon said.

"This imposes on officers and directors, underwriters, accountants, engineers, and others who provide the information on securities registered under the law, an extreme degree of diligence, accuracy, and financial liability that is not impracticable, but dangerous," he said. "Many responsible persons would refuse to assume it."

N. Y. Merchants Rap Bill.

New York, May 8.—[Special.]—The Merchants' Association of New York sent telegrams today to President Roosevelt and to members of the senate committee on banking and currency, declaring that certain features of the federal securities bill would have a harmful effect on business and commerce. The telegrams asked that the bill, which was passed by the house of representatives Saturday, be referred to the senate committee for a hearing in order that business interests might have an opportunity to present their point of view.

Great Northern Life Insurance

I am contemplating buying a policy from Great Northern Life Insurance company. Please give me information on the company.—C. J. P.

Great Northern Life Insurance company [Milwaukee], a stock company, was incorporated in 1909. On Nov. 1, 1932, it took over the outstanding policies of American Fidelity Insurance company.

At the close of 1932 investments were fairly well diversified. Mortgage loans constituted 32.1 per cent of invested assets, loans to policyholders 23.2 per cent, and bonds [amortized values] 40.4 per cent. Real estate was 4.3 per cent.

Reserves required by law to secure outstanding policies totaled $4,515,000. Reserves on supplemental contracts amounted to $142,000, liability of health and accident department was $344,000 and other liabilities were $270,000. Surplus above all liabilities listed amounted to $540,000.

In 1932 mortality was 60.6 per cent of expectations, as computed by mortality tables, against 57.3 per cent in 1931. This is favorable.

Reflecting the general experience of insurance companies in 1932 insurance in force in 1932 dropped 9.4 per cent to $33,115,000, against $36,554,000 on Dec. 31, 1931.

GRAINS EASIER; PUBLIC BUYING IS MORE WARY

Prices Fail to Respond to Roosevelt Speech.

WHEAT IN U. S. FUNDS

	Mon-day.	Satur-day.
Chicago	72⅜c	73c
Winnipeg, May	.....	57⅛c
Liverpool, May	60⅛c	62c
Do Argentine	63c	63¼c
Rotterdam, May	54⅛c	55¾c

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Grain traders construed President Roosevelt's broadcast speech Sunday night as decidedly bullish on commodities, but there was not the rush of buying by the public that was anticipated. Wheat, especially, showed a heavy undertone, while corn, after rising around 1 cent from Saturday's finish to a new high for the season, reacted sharply toward the close.

Wheat traders found it hard to explain the lack of buying enthusiasm which has been such a feature lately, and reports from other markets also commented on the falling off in the persistent support.

Prices held within a range of 1¼ to 1⅜ cents, with free selling in evidence on the advances above 74 cents for the July. The lowest figures of the day were made toward the last in sympathy with a recession in stocks.

Short Covering Early in Day.

Strength in stocks and also corn had some effect on wheat early, but the upturn was due more to local short covering than to commission house buying. The close was ⅝ to ¾ of a cent lower, with May finishing at 72⅝ cents; July, 73⅛ to 73¾ cents; September, 74 to 74⅛ cents, and December, 76 to 76⅛ cents.

The first flush of enthusiastic buying based on inflation talk was regarded as having passed, as far as the wheat market was concerned. There was a disposition to await further developments at Washington, especially as to how the new farm relief bill would be administered and the method that would be followed to assist advancing prices.

Corn Guided by Weather.

Corn has become a weather market to a considerable extent, according to trade views, and with heavy rains shown in parts of the main belt, which will further delay plowing and planting, there was persistent buying of futures by commission houses and the local element. Houses with eastern connections were sellers and there was also considerable profit taking due to the upturn of 20¼ to 21⅝ cents from the low point, which was established early in March. The market reacted sharply toward the last and closed ⅜ of a cent higher to ⅛ of a cent lower, with May at 42⅜ to 42⅝ cents; July, 44⅝ to 44⅞ cents, and September, 46⅝ to 46¾ cents.

Trading was on a heavy scale, with the total sales of futures at Chicago 3,212,830 bushels, against 21,897,000 bushels last year.

Oats failed to get into new ground, meeting with profit taking on the advances and closing unchanged to ⅛ of a cent higher. Rye finished ¼ to ⅜ of a cent lower and barley closed ¼ of a cent higher to ⅜ of a cent lower.

LARD REACHES NEW HIGH; GENERAL TRADE BROADER

Increased buying orders from various interests made an active and strong market for lard and meats, with highest price of the season recorded and well held. At the close lard futures were up 22½ to 40 cents with December leading. Cash lard was up 27½ cents, or $6.07½ for regular, $5.45 for loose, and $5.50 for leaf. Liverpool lard was unchanged for July and 3d higher on September.

HOGS AND LAMBS SOAR TO HIGHEST PRICES IN WEEKS

Hogs and lambs yesterday forged aggressively forward to new highs for recent weeks. Cattle followed more slowly, but reached a top of $7.15, the highest mark since middle of March. This price also was within 35 cents of the highest point since early last December. Lambs soared to the highest levels in eight months. The general hog average at $4.10 stood within 5 cents of the highest point since Sept. 26.

The advance in hogs was the sharpest for one day since the post-moratorium rise in March. Barring two other periods during the winter when storms and severe cold drove prices upward, yesterday's rise was the sharpest since last June. Prices on only two days have averaged higher in almost eight months. The advance in live stock was attributed both to the constructive speech made by the President Sunday night, and also to the abbreviated receipts.

Run Lightest Since March 13.

The trade could not find a satisfactory explanation for the sudden curtailment of the movement, and this tended to further incite buyers to action. The run was the smallest for a Monday since March 13 and stood 19 per cent under the six-week average.

As a whole, producers and live stock feeders are getting about 22 per cent more money for their animals than they were at the low time of the winter.

Full carloads of fat steers are now valued at $1,200, as against $1,075 three months ago. Carloads of hogs averaging $945 yesterday sold at $745 three months ago and at $795 on the corresponding day last year. On Dec. 31, 1932, carloads of 23,000 pounds were sold at $635, the lowest in 54 years.

Buying Wave Helps Hogs.

A broad buying wave swept the hog division yesterday, advancing prices 10 to 25 cents, with the close at the high point of the day. Some late shipping orders had to go over unfilled for lack of supplies. Top sales of 190 to 200 pound butchers advanced 25 cents to $4.25. Buying again showed a marked preference for lard hogs.

Cattle buyers were more inclined to be cautious and averted a runaway market, but tendency ruled strong to higher except in a few long-fed heavy steers. Fancy 926 pound yearling steers to Swift at $7.15 established the new top.

Skyrocketing wool markets, with quotations at some points on the range the highest since 1930 made lambs with a full growth of wool valuable property. Prices for wooled stock jumped 25 to 35 cents more, showing 50 to 75 cents gain in four days and $1.00 to $1.25 advance in three weeks.

Bird-Sykes

Established 1903. Graham Distributor.

STUDEBAKER Dictator 8 sedan, 1931; we present this fine car for Tuesday's special. Its price should fire the imagination of any buyer, and its next owner will drive it with complete confidence. Looks "new" throughout; has sent covers, driving light, free wheeling, well built motor, chassis and body; just reconditioned; guaranteed. $445

GRAHAM 1931 Sedan. The countrywide famous Prosperity Six Graham and just that of a new car. Finished beautiful dark blue, with 6 cream wire wheels, 6 excellent tires. A sturdy six, economical, with plenty of size, comfort and power for everybody. Check this description with the car as it stands on the floor. Guaranteed. $475

DODGE EIGHT de luxe roadster, 1931. You young fellows who are not quite as popular as you might be—see this car. It's finished in Desert Sand with fenders and trunk to match, 6 wire wheels, chrome covers, and that best of all features—the fold down windshield. Reconditioned, too, and guaranteed. You can write your own ticket with this car. $375

GRAHAM EIGHT-20 1931 Sedan. A reconditioned Graham, as we sell them, is always a decidedly better investment. This Graham is most attractive, has the appearance that stamps it as brand new, equipped with 6 wire wheels, driving light, trunk on rear, and is a far greater value than this low figure might indicate to you. We urge immediate inspection because of the price. $545
